INTRODUCTION

Schedule Overview The Federal Judicial Center (FJC) serves as the educational and research agency for Federal courts. It provides educational materials for judges and court employees and serves as a liaison to the international judicial community.

Additional Background Information This schedule revises dispositions for two series of Oral History records, Transcripts and Audio Records, which FJC maintains. These records were scheduled for permanent retention in DAA-0516-2016-0001, items 32 and 33 respectively. However, FJC has since reviewed the deeds of gift and determined that the deeds do not authorize transfer of the records to another organization such as the National Archives. The intent of the FJC now is to retain the records on a long term basis to fulfill the restrictions of the deeds of gift. If FJC no longer requires the records, it will offer them to the Supreme Court Historical Society.

Overall Recommendation

I recommend approval of this schedule.
