1. STOP the WAR on BOMBING and KILLING,
DEMAND U.N. NEGOTIATIONS FOR PEACE IN ASIA; Congress to re-allocate military funds for mass education in U.S.

2. HOLD FAST to EDUCATION FOR DEMOC-RACY. Expand Jefferson’s program of Education for All, including Adults. Establish FORUMS to discuss controversial issues; EN-COURAGE the DEVELOPMENT of the CHILD’s INTERESTS as of intrinsic worth;
Dr. RAPFERT’S philosophy does not meet the needs of students today. He ignores the interests of the child. Dr. Rafferty espouses an authoritarian philosophy to teach the 3 Rs. This produces many youth, who are frustrated, hopeless; who become robots, ruffians or rioters.

3. PROVIDE VOCATIONAL TRAINING for STUDENTS NOT GOING TO COLLEGE.
They need jobs. This will aid thousands to become happy, productive citizens; thus helping to prevent Watts-Marin riots. Projects, PEAS:
• IN S.F. (*) and Dan Soko in San Gabriel are pilots. (*) Readers Digest, May 65

4. SUPPORT STATE and LOCAL BOARDS of EDUCATION to safeguard local control of schools. Let teacher teach as approved by district.

5. PROVIDE STATE-WIDE READING IMPROVEMENT, particularly for those having trouble with reading.

6. REDUCE CLASS SIZE, where necessary, so that students may have individual help.

7. REMOVE DISORDERLY STUDENTS to SPECIAL HELP ROOMS so that well-behaved students have opportunity to learn.

8. GET FULL VALUE FROM DOLLARS PAID TO TEACHERS for teaching by providing clerical help for them.

9. MAKE MAXIMUM USE of FEDERAL projects such as: HEADSTART, YOUTH OPPORTUNITIES, ELEMENTARY-SECONDARY, MANPOWER DEFENSE-TRAINING, JOE CORPS, SMITH-HUGHES ACTS, etc.

10. ESTABLISH UNIFORM STATEWIDE SALARY SCALE and TENURE to attract and retain competent teachers.

11. BROADEN SUPPORT for JR. COLLEGES, STATE COLLEGES, and UNIVERSITIES. Prevent undue outside interference.

12. ABOLISH the STATE SUPERINTENDENT’S SPY SYSTEM. Rely on courts and professional appeal boards.

13. DEVELOP INSTRUCTION to PORTRAY ROLE of MINORITIES’ contribution to American Heritages.

14. THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT’S OFFICE SHOULD PROMOTE AN EDUCATIONAL CLIMATE in which teachers can render their maximum service. I have every confidence that the teachers of California are doing an excellent job in helping their students to learn to love our country, to uphold the ideals of American democracy and to achieve the maximum of learning. The main function of the State Dept. of Education is to provide technical assistance and financial support to assure that teachers may effectively do their job.
BAY AREA PEACE ACTION COUNCIL

SPONSORS COMMITTEE

MEETING

THOSE PRESENT: Ray Allen, Jim Van, Willard Harper, Jorge Colvin, George Reeves, Al Williams, Paul Trafacante, Gale Justice, Sherrill Gerke, Bud Alcock, John McMan, Cyn Evans, Jim Henry, Margaret Driggs, Ray Fauser

Meeting was opened by Al Williams who was named chairman, and the secretary was named and it was yours truly. (Surprise!)

First point was brought up by Gale Justice who wanted literature to state that Bay Pac was permanent beyond the November 15th offensive. Other items he wanted added went into heated discussion. Gale Justice wanted all literature sent out to give names of both group and individual sponsors, and this was rejected.

Willard Harper, unsuccessful candidate against Max Rafferty four years ago was introduced by Al Williams and it was asked that he be given a few minutes to speak. Harper asked our support for the 1970 election. Committee for Solidarity for Vietnamese People has endorsed him as has the American Friends Service Committee. Others expressed great interest. Peace and Freedom (Gale Justice and Bertha?) expressed great action interest. Harper seemed to be extremely interested in having the support of the Secretary and his group.

A Labor Committee Co-ordinator was appointed in the person of John McMan, whose telephone number is 863-9198. McMan asked Ray Allen for his support and effort in gaining new lists of sympathizers.

Bud Alcock of the High School Project Movement (YSA) spoke and stated that Bay Pac must be stronger in its endorsement of various groups, and activities. This was given considerable verbal play.

Jorge Colvin, who gave us her phone (yours truly) 751-2147, wants yours truly to keep in closer touch with her. She (Jorge) announced that GI-CAP has moved to 221...28th Street. And that Bay Pac and Student Mobilization will be sharing the same location. This location is to be named this week possibly.

Margaret Driggs made her report and said that the Unitarian Church has not as yet given consent to use their facilities for the future Bay Pac meetings, the next one being set for Sept.4. Marge said that if it were not available that she could gain the use of Sacred Heart again. Yours truly led a barrage against this proposal.

Jim Henry and Cyn Evans of the SF Draft Resistance said that they wanted to stage a strong anti-draft demonstration on the 15th of November. Also that Draft card burnings are being set up that day and a day sometime between now and then.

At March 7, 1970...

On September 6th, Sid Peck is due here from Philadelphia and Cleveland for a meeting with the West Coast Regional Committee of the New Mobilization. Terry Hallinan is having him come here in order to "subdue" Bay Pac, of which Terry told Sid over the phone must not be allowed to exist. Bay Pac resistance to Terry is growing every day. Jorge Colvin said that when SID gets here he will be told that Terry is to be brought into line or he will be thrown out in a general meeting, which would only split all sections. (Sun Reporter Office maybe, trying to get location CHANGED)

Jorge announced that National Mobilization is no longer backing S.D.S., National Office. And that the Joe Hill Caucus here in SF is recognized. PLP is not.

On the 15, 17th of September, the National Steering Committee of National Mobilization will be on National tour. It was determined that we do not want them here in San Francisco. A phone call by Jorge to them on that effect was authorized.

Bay Pac Western Regional Meeting of all PACs still scheduled on the 27th of Sept. Steve Wilcox will be here from the Washington office with SID Peck.

Also left out of last report: Present at last meeting: Ted Scott, Karen Talbot, Ed Keating. The Eldridge Foundation will possibly grant a grant to Bay Pac according to Jorge.

Announcements:

[ ] stated that he was a member of the and that BAPAC has received [ ] endorsement. He came tonight because [ ] has not reported to the [ ] what BAPAC was doing for the November 15 march.

[ ] reported that there is still a need for desks and office equipment.

[ ] reported on publicity stating that various schemes have been devised to publicize the November 15 march; banners, letters and posters are going out to the general public.

PAUL TROFICANNA reported that 200 letters were sent out this week and that 30 were already returned with money. He believes a vast telephone campaign can produce a vast number of dollars. [ ] has been put in a position for work full time at 2170 Bryant.

No one was present to give the endorsement report but it was suggested that members go down to the organizations rather than write letters.

[ ] spoke on the Program Committee.
WAYNE MORRIS, Senator, has been ruled out because he has worked against laborers and the Santa Domingo incident.

JOHN MORAN, SR. reported he will contact people at Stanford University for endorsement. Committees in Stanford are already preparing carpools drapped in black for the November 15 march.

The Cleveland Conference has already endorsed the November 15 moratorium, and union shops will be closed.
Mrs. HOUSEMAN, a member of the AFT local, said that teachers will not work on that date and that none of those members reported on the Arrangements Committee. The only new idea brought up was that they should have stop-over points during the march where the organization would sell food to the marchers and make money.

New Mob. will meet next Tuesday to iron out differences with BAPAC.

RAY ALLEN announced he has two legal names. He also stated that in the Sixth Army there is an Army man who has been sued for brutality and the judges have dropped the charge and in the meantime ALLEN, who is an Episcopal Minister, has been described as subversive by the Army. He has a $250,000,000 suit against the Sixth Army, the "San Francisco Examiner" and Channel 7, KGO, in San Francisco. His court is now under advice of Judge LEVINE's court.

is his attorney who is filing this suit. The money will be put into the defense fund to help soldiers who are in the stockades. Five per cent of the money is already lost and will go to the church and there will be attorney fees. ALLEN believes he will win this case.

Chairman - Alex Forman, secretary Doran Houseman announced there will be a press conference October 7 at State College on the October 15th moratorium.

Delivered a 9-point proposal to unite New Mob and BAPAC. The duplicate organizations will act as one body in making decisions on the November 15 march and rally. There was a considerable amount of debate between Paul Tropicanti and [name] wherein [name] acted as mediator and having both organizations come to an agreement. [Name] said that some people have been making checks out to New Mob West. [name] commented that regardless what name is used on the checks, they will still go into the bank. Two people are authorized to sign checks and in order to spend the amount must be approved. Anyone who pays for something without being authorized will be responsible for it.

[Name] said there is still a need for desks and typewriters. Two students from San Francisco State College, one named [name] have agreed to paint posters for the march. Artists throughout the bay area are giving a hand in creating artistic works for the march.

[Name] reported on the program committee saying that they have decided to have five or six speakers by the time they get organized. It was suggested that a Vietnamese speak if one could be obtained from the war zone but this is doubtful because Margaret Driggs stated to the membership that while she was in Toronto, Canada, the Vietnamese would not come because they would have no protection over there.

The route planned has not been decided. The police department or park recreation has not written the police department or park recreation as yet.

The October 15 moratorium stating that something is being planned by San Francisco State College. On October 7 there will be a meeting of trade unions such as social service at Oakland, California.

A number of topics, such as finance, decorations, public support, money from foundations, what not, will be discussed at the next meeting, due to lack of time at this one.

The Arrangements Committee will be meeting on Tuesday October 7, 8:00 p.m. at 2170 Bryant Street.

The meeting adjourned.

SUBJECT: SAN JOSE POLICE DEPARTMENT RAYMOND BROSHEARS - VICTIM CIVIL RIGHTS

DATE: 7/8/70

On above date BROSHEARS a professed minister of the Christ Church of God, 26 7th St., San Francisco advised that he and members of his Church are being harassed by members of the San Jose Police Department. BORSHEARS states that his church believes in the premiss of "faith healing" and while in the San Jose area were accosted by the police department for practicing medicine without a license. BORSHEARS allegedly telephoned Chief of Police RAYMOND BLACKMORE of the SJPD and complained about harrassment. BLACKMORE supposebly tape recorded the telephone calls and refused to hear BROSHEARS complaints. No arrests have been made by the police and no physical abuses have been noted.

It was explained to BROSHEARS that on its face the police were making normal legal inquiries into possible violations of the law and that he would have to cite a specific incident on which to make a complaint. BROSHEARS began talking rather incoherently and left the office without making a formal complaint.

SUBJECT: REVEREND RAYMOND BROSHEARS

A telephonic complaint was received today from captioned Subject who said he represented the Gay Alliance in San Francisco. His remarks were directed toward yesterday's newspaper accounts of Acting Director GRAY'S testimony, specifically concerning support of Sheriff HONGISTO by gay activists. BROSHEARS was most uncomplimentary and abusive in his comments. He demanded a copy of this report or an official release by this office as to whether we were investigating homosexuals. He became paranoid by insinuating that the Federal Government intended to arrest and shoot all homosexuals. He rambled on about LEE HARVEY OSWALD, SIRHAN SIRHAN, and a host of others who had been described as homosexuals. When he was repeatedly advised that we would have no comment he finally asked what would coerce a release by this office, a demonstration? He promised to organize a group demonstration Monday in front of this building. True to his past tendencies to seek publicity, he requested that we bring cameras and lots of film. No time was specified for this demonstration.

BROSHEARS' file confirms that this outburst is typical of his past activities. It will be recalled that he was in the news last week when he officiated at the marriage of two WACs from Fort Ord.

WARNING WARNING WARNING....The Tenderloin and Potrero Hill abound with agents from the FBI's special weapons team. The civil liberties of individuals are being violated by the FBI as well as by the police. There is never an excuse for suspension of civil liberties. There can be no guarantee they shall ever be resumed. The FBI and SFPD both say that this is the only way they can catch the people they are after. Yet, many innocent people have been arrested in these "stop and searches" because they have traffic tickets that have been unpaid, etc.

What is happening to us now; the first stage of OPERATION PHOENIX has gone into effect. OPERATION PHOENIX is a paramilitary operation of the CIA-FBI, through which manipulated acts of violence are brought about, and then the "law 'n order" mob will "save" us from chaos, anarchy, and senseless violent acts, all of which they have created through their "agents", and they now have the excuse to establish a police-state, and King Nixon will not be impeached. William E. Colby is in charge of OPERATION PHOENIX and works directly with Clarence Kelly on the "San Francisco Project". Kelly has stated that San Francisco is the "nerve center of dissent in America, and only suspension of civil liberties will give us the leeway we need to bring the leftists under control".

S.L.A....A "POLICE" OPERATION?.....Mae Brussel, noted expert in the study of such operations of the police, a teacher at Monterey Peninsula College, who has a regular program on a Carmel radio station, has said that they S.L.A is "strange". A quote from Mae that was in the recent BARB sez: "All the recent kidnappings were planned, funded and carried out by the FBI-CIA. Once the people are terrorized (via the senseless murders on the streets of San Francisco), you can force a police state on them (the people). The San Francisco CHRONICLE recently ran an article with the headline, "A Constant Watch On Radicals Urged". The article talks about a report made to a California Senate Subcommittee, based on recommendations of a 63 page manual. Where did this manual come from? They don't even know who or what the S.L.A is yet, but the manuals there, and the report is ready within five weeks of the date of the Hearst kidnapping. They recommended increased security for homes and offices, a constant watch on "radicals" such as blacks, chicanos, and labor organizations and a neighborhood spy on every block. This is Nazi Germany." "The purpose of the Marcus Foster murder was to establish the existence of the S.L.A. In October of 73, the American Nazi Party was passing out leaflets in the San Leandro shopping center, that stated, "There might be shotgun blasts into the guts of Mix-Master principals and superintendents." Dr. Foster was black and his co-worker and close friend, Mr. Blackburn is white. A well respected black educator was eliminated in Oakland and the murder would be associated with black radicals to spread terror among the community". Two different kinds of bullets were used of the shootings, which allowed the white educator to live. The black man never had a chance; the bullets that murdered him were tipped with cyanide. The purpose of these feats of violence in California in California, bragged about by people who are unknown even to the FBI and the local police, is to spread the illusion that multiple terrorists are hiding amongst us, trying to create chaos and disrupt our daily lives."

Mae Brussel also goes on to tell about "General Cinque".Donald Defreeze" and his many "deals" with the Los Angeles police, and his extremely mysterious escape from Soledad prison. "He did not escape, he was "released". Defreeze tried to join various radical groups after his escape and was turned down by them all. They didn't trust him. He was too radical. There are those who were "in touch" with Defreeze enough to know that he is a dupe for the OPERATION PHOENIX team. The so-called, "Zebra Killers" are a part of the same trip.

MARCH IN SAN FRANCISCO NOV. 15
FALL OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE WAR IN VIETNAM

BAY AREA PEACE ACTION COUNCIL
2170 Bryant Street
San Francisco Offices

Dear Friends:
The "Nixon Administration" is on the spot. The recent token troop withdrawal from Vietnam which was expected to please the public opinion polls has failed. This is clearly shown in the results of general elections which are protesting a fast growing tension to the Vietnam War.

Within this context, the anti-war conference held in Cleveland on July 4th & 5th, planned a series of protest actions as a "Fall Offensive" against the war in Vietnam. The specifics are outlined in the resolution adopted by the Cleveland Conference.

WITHDRAWAL OF SUPPORT OF THE THIEN-
KY GOVERNMENT
IMMEDIATE AND TOTAL WITHDRAWAL OF ALL
U.S. TROOPS AND SUPPLIES AND DISMANTLING OF U.S.
BASES IN VIETNAM.
DEFEAT OF THE A.B.A., AND RELATED MISSILE PROGRAMS.
SWIFT PROGRESS TOWARD DEFENCE.
IMMEDIATE IMPLEMENTATION OF A PROGRAM TO END
RACIAL, REPRESSION, AND POVERTY IN THE U.S.
FREE SPEECH FOR ALL.

In the Bay Area the Fall Offensive will culminate with a massive MARCH & RALLY, hopefully the largest in the history of the anti-war movement. In order to successfully build such an action, the march and rally will be PEACEFUL and legal.

We urge you to become involved now. It will give you the opportunity of sharing in the making of important decisions, and also helping the fall offensive in the Bay Area reflect the thinking of as broad a representation as possible.

As you very well know, this is the third year in which this kind of appeal to all persons and organizations concerned about achieving a just and adequate INTERNATIONAL PEACE in OUR TIME has been made. Your support is essential, because if the people are to have the power to end and our organizations must act now, and do so in the spirit of CO-OPERAT-ION, and oppose the "Washington, D.C. - Nixon policy, and the Military Industrial Complex" and all who support it.

Help us make sure that the coming NOVEMBER 15 PEACE MARCH be larger and more effective than the past anti-war peace marches.

Yours for peace, we are, ber 12 to report he had been severely beaten by a sergeant and two other enlisted men, all MPs.

"He said he was knocked out and when he came to the sergeant was sitting on his back holding him around the throat with a stranglehold. And another one was hitting or kicking him in the kidneys," the Rev. Mr. Broshears said.

The young private told the minister he enlisted in the Army two months after he arrived in the United States, in July, 1967, so he could become an U. S. citizen. But after a marriage and a divorce, he went AWOL from Fort Knox, Ky., some three months ago.

Privété McArdle, who turned himself in to Presidio authorities in early August, apparently has been getting "the treatment" at the processing detachment facility because he carries a Bible, the Rev. Broshears said.

"He said one captain told him, you're supposed to carry a Bible and not a sissy-sticking Bible."

Re: Economic Opportunities Commission (War on Poverty)
San Francisco, California

Sir:

I wish to bring before you a matter that is small in nature but it still is in violation of the Federal laws.

For many weeks and possibly years, office supplies of the EOC have been being used for private concerns such as reams of papers and printing facilities being used to support activities that are most questionable in the eyes of many.

San Francisco State College, the scene of violent activities perpetrated by members of the Progressive Labor Party, many of whom work for the EOC, is a point in principle. Many articles that were distributed at the College were printed at various EOC "target Areas" and then passed on to striking students to hand out.

I am in sympathy with various items requested by the students, but I am firm belief that the entire affair is sponsored by the Progressive Labor Party and their fellow travelers.

I would request the Bureau to request the EOC to keep a much closer count of supplies and be forced to account for each stencil and every ream of paper.

Thank you, keep up the good work!

"FAIR WEATHER FRIENDS"

Recently the editor of the LIGHT was on a Bay Area radio station that has the largest listening audience in the area, and some of the people who know this editor were listening in. They did not hesitate for one minute to scream and criticize to friends of mine that I am "a disgrace", a "vile creature", they told ministers to not "recognize me from the pulpits", and all such little rotten tripe.

Isay to them, I say to all, I am first and foremost, ME, and I shall not be want you want me to be for I don't have to live with you, I must live with myself, and more important I do not have to answer to you, for I have only GOD to answer to, and I say this to you, that should this minute I die, I can go with clear heart to my GOD and say to Him, "Lord, It's me, I am not perfect, but I've done the best I can, I have been honest Lord, and I pray that you will take me just as I am."

If people would only remember that GOD is the one whom we have as Judge, He is the one whom we answer, and it is He whom we please, then and only then shall they live in peace with their fellowman.

People just like the ones who have criticized and attacked me as a result of the broadcast are the ones who in days of old, KILLED JESUS. Yes, it was the narrowminded pious ones who killed Christ, not the humble loving people. Look look look at yourself!
Clearer World

by Dr. George W. Bristor

"SEE A NEW WORLD IN CHRIST"

Is ours really a sick, sick world? Are we actually surrounded by an aggregation of dissolute humanity sans a sense of social responsibility? Do most people lean toward atheism? Is life's future as hopeless and futile as we are daily told it is. We might tend to agree that it is if we are to be influenced by the newspapers. But my answer to these questions is an emphatic NO!

We must face the fact that the news media is concerned primarily with the exceptional situation....only the act qualifies as sensationaly bizarre or fiendishly cruel gets the spotlight - I think that you'll agree that such are in the minority.

If you think that times such as we are passing thru are much different from years past, consider for a moment a message inscribed upon a stone tablet in Constantinople some 1430 years ago which reads "Our world is full of corruption - Children no longer obey their parents." Or if you prefer a more recent writing in 1870, William Pitt wrote: "There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair." From these brief examples you can easily see that man has always had his prophets of doom and his lovers of negativity.

Let's take a look at CHRIST'S attitude..... certainly it was a POSITIVE one. "Ye are the salt of the earth.....Ye are the light of the world" In saying this He was not unaware of the reality of human nature, but he was also aware of the power of praise. If we would adopt this praising attitude in relation to our fellowmen when we are confronted with negative situations we would be able to put such events in proper perspective.....we could make a valid evaluation of life situations. For truly in HIS name we are the salt of the earth - we are the light of the world. We are that is, the vast majority of us are, only a few come under the spotlight of evil and even those are offered a positive way to salvation in Matthew 11, verses 28,29, and 30. "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

If your world looks all topsy turvy and we can't see any future of promise, the chances are that we are trying to go it alone - trying to make a life without CHRIST. If this is found to be our experience we must turn about and surrender ourselves wholly to our GOD and to the Christ Jesus - Reality within us all. Here we shall transcend all of the discordant world conditions and limitations and we shall find ourselves in a new world of spiritually healthy people for our world is exactly as we see it and with CHRIST we see it NEW!
An open letter:: to

In Matthew 3, it states that John the Baptist was preaching and teaching by the river Jordan, and that a group of what is named above but in other names, came by, and he spoke out at them, "You brood of vipers Who warned you to flee from the wrath that is to come? Bear fruits that befits repentance, and DO NOT PRESUME to say to yourselves, "We have Father Abraham as our father; for I tell you, GOD is able from these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear fruit that is good is cut down and thrown into the fire."

John the Baptist was a great Prophet and when and wherever he saw evil or those who were destroying the Temple of God he attacked them bitterly, for John saw the great danger of permissiveness to excess and said many times over that we can never presume nor assume for in so doing we allow the forces of apostasy to enter in to the Temple and destroy it. And for his speaking he was persecuted by those calling themselves ministers or priests, and they conspired against him with the king and he was beheaded. Today, too many of God's people have given themselves to apathy and the so-called forgiving so as not to anger or lose friendships. I say this to you, that this permissiveness is now being reaped on our college campuses. But that is not the only place, the so-called churches have such carryings ons that Jesus should he return now would take action far more than just driving the 'moneylenders' from the Temples.

Jesus has said that unless the righteousness of the people EXCEEDS that of the ministers they shall never enter into the kingdom of heaven. Jesus had much to say on "bearing false witness" against one another, and many do that today because one has dared to stand and say what the other is doing is wrong. Jesus said, "Love your enemies (but he didn't say to ignore their wrongdoings) and pray for those that persecute you, so that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good and sends rain on the just and the unjust. For if you love just those who love you, what reward have you?" And he went on to say, "You therefore must be perfect as your Father in heaven above is perfect." There was not at any time in the life of Jesus one moment of presumption or presumption, for he knew as all should know, that there is nothing in life that is sure. For as Jesus has said, "The end shall come as a thief in the night." So do not do so much presuming nor assuming regarding life or mankind.
ATLANTIAN NOTE!!

From the centuries before when history remembered itself only in what has come down to modern times as a myth, rises the sunken ATLANTIS. Time and again the theme appears on continents separated by vast and then impossible seas. Such geographical evidence is likewise being uncovered to help man prove to himself that such reoccurring myths are not usually fictional. Gifts of identical nature from "King Chronus of Atlantis" have been found by archaeologists in Phoenicia and South America. Plato left an unfinished but platable dialogue, The Critias, on Atlantis. And the 20th Century has given us the much respected medical clairvoyant, Edgar Cayce, who has left to us fantastic information regarding the nature of the lost world and its people. In his life readings, when Cayce is said to have been reading the Akashic records, Atlantis reoccurred much too frequently to go unnoticed. Out of his dissertations rose prophecy, that America, a direct karmic reflection of Atlantis, is to meet the same catastrophic end. Since science refuses to accept folk-memory as a true history, a study of Atlantis finds its validity in coincidentals beyond coincidence, in Plato and nature's memory. Atlantis is said to have been a large mass of land stretching from present America to Europe and touching or nearly so at both locations. Cayce says that this was the first place on earth man took corporal bodies, unlike his previous astral or spirit forms. At that time man was able to take flesh bodies or to remain outside them by his own free-will, and thus he maintained magnificent powers of the mind. Atlanteans were such people. Therefore, at the zenith of their existence, Atlanteans had mastered such forces as ESP, telepathy, and electricity, perfected air and sea travel, induced longevity, advanced surgery, harnessed laser rays, and discovered the power which began the world cataclysm that drowned Atlantis, nuclear energy. As a people they were restless extremists. On one end was the true SON OF GOD, always seeing God in everything and everywhere. On the other end was man seeking to perpetuate himself as the ultimate, as the dictator of his small universe, This Son of Man not only misused his powers of science in self-centeredness, but also defied the very laws of nature, refusing to obey karma, refusing to reincarnate in proper soul-cycles. Now after 117 centuries history has so progressed as to afford the opportunity to those delinquent souls of Atlantis a like situation where their karmic debt can be paid. Atlanteans are rushing to the earth to try their hand again in surpassing the renewed temptation of the NEW AGE.
Flying Saucers in the Bible

By VIRGINIA BRASINGTON

(Limited Reprint)

A minister and a Bible student, Mrs. Brasington has carefully studied the Bible in the light of present day UFO knowledge. She has come up with amazing and convincing proof that the same flying objects we are seeing today also flew in Biblical times.

The author believes that the Bible is a true account, and that indeed heavenly messengers at one time communicated openly with mankind. She also reasons that if such messengers came here, possibly from other, more highly-advanced planets, they had to have some way of getting here and returning. Then she examines the "cloud-like" vehicles and "fiery chariots" and finds that they must have been, indeed, UFOs.

You'll be intrigued as you read of the mystery of the Great Seal of the United States. The design, given to Thomas Jefferson, by a mysterious man in a black cloak, is reproduced in the ancient city of Petra, only recently re-discovered, and obviously built by the extraterrestrials or previous races more advanced than we are at the present time.

Some of the Chapters: "GOD's TRANSPORTATION"; "WHEN THE SUN STOOD STILL"; "ROUND TRIP BY SAUCER"; "A CLOUDY PILLAR"; "OUT OF THE WHIRLWIND"; "THE WORLD'S FIRST AILIFT"; "PROPHECIES FULFILLED" etc.

This is NOT the usual kind of Bible book you may have read on the subject of saucers. It is NOT filled with devils and adjurations. It is NOT a dry philosophical work. It does NOT try to convert you to any religious belief.

If you were to walk through a great cloud of soot that would coat your body, the only thing that would come out clean would be your eyeballs. Why? Because they are continually cleansing themselves. This is the provision God has made in Christ. We walk in the light, not trying to deceive ourselves, not trying to convince others that we are perfect, the blood of Christ continuously cleanses us.

Light does many things: it measures, it energizes, it vitalizes. But its first function is to reveal. Let the light shine, do not hide from its searching. Then the blood of Christ can cleanse us from all sin and we can have real fellowship with Him.

The planet URANUS was discovered by man in 1781 with Sir William Herschel the astronomer. URANUS is the planet of the Aquarian Age, for with the discovery of URANUS came the Industrial Revolution. The basic characteristics of those who are born under influence of URANUS is 'suddenness' and 'explosiveness of actions'. In action or will, URANUS dignifies all those in authority, leans toward out-of-the-way occupations (spiritualism), new kinds of treatment (radium), and an impulsive yet determined will, which cannot be restrained. In feeling, it gives intensive invention, genius, intuition, and the ability to make unconscious thoughts conscious. Many who are influenced by URANUS deviate severely from what is socially acceptable as the norm. Aquarians especially are noted for the radical departure from the normal activities and are quick to initiate new and daring innovations that are for the better in the long run. Colors of those affected by URANUS are 'electric blue', green, and orange, with the basic metals being uranium and radium. Those under or influenced by URANUS have a great deal of self-reliance, independence, originality, altruism and rebellion; but when negative, there may be rudeness and estrangement.

"THE MAJORITY minority".................

The subject I wish to touch upon now is one that is considered "taboo", and is never to be mentioned anywhere let alone in the LIGHT.

And the subject is sex. Three little letters that make up the most explosive word in any language.

It is the opinion of the LIGHT that it is high time that the church accept its responsibility for the deplorable misinformation of society towards the homosexual in America today. The laws which apply to sexual matters between consenting adults in private are based upon Victorian religious attitudes of more than a century ago. Society bases its thinking upon what the church teaches and it is time the church taught compassion and understanding rather than condemnation of the homosexual. In order to do this, the religious leaders and laymen alike must make an effort to gain knowledge of homosexuality and then use this knowledge constructively. The church can no longer go about keeping persons with this psychological motivation "hidden in the shadows of the bellfrees". They must be allowed to function as a whole person in a whole society without the guilt that the church imposes, and without secrecy, and without the shaming finger of the pious do-gooding know-nothing.

"A Clear Blue Light of Love".......I walked up the hill with worries and problems of life seemed a bit stenuous. Yet; as my feet touched the grass, the mist of the early morning swirled about me, I suddenly felt that HE was with me, I came into harmony or consciousness of Him, for He is with us all of the time. The morning veil lifted as usual and I stood with Him in a beautiful woods. Each tree glowed with the touch of God. Their leaves rustled and sang praises to their Creator. It seemed He was giving to us to drink of the pure, sweet water from the fountain beside the Altar of Life. The flavor was marvelous, and how refreshing it was! I know just how that water will taste when it comes from the heart of the earth!! And as I knelt there communing with Him, this Scripture came to me, "And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour." Something happened to me, again HE had met me with a troubled soul and lifted my burdens. A blessed hour, o how I love my God, o how I love Master Jesus, o how I love you all brethren!!
There is still hope...

Let not what man creates be held as sacred.

"Assur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say anymore to the work of our hands, you are our Gods; for in thee fatherless find love." HOSEA 14:3
And let man learn to try to achieve, but also remember that he is human and capable of colossal error.

"The idols of the heathen are silver, and gold, the work of men's hand. They have mouths but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; neither is there any breaths in their mouths. They that make them are like them; so is everyone that trusts in them." PSALMS 135

These excerpts serve to illuminate man's humanity and that he is responsible for his actions primarily to himself and to his God. Man is the active bearer of his own cross or of his own powers and richness. He only undermines his humanity when he is dependent on powers outside of himself unto whom he has projected his living substance.

"A MOTHER'S GRAVE"......Earth has some sacred spots where we feel like loosening the shoes from our feet and treading with holy reverence; where common words of pleasure are unfitting; places where friendship's hands have lingered in each other; where vows have been uttered; where prayers have been offered, and tears of parting shed. O how the thoughts hover around such places, and travel back through immeasurable space to visit them! But of all the spots on the green earth none is so sacred as that where rests, waiting the resurrection, those we have loved and cherished. Hence, in all ages, the better portion of mankind have chosen the loved spots for the burial of their dead, and in those spots they have loved to wander at even-tide to meditate and to weep alone. But among the resting-places of the dead, if there be one spot more sacred than the rest, it is a mother's grave.........amen!

Amid these quiet church-yard shades,
I wander all alone,

While, through the rustling leaves above,

The south winds sigh and moan.

The waving grass bends 'neath their breath

O'er many graves that clasp

The mouldering forms of those who come

To find their rest at last.

One lonely grave,

from all the rest,

I seek among the trees:

And there, with eyes bedimmed with tears,

I sink upon my knees.

Till deepening gloom shrouds all the land,

I stay beside the stone,

Where long, long years ago they laid,

My joy of boyhoods home!
On Sunday afternoons for several years, the beautiful city of SAN FRANCISCO has been and is still the host city for the Spiritualist organization, ST. JUDE'S CHURCH OF THE MASTER, in the Native Sons Hall, 4411 Mason Street. Now this in itself is not an amazing fact, but what is amazing is the Church itself. ST. JUDE'S congregation is one of love for it's pastor, the Right Reverend Michelina Russo. And it is reciprocal, for she loves dearly her people, but her people are not just those who are members of the congregation, but all people. She gives tirelessly of herself, her loyalty to her friends is unmatched, her sincerity comes from her Christ-like personality. Reverend Russo does not just talk her religion, but she LIVES it. When the beautiful hymn, "Living For Christ" is sung, it reminds many of her, for she encourages all to "live for HIM, who died for us", to take a verse from the song. She is a devout CHRISTian, who teaches, as many of us would like to have been taught in our schools, with Christ in her heart. Reverend Russo has started many a person on the road to becoming a minister, and she has a record unmatched anywhere in turning out CHRISTIAN ministers. Reverend Russo is a firm believer in Faith Healing, of which she can tell you of many experiences of which the Divine Physician has healed people through FAITH. Christ Jesus spoke of those who prophesy, and Reverend Russo's gift of prophecy is stunning. Seldom has one came along with the accuracy of Reverend Russo. England has it's Harry Edwards, New York it's Maurice Woodruff, Washington it's Jean Dixon, but San Francisco is blessed with Reverend Michelina Russo.

One of the most marvelous traits of Reverend Russo is that, she will "shoot from the hip", that is to say, she just tells it the way it is. She doesn't put "icing" on a bitter situation to make it easier to take, she just "lays" it out for you, and then it is up to you to accept or reject what she says, and I'll tell you this, that when you reject what she has to say, you are more often than not, the loser.

Reverend Russo also is the director of the COSMIC SCIENCE OF LIFE CHAPEL which meets three times during the week. At the Chapel she is the same Reverend Russo.

Reverend Russo is surrounded by a very faithful group of ministers who work with her and together for the good of all.
'Aftermath'

"THE FATE OF THE APOSTLES"

All of the apostles were assaulted by the enemies of their Master. They were called to seal their doctrines with their blood, and nobly did they bear the trial.

St. Matthew suffered martyrdom by being slain with a sword at a city in Ethiopia.

St. Mark expired at Alexandria, after having been cruelly dragged through the streets.

St. Luke was hanged upon an olive tree in the classic land of Greece.

St. John was put in a cauldron of boiling oil, but escaped death in a most miraculous manner, but was afterwards banished to the isle of Patmos.

St. Peter was crucified at Rome with his head downward. His body was then butchered.

St. James the Greater was beheaded at Jerusalem.

St. James the Lesser was thrown from a rampart of the temple, and then beaten to death on the ground.

St. Bartholomew was beaten to death.

St. Andrew was bound to a cross, from where he preached a sermon to his persecutors until he died.

St. Thomas was run through with a lance through the heart while in the East Indies.

St. Jude was shot to death with arrows.

St. Matthias was stoned by a mob, and then was beheaded.

St. Barnabas of the Gentiles, was stoned by an angry mob of Jews at Salonica.

St. Paul, after various tortures, was beheaded at Rome by the Emperor Nero.

Thus was the fate of the Apostles, can we who are faithful, who will not compromise the word of the Master Jesus expect any less? Although all cannot be authenticated to the very decimal, we at least know that the hatred of the world to these men and their teachings was sufficient to render the accounts not very improbable.

"From hence the lesson learn ye, To recon no man happy till ye witness the closing day; until he pass the border which severs life from death, unscathed by sorrow."
A very thorough investigation of Police Community Relations Units in San Jose, Long Beach, Los Angeles, and New Orleans, have convinced me that the "San Francisco PCR Unit has fallen behind all major PCR Units in the country in effectiveness. SFPD - PCR has LOST TOUCH with the community to which it is supposed to be identifying. And after a short conversation with the Director, and many long talks with various members of said unit, I am sure that it cannot be rectified unless the current Unit Director is replaced soon, that the situation shall become hopeless. I am sure that with his very business-like attitude and no nonsense ways, that he means well. But I am sure of this one thing, that he is concerned with the image of the PCR within the Department itself and not the image of the Department to the community. The first Director had too much the other way, that is he went out of his way to criticize the members of the Department and oftentimes unjustly, but the current Director is going just as wildly the other direction. He has suspended the Community Meetings, he has dissolved the Newsletter. The newsletter needed a vast overhaul, but not what he did. The Meetings were more than he could take for he is too "thinskinned".

Love Absolute

As I sat in the stillness, a very aged being, robed in ruddy brown came down a steep pathway of a distant hill and walked towards me. The picture I was seeing and myself seemed to move toward each other then, and when the aged being sat down upon a rock prominence, he was close to me.

"Peace be unto you." "Now I saw an angel who flew over us and there fell from his hands a green wreath which rested upon the old man's head. "I have said unto ye: 'Peace,' but do ye have peace?" "Do ye have the quiet of peace within thy heart, or is peace a word upon thy lips alone? Do ye say: 'Peace,' unto thy fellow man the while ye scourge him in thy mind?"

"Bethink ye that peace is the Godly way and peace, the way of peace was the road that The CHRIST chose upon this earthplane. It is a very royal road and it is therefore, a very rough road, filled with obstacles and thorns to block thy way. For peace ye will have the flesh plucked from thee and thine robes torn from thee and viciousness will throw a filth upon thee. Yet, if ye have peace within thy heart, as well as upon thy lips, ye will find the LIGHT of The CHRIST before thee on the Path, so that ye shall not be blind and so that the LIGHT of the Path may be a comfort unto thee. "Let the ways of peace capture thee because of the love within thee. For love will show thee true peace and it shall become a cloak that shall shield thy heart against all bitterness; against all hatred and calumny. So shall ye go thy way in right-use-ness, for ye shall not be an injury unto any man. Nor shall ye cause to suffer anyone about thee through any wanton act, for the love of peace and the peace of love shall cover thy way and direct thy feet against causing any sorrow unto thy fellow.

"I am a brother in the LIGHT and a wanderer of the wasteland." He vanished. A shining star glowed, white-gold, in the place where he was. When he first appeared his robe was brown, but as he talked everything about him lightened and when he was well along in the message his robe became whiter and whiter, until the end of the message was reached when the whole being became very luminous."

(The above was a message that came from the Old Testament, the Book of Samuel, number 2, chapter 2, verse nineteen. This is the metaphysical CHRIST interpretation of said Scripture.)
Bleeding Heart

Brother Ray

How long, how long o bleeding heart of humanity can we tear at slash at one another's hearts. My heart is heavy, my heart is in pain, my heart is bleeding, and all because of hate, the terrible hate that is tearing asunder our country. How long can the vipers both black and white continue to go about sowing the seeds of hate and discord are brought down by their own deeds of destruction? We used to stand shoulder to shoulder, black and white alike, in trust working for America to build a ONE society of Black and white, not separate communities. The Republic of South Africa has separate communities and many of the "so-called leaders" of the Black hate groups decry South Africa, but they themselves are doing their best to create just such a situation here in America, but on their terms. Hate is hate, be it by Black or by white, two wrongs do not make a right. The Black community (the hate bunch) claims that they are "abused" and "defamed". Brothers and sisters, look around you, and there are those far worse off than the Negro in America. Perfect worlds are NOT to be found on the physical plane, maybe in the spiritual plane, but the "hate-groups" have said that there is no spirit, so I guess they shall never know perfection for they reject it. Eric Hofer, has plainly stated the entire situation. That the respect people want cannot be legislated or bought, it must be EARNED.

"SHAW TRIAL BEGINS" The trial Clay Shaw, alleged conspirator in the assassi-nation of President John F. Kennedy has at last begun. Many predicted that it can never come about, but it has. CRUSADE FOR SANITY
by Raymond Broshears, D.D., Evangelist
CHURCH OF GOD (Christian)

On January 20th of last month, Richard M. Nixon became the thirty-seventh President of the United States. President Nixon was elected on the Republican ticket. But now, he is no longer a leader of the Republicans, but he is now the leader of all Americans, regardless of political affiliations, and we being citizens of the United States owe to him our full support.

President Nixon faces monumental tasks in rebuilding a nation that is torn apart by "factions". Too many people are Democrats instead of being Americans, same goes for each political party. Party affiliation should come last and the country first. Unfortunately, that has not been the case and the nation is in utter turmoil. People who once called themselves Americans now call themselves Italians, Germans, Africans, Irish, Scotch, or some other ethnic name. We, as long as we are living under the banner of the United States are not, are not, any of the above, but are first last and always, Americans, and should you continue to chose to be one of the others, I would ask that you quit receiving be benefits of our wonderful land and go to that land of which you identify yourself.

A group of anarchists tried to disrupt the Inauguration parade, and from what has been heard, would have assassinated the President had the security of the Washington police and the U.S. Army been so very good. Unfortunately the Secret Service were performing about as they did on November 22, 1963, but due to the extreme concern of the Washington police, the army and the F.B.I., the anarchist were not able to mar the event nor harm the President.

President Nixon has given us a sign that he intends to try and bring America together, and with the advice of Presidential Advisor, the Reverend Billy Graham, famed Evangelist, America shall overcome all foes.
UFOLOGY

Research and investigation has proven UFOs to exist as far back as 4000 yrs before the birth of Christ Jesus. There are many UFO Investigation "clubs" in the U.S.A. and a number of them lean heavily toward "favoring" a scientific explanation, by the same token, there are units that depend solely upon a metaphysical interpretation of UFOs. UFOs are of deep interest and concern to many millions in the world and we share that concern. Thus we ask you to join with groups that have a like concern of sincerity. The groups listed are ones we feel best serve your concern.

Gina is the authoress of the book widely acclaimed on re-incarnation, "MANY MANSIONS". She is an acknowledged expert on the writings of the late Dr. Edgar Cayce. FREE...at last, and inspite OF...”

For more than two years, works within the field of UFOlogy has been at a slow trot because of the "CONDON INVESTIGATION". Now, with the release of his "WHITENASH REPORT", that "gurantees the inhabitants of Earth that they are the "sole beings in the Universe", maybe the responsible groups can get rolling. Physicist Edward Condon of Colorado Unity was given $500,000 by Congress to "gurantee" that we of Earth are the only peoples anywhere. Responsible people who have been involved in the investigations of UFOs knew from the start that Condon was conducting a "sham" investigation. Condon DID NOT CALL any of the major investigating authorities as witnesses in the hearings, but insisted on bringing before his group a sortid mess of "kooks", interspersed with a few responsible individuals who did not know the whys or wherefores of the investigation. The National Investigations Committee on UFOs headed by Dr. Frank E. Stranges, and the National Investigations Committee for Aerial Phenomena, both do agree that the Condon hearings were a "typical government whitwash of a very controversial subject". Physicist James McDonald has denounced the Condon group as having "wasted an unprecedented opportunity" to make a scientific study of UFOs. Just as many have for years denied the existence of "psychic phenomena" and spent millions of dollars trying to disprove people who have ESP as "lunatics", and failed, now they have tried to prove that all who have seen "flying saucers" or "spaceships" are insane or senile. It goes way back, it is the time proven fact, that too many peoples egos will not allow them to accept the fact that people do inhabit other parts of the Universe. As was stated at M.I.T. in Massachusetts by hundreds of scientist, that "life exists on other planets not yet seen, and most probably on ones within our solar system." Yes, we are free to go ahead with rational investigations inspite of CONDON.

Sir;

This letter is in regards to a complaint about the "lack of co-operation" and the "rude manners" of Special Agent Dean of your San Francisco Office.

I have many times in the past co-operated with the Bureau regarding U.S. Service personnel (desertions), and have most willing to help. But, this man Dean, I seriously wonder if he is doing your Bureau any real good by his lack of co-operation and rude speaking, for after all, we receive such manners from people within groups such as Progressive Labor, SDS, TWLF, etc., as we have from Mr. Dean.

In the program which we have in the "central area" of San Francisco, we oftentimes have to deal with Service Personnel, and have been in the past of assistance we feel to the Bureau, and have asked nothing in return. But, by asking your men to be of civil-tongue is too much?

Recently a man who was "gone" from the service for nine months, whom we talked into returning after receiving certain assurances which were never lived up to, your Bureau was unable to find in your "locator" that the man was even a deserter, even tho we gave the Bureau the Service number and the ship from which he had deserted. This is poor work, or at least I would never permit such work in the Church.

In trying to relate to Mr. Dean recently, a Progressive Labor Party presented program that is designed to undermine our country through it's servicemen, Mr. Dean was most rude. Now, the "G.I. COFFEE HOUSE" is open, called the Cabaret, at 260 Valencia Street. Had Mr. Dean been willing to listen perhaps they would have never been able to open.

In closing, I wish to say, that all of our ministers currently co-operating in the Street-Night Ministry Program are still most willing to help should we be able, your Bureau at any time that we can.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

Remyairtel 4/7/69, pointing out that BROEHEARS had complained about the treatment he had received from an Agent in this office. He had indicated he intended to write a letter to the Director.

The office received a copy of his letter to the Director dated 4/9/69, where he pointed out the rude manner of SA IRVING R. DEAN. In BROEHEARS' letter to the Bureau he mentions a man who was "gone" from the service for nine months, whom he talked into returning. BROEHEARS said that this office was unable to find that the man was ever a deserter and he characterized this as "poor work."

SA DEAN recalls several weeks ago receiving a call from BROEHEARS, where he furnished the name and service number of an individual. DEAN checked the office indices and ran the name through NCIC, which disclosed no record of his having been a deserter. BROEHEARS was advised of this and was given the name and telephone number of the nearest Military Police Detachment.

BROEHEARS refers also in the letter to a coffee house opened by the Progressive Labor Party, designed to undermine the country through servicemen. This G.I. Coffee House program is nationwide in scope and directed by persons opposed to U. S. Vietnam activities. We have no information available at the present to indicate that the Coffee House here is connected with the Progressive Labor Party. Regardless of this, there would have been no action this office could have taken to keep this Coffee House from opening.
For the Bureau's additional information, BROSHEARS contacted the San Francisco Police Department on 4/8/69 to complain about the actions of a policeman.

There is no basis for his allegation that SA DEAN was rude. This is not his way of conducting Bureau business.

This is being brought to the Bureau's attention for information.

Reverend Broshears, a homosexual, hippie minister, with a history of mental illness, in attached letter from San Francisco, alleges that a Special Agent was uncooperative and rude. He claims that the Bureau work is "poor" because it had no record of a person he thought should be a deserter, and felt it was the Agent's fault that the Progressive Labor Party opened a Coffee House in San Francisco to undermine the country through servicemen according to Broshears.

SAC, San Francisco states Broshears' allegations are untrue and he recommends that his letter not be acknowledged. Bureau files substantiate that Broshears is a homosexual with a history of mental illness, who has claimed he does not like the FBI. (25-524568-18, 67-313-4361,25-401449.)

SAC advises that Broshears' call concerning an individual he thought should be a deserter was taken by Special Agent Irving R. Dean of the San Francisco Office who checked the name through the office indices and when no record was found that the individual was a deserter, he furnished Broshears with the name of the nearest military police. SAC points out that there is no information that the Coffee House referred to is connected to the Progressive Party and even if this was true, there is no action that office could take to prevent the Coffee House from being opened. SAC states Broshears was invited to discuss this matter with the SAC but he declined to do so since Agents of the FBI were rude.

SAC points out that due to nonspecific allegations and correspondent's mental background, his letter not being acknowledged. He points out there is no improper action by the Agents and therefore, no further action recommended.

ACTION: Special Investigative Division concurs with the SAC, San Francisco, that Broshears' letter not be acknowledged due to his history of mental illness and that no further action is warranted in connection with SA Irving R. Dean.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

Enclosed herewith are two copies of memorandum of SA IRVING R. DEAN.

The Reverend BROSHEARS contacted an Agent on complaint duty in the San Francisco Office on 4/4/69 and inquired as to where he should address a communication to lodge a complaint against SA IRVING R. DEAN. Reverend BROSHEARS was invited to discuss this matter with the SAC, however, he stated that he did not feel this would solve anything, since Special Agents of the FBI were rude. He was furnished the address of FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C., where he might address his complaint.

As reflected in memorandum of SA DEAN, he first met Rev. BROSHEARS 3/3/69, when he appeared at the San Francisco Office to discuss a deserter matter. SA DEAN subsequently went on a road trip to the Monterey RA from the period 3/19-26/69 and when he returned received word that Rev. BROSHEARS desired that he, SA DEAN, call him. On the following morning, 3/27/69, SA DEAN attempted to contact Rev. BROSHEARS telephonically, however, received no answer. The same occurred on 3/28/69. SA DEAN advised that BROSHEARS called him on 3/31/69, wanted to know why his call was not returned, and when SA DEAN explained that he had been out of town and had attempted to return his call to no avail, BROSHEARS was unreasonable, refused to listen to any explanation and told SA DEAN to forget about it.
For the information of the Bureau, the following background concerning Rev. BROSHEARS is set forth:

The Universal Life Church was founded by one KIRBY J. HENSLEY, D.D., Modesto, California, and is described as a free-believing church of the "New Age" groups, whose members are free to express any religious beliefs they want. To become a Minister a 6¢ stamp provides a free Minister's license by mail. The church holds no doctrinal dogma and no restrictions except an affirmation to work toward unification of the brotherhood of man. No special training is required to be ordained a minister. They have no training program and no schools.) The Rev. BROSHEARS is a minister appointed by mail to this group.

During the course of another investigation, in August, 1968, it was determined that BROSHEARS has received treatment at the following Veteran Administration Hospitals: St. Louis and Jefferson Barracks, Missouri; Gulfport and Biloxi, Mississippi; Topeka, Kansas; New Orleans, Louisiana; Los Angeles, California; Palo Alto, California and Long Beach, California. Hospital records at Palo Alto reflected that all hospitals treating BROSHEARS had diagnosed him as a schizophrenic reaction, paranoid, incompetent. He is described as having a history of fraudulent enlistments in the military - manipulative behavior - difficulty with authority, assaultiveness, suicidal attempts, strong and poorly controlled hostility, guilty and anxiety, homosexuality, chronic brain syndrome associated with convulsive disorder, probably secondary brain trauma.
I feel that Rev. BROSHEARS has received every courtesy and consideration when he has contacted this office. I have talked with him personally and am certain that he has no reason to complain of rude treatment. I feel that SA BEAN took the necessary steps to attempt to contact BROSHEARS, I feel that he acted properly and recommend no further action be taken.

Agents of this office have been instructed to be extremely circumspect in any future contacts with him. I further recommend that if he does contact the Bureau along the lines which he indicated that his communication not be acknowledged.

          INFORMATION CONCERNING

I was introduced to Rev. BROSHEARS on 3/3/69 when he came into this office to talk about a deserter he had turned in at Treasure Island. I had gone on a road trip to Monterey and while I was out of town, 3/19-26/69, he called and left a message to call him. I subsequently called the number he left on 3/27-28/69, and there was no answer. BROSHEARS called on 3/31/69, and wanted to know why I didn't return his call. I explained I was out of town and had returned his call and there was no answer. I asked what he wanted to talk about and he said, "If that's the way you feel, forget it."

I did not speak more than two or three sentences to BROSHEARS before he hung up and I was not rude to him in any way, either by tone of voice or words spoken.

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend no acknowledgement of a letter dated 7-12-69, with enclosures, received from captioned individual on the letterhead stationery of St. Timothy's Orthodox Episcopal Church of God. The letter indicated he was concerned about a proposed invasion of Alcatraz Island by Bishop Kirby J. Hensley, Universal Life Church, and others. He indicated he had brought his concern to the attention of our San Francisco Office, but that the Agent with whom he spoke appeared to be quite unconcerned and treated him just as another "'crank!"
His enclosures were Xerox copies of newspaper articles, from various papers, and concerned the conviction of Hensley for issuing mail order Doctor of Divinity degrees. A handprinted-article indicated that Hensley would lead a group of people on an invasion of Alcatraz Island. He also furnished a leaflet from the Council of New Age Churches which denounced "mail order ministers" and sets forth some of the requirements for churches belonging to this organization. It urges support of the police.

By airtel dated 4-7-69 our San Francisco Office advised that

Sir;

I am enclosing "news clips" from various local newspapers and other "types". The one that is of immediate concern of many people, is the "proposed invasion of Alcatraz Island", which seems to be more of a "put on" than anything else. But I said the same thing about the "people's park in Berkeley" when I heard of it months ago before it came about.

In speaking with an Agent of your local office here, he seemed to be quite unconcerned, and treated me as just another "crank". But whatever, I do feel that this is a matter that bears looking into.

As in fact, we have requested an investigation into this "alleged church" which proports to be nothing more than a political party. Our check has revealed that just about the entire staff of this man are members of groups of the "revolutionary left wing". Mr. Hensley himself has made statements regarding your immediate dismissal.

Mail Order Minister Loses Case

Stockton

The Rev. Kirby J. Hensley, controversial head of the Universal Life Church, Inc., of Modesto, pleaded his own case yesterday for the right to issue mail order doctor of divinity degrees — and lost.

Unfazed by the folksy bishop's eloquence, San Joaquin County Superior Court Judge John K. Cechine issued a permanent injunction barring the divinity doctor from creating his instant ministries.

In closing the colorful case before a courtroom audience of many of Dr. Hensley's followers and opponents, the judge said he had a right to appeal and suggested he "get an attorney the next time around."

The irrepressible reverend, who claims he has ordained — at up to $20 each — some 2,000 clergymen, said not only accepted the challenge.

"It will carry it to the Supreme Court and win, I am sure," he said, adding that the "next time around" he will be represented by San Francisco attorney Vincent Hallinan.

This is another attempt at interference by the State with affairs of the church, and it is expressly forbidden under Section 4 of the Bill of Rights," Hallinan, whose religious tangles with the law have mainly been in behalf of anti-clerical causes, later told The Chronicle his interest in the case centered on "exposing the activities of church big shots if the courts are going to try and clamp down on Hensley."

"His way of operating is essentially no different than any of the so-called respectable theologians. If any man or school can claim the right to put others in communication with God so they have special divine privileges, so should my client. Anything else would be discriminatory.

The case against the bishop's interference by State Deputy Attorney General William Goode, was based on an hour-long tape-recorded conversation with the church leader in which he protested harassment by authorities and sought ways of compliance with the law.

State law for a recognized divinity school, Goode noted, demands proper professional background and posting of a $10,000 bond.

Hensley told the court he was "able and happy to post such a bond" if he were allowed to continue his ordination business.

Our Correspondent

PREACHER... Protecting His Ministry was not the only issue which attracted students at State yesterday afternoon.

Some 400 students, and a few faculty members, were ordaining in the science building by Rev. Kirby Hensley, the "mail-order" preacher from Modesto.

Dan Moore, a student who can now call himself Rev. Moore, said that "before I knew what was happening, zip, I was a minister of the Universal Life Church!"

The Rev. Mr. Hensley presently faces a suit filed in Santa Clara county charging he was illegally issuing mail order degrees from a non-accredited institution.

He was also arrested in February on the same charge by San Jose officials.

The above took place at San Francisco State College.)

The LIGHT of Understanding Magazine, a new age publication, has reserved for sometime regarding the "instant ordinations". In the April 1969 issue of the LIGHT, the ULC group was "denounced" for its practioners, but few would heed the warning.
"MINISTERS? AND IF SO, OF WHAT?"

The CNAC (Council of New Age Churches) has joined all other organized churches in the United States in denouncing "mail order" ministers. As many of you know, all organized religions of any substance in the U.S. require an educational course of some type to become a minister, priest, or rabbi. A group of people in California are doing their best to attempt to destroy FREEDOM OF RELIGION by making a "mockery" of the Churches. This is just one way persons who are desiring to "subvert" the established government of America and rule by anarchy are working.

People who seek these types of ordinations are helping to destroy religious freedom in America. They are being fooled by the "masters of deceit".

Sure, you can preach all you want, and you don't have to have "ordination" papers to do that. Are you really a sincere CHRISTIAN? If so, join with us, write to your California State legislators and make sure that the laws of the state are upheld in these matters.

Assaults are being made upon our police today by persons "ordinations". Some of the 64 ministers are all over the state, narcotics, drugs, guns, -ordinate the efforts of various civic and "mail order ministry" bodies thru various out that the wealthy religious groups Churches, and the Roman Catholic us in preserving religious freedom they are making efforts on some that has already been perverted by best interests at heart.

The newest member of CNAC, the Orthodox Episcopal Church is the only Church to our knowledge in America, that requires as a pre-requisite for Holy Ordination, the taking of a loyalty oath to the government of the United States and the Constitution. We are now going to request all other members of CNAC to ask members of the clergy to follow suit.

CNAC feels that America is in danger. Danger from within. Marx and Lenin both said that the only way to destroy America is to destroy RELIGION. These "mail order ministries" are helping to do just that, for maybe while some of these people mean well, it is obvious from certain publications of an "underground" nature, that they are being used for purposes other than honorable.

Those who shout and write that "God is dead" are the ones who are really dead. GOD IS NOT DEAD. HE LIVES IN THE HEART OF THOSE WHO BELIEVE. And any group that denies the God of LIGHT, the God of our Saviour JESUS, the CHRIST, is not a Church in the orthodox sense. And we are so overjoyed that CNAC has been joined by the Orthodox Episcopal Church, one that upholds the teachings of Moses, of JESUS, and of Paul. As long as we have people such as these, the ANTI-CHRIST forces of "communism" "fascism" or any "ism" shall never destroy freedom of religion.

Please, won't you join with all CNAC members each day at 12:00 noon in a moment of silent prayer for peace, for health, and for the safety of America. Write to us at CNAC and let us know of your feelings regarding this "letter". And the next time you see a Police Officer, smile and wish him well. Support your country. [ ] CNAC...P.O. "Brutality"

By Jack Viets

A San Francisco minister threw Presidio brass into an uproar over the weekend by personally serving an extraordinary restraining order forbidding brutality against a private awaiting a court martial there.

And—"the Rev. Raymond Broshears of St. Timothy's Orthodox Episcopal Church at 26 Seventh street here told The Chronicle yesterday—he is preparing more legal papers against even more ranking officers, especially those responsible for conditions at the Special Processing Detachment.

This is a holding facility primarily for AWOL soldiers awaiting trial, located adjacent to the Presidio stockade.

CHARGE

Anyone who gets out of line at the facility is usually "taken outside and into the woods and worked over," the Rev. Mr. Broshears said.

"But Friday night, they had a riot right inside the Special Processing Detachment between 70 military policemen and about 80 holdovers, as the Army calls them."

A Sixth Army spokesman, although confirming that the Rev. Mr. Broshears had served a restraining order, said "our people have had no reports of any such incident at the Presidio."

At 9:45 a.m. Saturday, the Rev. Mr. Broshears—carrying a restraining order signed by Federal Judge Gerald E. Levin—appeared on the grounds of the Presidio and began attempting to serve it.

"How can a minister do this?" the Rev. Mr. Broshears said he was asked. "How can you?"

When, the legal officer, Capt. Steven Carlotti, arrived in his tennis shorts, the Rev. Mr. Broshears told The Chronicle, he repeatedly screamed: "What's this s—? What's this s—?"

"You have broken all military etiquette, all military procedure," the reverend said he was told.

But the reluctant legal officer—after being shown an order by Judge Levin allowing the restraining order to be served by someone other than a marshal—finally accepted it.

The order, which the Rev. Mr. Broshears and attorney William Fleckenstein obtained at 4:30 p.m. Friday, restrains the Army from "assaulting, beating, harassing or torturing" Private Paul McCadle, 23, either mentally or physically.

Named in the extraordinary order are Lieutenant General Stanley Larson, Commanding General of the 6th Army; Colonel George Young, Commandant of the Presidio; various stockade and special processing detachment officers and enrollees.

REPORT

Private McCadle, a slight, thin Britisher ("Everything is bloody to Paul," the Rev. Mr. Broshears said) telephoned the minister Sept.

Enclosed for the Bureau (Laboratory) is the original and one (1) copy of a letter with a news clipping.

The envelope containing the extortion letter was addressed to HECTOR NAVARRO, President, Society for Individual Rights (SIR) which is a headquarters address for homosexual oriented publications at 33 6th Street, San Francisco. NAVARRO has been out of office and disassociated with that agency since January, 1975. He noted the threat to kill BROSHEARS but had not informed him thereof.

Amidst ramblings about homosexuals and venereals diseases the six (6) page letter on page five (5) sets out the threat, "We are going to kill and shoot rev. raymond - broshears down some dark - night - kill - kill - him - kill."

BROSHEARS a self-described minister in clerical garb, publishes "Crusader, Voice of West Coast Gay Liberation" at 225 Turk Street in San Francisco. That address is a store front in which he maintains "The Helping Hand Mission". In his publication he has attacked Dr. ERVIN E. BRAFF, San Francisco Director of Venereal Disease Control, 250 4th Street.

The extortion letter shows its writer as Mr. BRAFF, M.D. Clinic, 250 4th Street. Both BROSHEARS and Dr. BRAFF have no suspects.

This same letter bears a return address of MR. HECTOR NAVARRO, President 83 - 6th Street, San Francisco, California. A similar letter addressed to NAVARRO was sent to the FBI's Laboratory by San Francisco letter dated 5/5/75.

CRISWELL, a San Francisco junior high school vice-principal, is also head of the San Francisco National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). He advised on 5/6/75, that he received the enclosed at his home as addressed on the envelope. Although itself not a violation of the extortion statute, it appears to have been written and prepared by the same person who sent the captioned earlier extortion letter and other similar letters all subsequently and recently submitted to the Laboratory by San Francisco.

The Laboratory is requested to obtain any fingerprints of value for comparison with prints from other similar letters sent in this and the referred to similar cases from San Francisco. Dr. ERWIN H. BRAFF, San Francisco Director of Venereal Disease Control, 250 Fourth Street, San Francisco, said he had no knowledge of anyone using his name in letters threatening the life of the Rev. RAYMOND BROSHERS in San Francisco. Dr. BRAFF said that he heard the Rev. BROSHERS had been highly critical of BRAFF's operation of the venereal disease clinic.
Rev. RAYMOND A. BROSHEARS, 225 Turk Street, San Francisco, advised that he is the publisher of a gay liberation newspaper named "The Crusader". He said his organization is known as "The Helping Hand". BROSHEARS said he was acquainted with Dr. BRAFF, whose name appeared on a letter which contained a threat against the life of the Rev. BROSHEARS. He said Dr. BRAFF is the head of San Francisco's venereal disease clinic located at 250 Fourth Street in San Francisco. The Rev. BROSHEARS said that he realizes he is unpopular because of his association with homosexuals and that he had no suspects as to who may have written the threat against his life, but he was certain Dr. BRAFF had not.
for Society for Individual Rights (SIR) at 83 Sixth Street, San Francisco, advised that he had received, opened, and read a letter which had been addressed to this business office and was received in the name of HECTOR NAVARRO, who had formerly been president of SIR. [Redacted] said that NAVARRO had been out of office and no longer associated with SIR since January of 1975 but that the general public was unaware of this. He stated that the contents of the envelope which he had opened contained a written threat against the life of the Rev. RAYMOND BROSHEARS of San Francisco. [Redacted] said he was personally acquainted with BROSHEARS but had not told him of the threat against his life. The letter showed its writer to have been Mr. BRAFF, M.D., Clinic 250 4th Street, San Francisco.
The Reverend RAY BROSHEARS, Head of the "Helping Hand" at 225 Turk Street, San Francisco, California, made available a letter, which he said was addressed to him and bore as its return address the name of BENJAMIN CRISWELL, President, NAACP, San Francisco.

To preserve fingerprints, the Reverend BROSHEARS said he did not open the envelope and felt that it contained threats against him and other members of the homosexual community as had been set forth in similar appearing letters previously received by him.

BROSHEARS said he had no suspects regarding who may be writing this and other such letters.
Society for Individual Rights (SIR), 83 Sixth Street, San Francisco, California, stated that the letter he was making available for FBI examination is addressed to HECTOR NAVARRO, former president of this society, who has been out of office since January, 1975. He said it appears not all the public who would have been interested is aware of the departure of NAVARRO. He stated, though, that NAVARRO is, in no way, a suspect in having written any of the letters such as this received by the SIR.

The envelope bearing the letter showed, on its reverse side, its return address as being that of Supervisor TERRY FRANCOIS (a member of the San Francisco County Board of Supervisors).
Telephonic contact has been made with a secretary answering at Muhammad's Temple Number 26, 1805 Geary Boulevard, San Francisco, California. It was learned there and acknowledged there that two threatening letters had been received at this address. They purported to threaten the life of JOHN MUHAMMAD, the leader of this temple, at this address. It was learned these letters had been given to the Intelligence Detail of the San Francisco Police Department for investigation in efforts to determine the writer of those letters.

At the invitation of persons at Muhammad's Temple, the below Special Agents went to this temple to determine whether there were any suspects regarding those who may have been writing the letters referred to above.

Upon arrival at this temple, the two Special Agents were greeted at the door by an individual wearing a stiff billed cap, which cap bore three stars. He indicated the matter should be discussed with someone from within the temple. He, thereupon, summoned who is a black male, apparently, empowered in some supervisory position. however, said he felt this matter should be discussed with his emerged and said that he felt the members of his Muslim temple had been misunderstood and were peace-loving persons. He, thereupon, accepted folders for further such letters.

COVER PAGE
The letters obtained in this investigation, plus the newspaper clippings laced with the unknown subject's epithets and slurs are not being set forth in their entirety. Noting prosecution has been declined and the material rejected by the Chief of the Criminal Division of the USA's Office in San Francisco, a sampling only of that material is being set forth in the details. As will be noted from the Laboratory report quoted in the details, the handwriting was prepared by the same person. It was found to be entirely repetitious in its message.

Victim CRISWELL received handwritten letters, plus newspaper clippings including written slurs and epithets, in general condemning black persons and blaming them for crime and disease. The first letter purported its author to be SIDNEY FRIEDMAN, head of the Jewish Home for the Aged in San Francisco. The second such letter received by CRISWELL bore the name HECTOR NAVARRO of 83 Sixth Street, San Francisco, as its author. NAVARRO had been head of a homosexual literature mailing office at that address. In the interim FRIEDMAN received a letter condemning Jews. It, like all the other letters, at some place in its ramblings contained a threat to kill the addressee. A letter addressed to FRIEDMAN, above, alleged its writer’s name to be JOHN MUHAMMAD, Minister of Muslim Temple #26, San Francisco. The San Francisco Police Department’s Intelligence Detail acknowledged they obtained two letters similar to those reported herein, which two letters were addressed to MUHAMMAD at the Nation of Islam Temple #26 in San Francisco and purportedly were sent by someone from the local Salvation Army office. The San Francisco PD conducted unproductive interviews at Salvation Army and then disposed of the letters involved. The next letter was addressed to HECTOR NAVARRO at the Homosexual Publications Office, and it contained a threat against the life of the Rev. BROSHEARS, a self-styled minister identified with homosexual interests. It showed its author as...
Dr. BRAFF, head of San Francisco's Venereal Disease Clinic. Next, a similar letter was received by BROSHEARS showing its author to be CRISWELL. No one had any suspects in the matter and no recipient of any letter believed the person named as its author had in fact written the letter. The San Francisco PD, through its records and laboratory, had no suspects. The Bureau Laboratory determined all the letters were written by the same person, but no one was identified or offered as a suspect. Prosecution declined by AUSA, San Francisco, offering the opinion this appeared to be a case of an unstable person hoping to incite strife between blacks, Jewish persons, and homosexuals.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon the receipt of a letter by BENJAMIN CRISWELL, the head of San Francisco's Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). The letter purportedly had been sent to him by the head of the San Francisco Jewish Home for the Aged, SIDNEY FRIEDMAN. CRISWELL indicated he was certain this was not true for he was a friend of Mr. FRIEDMAN and he, CRISWELL, did not take this matter seriously, saying he believed this to be an attempt by some deranged or otherwise easily influenced person to cause strife between blacks and Jews in San Francisco.

Bandits Kill Woman in Bank Holdup

Carmichael, Sacramento county

A heavily-armed holdup team—apparently led by a young woman—shot to death a woman customer before escaping with more than $13,000 from a branch of the Crocker National Bank in this Sacramento suburb yesterday morning.

Sheriff's investigators said there was "no evidence whatsoever" to indicate that fugitive newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst or any of her Symbionese Liberation Army comrades were among the robbers.

The dead woman, Myrna Lee Opsahl, 42, was gunned down "for no reason" moments after the bandits—a woman and three men—entered the bank at 5746 Marconi avenue, according to Sacramento county sheriff's spokesman Bill Miller.

Mrs. Opsahl's husband, Trygve, a surgeon at American River Hospital near here, was on duty there when his wife was brought in with massive injuries from a shotgun blast in her midsection. He was with her when she died.

Miller said the robbers, all wearing ski masks, entered by a rear door at 9:01 a.m. and announced the robbery to six patrons and some two dozen employees in the small bank, a block and a half from Carmichael's central business district.

Without another word, a male robber carrying a shotgun shot Mrs. Opsahl. The Zebra Witness’ Tale of Hatred

By Charles Randelaugh

The state’s star witness in the Zebra murder cases made his first public appearance yesterday and immediately began a recital of racial hatred and violence.

Anthony Cornelius Harris, 29, who claims he accompanied the four accused Zebra case defendants on a random rampage of murder against whites in San Francisco, was given immunity so he would testify.

Lawyers for the four defendants fought the granting of immunity and then asked Superior Court Judge Joseph Karsh to declare a mistrial, which the judge refused to do.

Clinton White, one of the defense lawyers, said the order giving Harris immunity might turn out to be “improper, illegal and unconstitutional.”

The jury of seven women and five men was sent out of the courtroom while lawyers argued over Harris’ appearance and his testimony. The result was the jurors spent more time in the jury room than in the courtroom for the day.

Harris, a slender, slight black man, began his testimony by saying he was serving a burglary term in San Quentin in 1973 when Jessie L. Cooks, one of the four Zebra defendants, asked him to teach Kung Fu, a Chinese martial art. He was not explained why Cooks was in San Quentin.

“Did you tell him why you wanted to learn Kung Fu?” asked Assistant District Attorney Robert Podesta.

“He wanted to learn the skill, not to kill,” said Harris.

“Who did he want to kill?”

“Why the white people?”

“Because they had caused him and his friends to break people’s necks, punch their eyes out, break their backs, break their heart.”

“What answer did you give him?” asked the prosecutor.

“I taught him, yes.”

Harris said he met Cooks at the “temporary mosque” of the Black Muslims in San Quentin, and there he also met Manuel Moore, another of the four defendants.

Moore also wanted to learn Kung Fu, apparently because of bad experiences he had in the past.

In Harris’ words, his conversations with Moore were “mainly based around killing people and cutting their heads off.”

“He just wanted to learn what you could do, so he could get out and start killing,” said Harris. “That’s all he talked about.”

On his release from San Quentin in mid-1973, Harris said, he became friendly with Larry Craig Green and J. C. X. Simon — the other two accused Zebra killers — because of their common membership in the Nation of Islam, the official name of the Black Muslims.

Through the intercession of a “captain” of the Black Muslims, he obtained a job at Black Self Help, a Market street moving firm operated by blacks. Harris testified.

As court recessed for the day, he identified a series of photographs of cars and a van owned by Green, Simon and other employees of the moving firm.

Cooks, released from prison, lived in the same apartment house where Green lived, and asked Harris where he could get a gun.

In Harris’ narrative, it was now October, 1973, the month in which the epidemic of random street killings began.

Trial starts in deaths of Soledad 3

By Tom Hall

A $1.2 million civil rights trial got underway in federal court here yesterday with the attorney for three dead Soledad inmates claiming they were assassinated as part of a conspiracy.

Attorney Melvin Belli, who filed suit on behalf of relatives of W. E. Nolen, then 25, Alvin Miller, 23, and Cleveland Edwards, 20, said in his opening statement the three were deliberately set up for assassination because of racial hatred.

They were shot Jan. 13, 1970, during a free-for-all fight in the maximum security "O" wing of Soledad Prison.

Filing suit against 10 present and former prison guards and administrators were Nolen's father, O. C. Nolen, his mother, Addie, and son, Antoine; Miller's father, Perry, and son, Alvin Jr., and Edwards' mother, Susie.

The defendants include O. G. Miller, the guard who shot the three, former Soledad superintendent C. J. Fitzharris, now retired, and Clemitt Swagerty, then deputy superintendent and now at San Quentin.

Belli claimed that eight whites and eight blacks were chosen by prison personnel to go into the yard that day as "a setup to get rid of the most notorious ringleaders.

Deputy attorney general Wayne Robertson said Miller fired because he thought the lives of white inmates were in danger.

He also said Miller fired warning shots and blew his whistle to warn the inmates.

Federal Judge Samuel Conti impaneled 10 jurors yesterday, although only six will be picked by lot to determine the case.

The trial is expected to last four to six weeks.
Terrifying Attack on S.F. Street

Helen Oliphant, 63, and her husband Harry, 65, had dined at Bardell's restaurant on O'Farrell Street and were walking up Mason Street on their way to the theater Thursday night when a man walked up to them and snarled, "You're going to die."

The man, a stocky black, pushed Mrs. Oliphant to the ground in an alcove. Her husband tried to defend her by hitting the attacker.

The man pulled a knife, bent over the stunned woman, and slit her throat. Then he grabbed her purse and ran across Mason Street, vanishing in the dark of the Downtown Parking Garage.

The incident, which stirred up senior citizen groups in the area, occurred about 8:30 p.m. in the plain view of many persons strolling along Mason Street.

After a night in surgery at San Francisco General Hospital, Mrs. Oliphant went home yesterday to the couple's comfortable house near Moraga.

Doctors released her only because her son-in-law, an East Bay surgeon, lives nearby and said he would look after her.

"It was a horror," said Harry Oliphant, a slight, soft-spoken man who retired a few years ago after selling the Emeryville firm of manufacturer's representatives that bears his name.

"That man just walked up to us and attacked," he said. "The street was loaded with people. It happened so fast I don't imagine anyone knew what was going on until it was over," he said.

The mugger was described by a handful of witnesses as about 30 years old, short and stocky, with hair fashioned in a large Afro style. He was wearing a tan leather waistcoat and possibly light blue pants.

He got away with Mrs. Oliphant's red leather purse containing $30 in cash and various cards and papers.

The alcove where Mrs. Oliphant was knifed is next to the St. George Hotel, at 234 Mason Street, and is actually a rear service door to the Crocker Bank at Geary and Mason streets.

Yesterday a blood-soaked handkerchief that Oliphant held to his wife's neck while waiting for the ambulance was still lying there.

Shortly after the mugging, a hotel clerk found the attacker's knife in the street. Police had parked their car over it, and were unable to find the weapon at first. The clerk turned the jackknife over to officers. It has a 3½-inch blade.

Investigators said yesterday they had no clues to the mugger's identity.

"You read about these things," said Harry Oliphant, nervously looking around as he stood at his front door. "You never think it will happen to you," he said.

"We are afraid now," he said. "This is a painful lesson of life."
School Hit Again

Forrest de Lambert stood yesterday in her classroom, which was hit by vandals Sunday at Fremont Elementary School, 2055 Silver Avenue.

It was the second week in a row that rooms had been smashed up at the school; this time, three cassette tape recorders were stolen.

Principal Robert Fisher said yesterday that footprints left by the vandals were so small they indicated the intruders were younger than teenage.

Police Seeking Knife Slayer Of a Teacher

San Jose police yesterday hunted for the butcher-knife slayer of a schoolteacher found stabbed to death in her apartment bedroom just before midnight Monday.

The partially clad body of Sandra Leigh Howard, 23, bore a single, fatal stab wound in the chest, police said.

A long butcher knife, found at the scene, is the only clue to the slaying, it occurred, police surmised, shortly after her husband, David, a computer programmer, left on a business trip early Monday.

Discovery of the murder was made by the woman's parents after she missed school Monday and failed to keep a dinner date with a girl friend.

Mrs. Howard, a 1974 graduate of San Jose State University, was married last November. She is a student teacher for a San Jose Elementary School.

The 'nose' has it in Hunters Point vote

By Harry Johansen

Angry residents of the Bayview-Hunters Point District have served notice: They will never let The City build a sewage-treatment plant within smelling range of their homes.

They denounced plans for the $32 million plant at a public hearing yesterday on an environmental impact report by the City Planning Commission.

The City's chosen plant site is on 76 acres in an area bounded by Islais Creek, Phelps Street and the Southern-Pacific railroad right-of-way.

Suitability of the location was not a question before the planning commission. But most people who testified ignored that point to express strong opposition for the record.

They also brushed aside the assurances of chief city engineer Robert Levy that modern sewage-treatment plans are odorless and seepage-proof.

Local NAACP president Benjamin Criswell said his group would go to court and tie up the project for years if the plant is approved.

Said Elouise Westbrook, a militant Bayview resident and pioneer of Bayview-Hunters Point causes:

"You should be there when we are trying to eat in our homes. Come out there and see what we have to put up with."

"We can't sleep from the fumes that come from the present sewer plant. We don't want any more sewer plants."

The Rev. Oscar Holland was one of several neighborhood clergymen to testify. He said the area is populated mostly by black people who are more susceptible to such ailments as hepatitis, than people of other races.

"There is no way you can tell us this plant will not be odious," he said.

The Rev. J. K. Morgan asked: "If you can't stop a little plant from smelling, how are you going to stop a big one from smelling?"

Some witnesses suggested that residents of the Sunset and Richmond districts get far more consideration from city authorities than Bayview-Hunters Point residents. "It's about time they listened to us," said one.

After the hearing, the commission voted 5-1 to certify the environmental impact report as complete and accurate.

The report says in part that the plant will have a significantly adverse effect on its environment.

No ferry service next Tuesday

The ferry Golden Gate will be laid up next Tuesday for repairs.

Service will end on completion of the 5:30 p.m. run from San Francisco Monday, and will resume with the 7:15 a.m. run from Sausalito Wednesday.

Golden Gate Transit buses will run between the San Francisco and Sausalito ferry terminals while the ferry is out of service.

A San Francisco Airport construction freeze was ended yesterday by the U.S. Court of Appeals here.

The freeze was the result of a temporary injunction issued last Jan. 22 at the request of environmentalists, which halted work on the north terminal and a new parking garage.

After listening to arguments from attorneys for The City and the environmentalists, the court vacated the injunction and affirmed a ruling issued last Nov. 11 by U.S. District Judge Robert Schnacke which said no impact report was required for the construction.

Airports Director William J. Dwyer said after the decision that "we're elated at the promptness of the court's decision. The contractors have been told to put their men back to work this morning."

Building trades spokesmen had argued that the delay would cost San Francisco $40 million a year, including loss of 450 jobs with a $17 million annual payroll.

Environmentalists contend the expansion is tak-

New breed of S.F. burglars

By Baron Mulier

There's a new kind of burglar prowling San Francisco and the Bay Area. He or she is a sign of the times, says San Francisco police Lt. George Dyer.

Police are calling these new miscreants out-of-work or "opportunists" burglars. "It's the recession," Dyer said. "People are taking things they need to live on."

The trend is plainly visible, said Dyer, a 25-year police veteran and head of the burglary detail. The out-of-work burglar is busy enough to be added to the "big five" types that are more traditionally found in society, he said.

The "big five" include:
Juveniles after cash or guns, drug addicts, "professionals," "high class burglars who travel," and the "high roller" who takes on the "really big jobs."

Violence committed by burglars — especially the new out-of-work ones — is also on the rise, Dyer said. Frequently professional criminals realize they are in much worse trouble if they commit an act of violence. Not the amateur.

"Don't corner the burglar" if he or she is caught in the act, he said. "Give him a chance to escape."

Dyer said police are stumped by the increase in this new breed of burglar and can only use traditional methods to try and stem the number of crimes committed.

Dyer said he had no statistics on the number of new type burglaries, but the types of things taken rarely varies.

Out-of-work burglars are after money first, he said. They also take televisions, stereos, portable appliances and small business machines. Rarely do they take large items or merchandise that is hard to sell, such as furniture.

Dyer is in a unique position to monitor trends in residential and business burglaries. Every police report of the 1,100 to 1,400 burglaries committed in The City each month must cross his desk.
Murder Trial

Gossage Girl's Many Wounds

Eben Gossage, 20, accused of the brutal murder of his 19-year-old sister, sat composed yesterday as Coroner Boyd Stephens described 62 wounds found on the body of Amelia (Amy) Gossage.

Dr. Stephens, the first witness in the murder trial, told the jury of seven women and five men that Miss Gossage was stabbed in the back 29 times, hit or stabbed in the neck 25 times and hit with a blunt instrument 17 times on the right side of her head.

Some of the jurors grimaced when they were shown photographs of the young woman, the daughter of Howard Gossage, the late advertising executive.

Miss Gossage's corpse was discovered on Thursday, February 13, when Gossage asked the manager of her apartment at 1170 Kearny Street to inspect it with him.

The prosecutor, Assistant District Attorney Thomas F. Norman, in his opening statement to the jury, said Gossage told the apartment manager he feared something might have happened to Miss Gossage.

"They opened the door," Norman said, "and saw the body, that terrible sight."

Coroner Stephens described most of the wounds as "pattern wounds," caused by repeated beating or stabbing in the same area. Among the 26 stab wounds in the young woman's back, Stephens said, there were eight "so deep they punctured her lungs."

Norman said Gossage and his sister had a "rather a rimonious battle" the night before her body was discovered.

He said she had been dinner at a restaurant Ghirardelli Square with her friend, Eugene Chen. W. Chen and Miss Gossage lived at her apartment about 11 p.m. on Feb. 12.

A group of elderly Tenderloin residents, alarmed and angry at the slashing of a woman’s throat Thursday night, demanded yesterday that more San Francisco policemen be assigned to walk the streets in their neighborhood.

Jennie Hoffer 60, who said she has been mugged four times, drew applause from her compatriots in the crowded room at 121 Leavenworth street when she said:

“We’re unhappy with the Police Department. They’re so busy running down prostitutes with the discussion. It turned out later he had been sent to the meeting by Supervising Captain Jeremiah P. Taylor, who wanted to know what was going on at the press conference.

“Many of the muggers are just kids,” said Mrs. Young. “If kids see a policeman on foot they don’t think he’s going to sound police work,” he admitted. “One of the finest foot patrolmen around, a young fellow by the name of John Meek, walks this neighborhood during the day. I’ll have him stop in and talk to you.”

“Just one policeman on foot?” someone asked.

Join San Sergeant Cirimelli was aware of.

“He’s talking about Northern Station,” said Taylor. “Most of the area is covered by Central Station, and we cover the Tenderloin more intensively than any other area in the city.

“We have two men on foot.
BENJAMIN CRISWELL, President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Persons (NAACP) at 2085 Sutter, San Francisco, Suite 211, with telephone number 922-0650. CRISWELL as also Assistant Principal at the Benjamin Franklin Junior High School located at 1430 Scott Street, San Francisco, where his business phone number is 567-6989.

CRISWELL presented a letter which he said had been addressed to him at his home in San Francisco where he resides at [Redacted]. The return address on the envelope and at the bottom of the letter was the name of SIDNEY FRIEDMAN. The letter, on page four, set out a threat, "I will shoot you in black - head and kill - kill - you - 10 times shoot you in head and cut your head and burn your nigger body up and put in city dump." On page six the letter concluded with, "Your old pal, Mr. SIDNEY FRIEDMAN, Jewish Executive Director, Golden Gate Lodge Number 2464, 302 Silver Avenue, San Francisco, California." CRISWELL said he was certain there was no truth to the name being on this for he felt he had a good rapport with the Jewish community in San Francisco. He was not concerned that the message in the letter was to be taken seriously.

CRISWELL said he and his wife handled the letter and would make themselves available for fingerprinting.

CRISWELL is a black male, born [Redacted] at Fort Smith, Arkansas. He is 6'1" tall, weight - 184 pounds, has black hair (graying) and a black-gray mustache. He served in the United States Air Force, 1945 - 1947, where he had serial number [Redacted] His wife is [Redacted] they have one son age 11.
CRISWELL received a second letter, this one post-marked San Francisco, April 28, 1975, and showing its author to be HECTOR NAVARRO, 83 Sixth Street, San Francisco. It was determined NAVARRO had been head of a publications assembling office at that address, and it was found the office specialized in mailing homosexual literature. It was learned at 83 Sixth Street that NAVARRO is no longer in the area, and had formerly been publicly referred to as President of this publications assembling office. It also is known as the "Society for Individual Rights (SIR)".
Rev. RAYMOND A. BROSHEARS, 225 Turk Street, San Francisco, advised that he is the publisher of a gay liberation newspaper named "The Crusader". He said his organization is known as "The Helping Hand". BROSHEARS said he was acquainted with Dr. BRAFF, whose name appeared on a letter which contained a threat against the life of the Rev. BROSHEARS. He said Dr. BRAFF is the head of San Francisco's venereal disease clinic located at 250 Fourth Street in San Francisco. The Rev. BROSHEARS said that he realizes he is unpopular because of his association with homosexuals and that he had no suspects as to who may have written the threat against his life, but he was certain Dr. BRAFF had not.
The Reverend RAY BROSHEARS, Head of the "Helping Hand" at 225 Turk Street, San Francisco, California, made available a letter, which he said was addressed to him and bore as its return address the name of BENJAMIN CRISWELL, President, NAACP, San Francisco.

To preserve fingerprints, the Reverend BROSHEARS said he did not open the envelope and felt that it contained threats against him and other members of the homosexual community as had been set forth in similar appearing letters previously received by him.

BROSHEARS said he had no suspects regarding who may be writing this and other such letters.
Society for Individual Rights (SIR), 83 Sixth Street, San Francisco, California, stated that the letter he was making available for FBI examination is addressed to HECTOR NAVARRO, former president of this society, who has been out of office since January, 1975. He said it appears not all the public who would have been interested is aware of the departure of NAVARRO. He stated, though, that NAVARRO is, in no way, a suspect in having written any of the letters such as this received by the SIR.

The envelope bearing the letter showed, on its reverse side, its return address as being that of Supervisor TERRY FRANCOIS (a member of the San Francisco County Board of Supervisors).
SIDNEY FRIEDMAN, Head of San Francisco's Jewish Home for the Aged, said that he had received a letter which appeared to him to be similar to those otherwise displayed, and acknowledged that he was a friend of BENJAMIN CRISWELL, head of the NAACP in San Francisco.

FRIEDMAN said he received a letter which appeared entirely similar and also condemned him and Jewish persons, and was also of a threatening nature. He said this was signed with the name JOHN MUHAMMAD of Muslim Temple 26 in San Francisco.

San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) Lieutenant and Inspector of the Intelligence Division, acknowledged on April 30 and May 8 that they had been contacted by a representative of JOHN MUHAMMAD of the Nation of Islam at Muslim Temple 26, and from his representative obtained two letters which appeared entirely similar in penmanship and in message, which condemned blacks. These letters purportedly were sent by someone of the Salvation Army in San Francisco. Inspector said interviews were conducted by his staff at the Salvation Army, but they found no one there had knowledge of these letters. He and both indicated that they had not considered these letters as being validly threatening, but instead were a crude attempt to incite mistrust among groups in San Francisco. Since they considered the author to be a mentally ill person, the letters were destroyed after they had been reviewed by detectives and laboratory personnel.

On April 30, 1975, San Francisco Postal Inspectors were consulted in this matter. Both said they had no record of similar letters in their local files, and they had no suspects as to who may have written the letters involved in this matter.

A second letter again addressed to 83 Sixth Street, had been received threatening the life of the Reverend RAYMOND BROSHEARS, who describes himself as a minister of unknown religious background, and said that he has championed the cause of homosexual groups and publications in San Francisco, plus he had been an unsuccessful candidate for public office in the same city. He said he has received threats from numerous persons throughout his "ministry" in San Francisco, but he was unable to identify any suspect in the matter of letters threatening his life.
He displayed another letter which apparently completed a cycle, for this one showed its author to be BENJAMIN CRISWELL of the NAACP, who had received the first letter in which his life was threatened.

San Francisco airtel to the Bureau, dated 8/20/75;
Bureau letter to San Francisco, dated 10/10/75;
San Francisco memo to the file, dated 10/8/75.

A letter addressed to the Reverend Raymond Brosears was turned over to the FBI, San Francisco on 10/14/75. An examination of this letter revealed it to appear to be identical with other letters received on prior occasions by the Reverend Raymond Brosears and others in the San Francisco area which had previously been turned over to the FBI.

The FBI Laboratory has confirmed that a previously submitted letter is identical with others submitted in the past, in that the same persons prepared all of the letters.

In referenced report AUSA F. Steele Langford, Chief of Criminal Division of the Office of USA, San Francisco, advised that he would decline prosecution in this matter indicating that it appeared the author of these letters was a possibly unstable person hoping to incite strife between blacks, Jewish persons, and homosexuals throughout San Francisco. Based on the above decline by the AUSA, San Francisco, on previously submitted letters, it appears that there would be no prosecutive potential in pursuing this matter and this matter should be considered closed administratively.

Mr. CECIL F. POOLE, Jacobs, Sills & Coblentz, 555 California Street, San Francisco, California, caused to be delivered to the San Francisco Office of the FBI two brown manila envelopes. One manila envelope contained a letter to Mr. CECIL F. POOLE, postmarked June 28, 1976. This envelope contained a ten page handwritten letter, eight news articles, and a campaign card.

A xerox copy of the envelope, four of the news articles, and the campaign card are attached hereto. It is noted that in the letter the author writes, "Ford is a criminal, a son of a bitch, no damn good." The back of the campaign card contains the wording "Kill - kill - kill Willie L. Brown, John Burton, Phillip Burton, kill them." The four news articles, xerox copies which are attached, contain written notations for killing Congressman RON DELLUMS, of the San Francisco Police Department, and Lieutenant Governor MERVYN DYMALY.

The second envelope addressed to Mr. & Mrs. CECIL F. POOLE contained a nine page letter, a campaign card, and twenty-five news articles. The xerox copy of the envelope, the handwritten letter, and the campaign card are attached hereto. It is noted that the campaign card on the back bore the notation "Kill - kill - kill black nigger Willie L. Brown, kill - Brown - kill - Brown - kill - Brown."

The letter addressed to Mr. & Mrs. CECIL F. POOLE was purportedly signed by Prides Homosexual Society Club, Gay Advisory Committee, 1095 Market Street, and San Francisco, California.

The letter in the envelope addressed to Mr. POOLE was purportedly signed by

The news articles, xerox copies of which are not attached, are for the most part those reciting crimes of blacks or articles bearing handwritten epithets against blacks.

San Francisco, California 94101

Dear Mr. Poole:

I want to acknowledge the receipt from you on September 13, 1975 of the two letters that were purportedly directed to you by Prides Homosexual Society Club, Gay Advisory Committee Office, 1095 Market Street, San Francisco, California. It is noted that the second letter was also signed by and purported by a San Francisco, California.

For the information of the other gentlemen receiving copies of this letter, the envelope addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil F. Poole contained a nine page letter, a campaign card, and some 25 news articles. The letter, handwritten, is a long harangue containing slurrs and epithets condemning blacks, and the news articles for the most part, are of crimes that the writer attributes to blacks. The campaign card enclosed is one bearing the photographs of Fred Furth, Willie Brown, and John Burton, and the back contains the wording "kill-kill-kill black-nigger Willie L. Brown. Kill-Brown kill-Brown-kill-Brown".

The second envelope addressed to Mr. Cecil F. Poole contains a ten page letter, eight news articles, and an identical campaign card. The back of this campaign card contains the wording "kill-kill-kill Willie L. Brown, John Burton, Phillip-Burton, kill-them". This letter is another long harangue bearing slurrs and epithets against blacks.

It is noted that among the news articles is one bearing a picture of Congressman Ron Dellums with the written wording "kill-Ron-Dellums criminal". Another news article concerning Police Community Relations Unit in Another article concerning Lieutenant Governor Mervyn Dymally bore the written notation "kill-kill-Mervyn-Dymally". Without benefit of laboratory examination it is apparent that the writer of these two letters is apparently identical with an unknown individual who was the subject of investigation by this office in 1975. This unknown individual forwarded several similar letters to well known individuals of San Francisco and signed the letters as purportedly coming from other individuals of this town. Evidently the author of those letters was attempting to insight strife between blacks, Jewish persons, and homosexuals. For example, one letter was directed to the head of a Jewish agency and purportedly bore the name of an individual who was connected with a homosexual organization in San Francisco. Another letter condemned the Jews and was purported written by a minister of a Muslem temple in San Francisco. The San Francisco Police Department also has advised that they were in possession of letters addressed to the Nation of Islam in San Francisco that had been purportedly sent by someone from the local Salvation Army Office.

In any event, this matter was discussed with the United States Attorney's Office in June of 1975, and that office reported they would decline prosecution inasmuch as the author of the letters appeared to be an unstable person hoping to insight strife between blacks, Jewish persons, and homosexuals throughout San Francisco.

I particularly want to point out that there is currently no indication that either ____________ may have authored these letters.

Copies of this letter, along with xerox'd copies of the original letters addressed to Mr. Poole are being furnished to the San Francisco Police Department, the United States Secret Service and the Oakland, California Police Department.

Very truly yours,

Homosexuals Massacred in Chile...

DECLARATION OF THE HOMOSEXUAL LIBERATION FRONT IN ARGENTINA.

It is not enough that, in the wave of terror unleashed by the military junta in Chile after September 11, 1973, thousands of workers, students, and patriots have been murdered for dissenting politically from the sinister projects of General Pinochet. It has affected all those who in their daily or social lives are not in agreement with the "order" which he intends to impose, "order" traced in the image of the Holy Inquisition. Thus, the homosexual community in Chile, like the rest of the population, has been repressed in the cruelest possible way. A known homosexual from Santiago (32 years of age and of Uruguayan nationality) called "Lola Punales," was raped, tortured, castrated and riddled with bullets by a group of soldiers. Dozens of homosexuals have come to the same tragic end. Acts such as these are now habitual in Chile.

The corpses are left for several days in the street in order to intimidate the population and plant terror. To have a beard or long hair, to wear red or use a mulle skirt are causes for arrest. To the Chilean military, these are subversive acts.

If, indeed, Pinochet's coup has no precedent in the "democratic" history of this country for its massive measures of repression, the murder of homosexuals in Chile is not new. The same methods were used by the government of General Ibanez in the fifties: hundreds of homosexuals were cast into the sea tied to stones. A boat full of homosexuals was sunk in the Pacific. Common knowledge, in which these events remain alive, affirms that afterwards Ibanez had a son who was a homosexual.

Without doubt, the only flower which grows in the garden of Fascism is the flower of death and terror. We homosexuals are subversive; we love life, we cultivate the imagination, we detest authoritarianism, we believe in the unity of man, we desire a system founded on freedom which is the only one in which we will be respected, we reject "order" because it is a synonym for oppression. Pinochetism is a sea of blind, well-ordered worms.

We are called to repudiate the bloody coup in Chile and to work to help the refugees, prisoners and combatants. We call upon the homosexuals of Chile to take an active part in the resistance, together with the others who are repressed, and upon Latin American homosexuals and homosexuals throughout the world to give every possible aid. The death of "Lola Punales" points out to us once again that to be homosexual is a manifestation of human affirmation and dignity which the fascists cannot tolerate. The most daring flower of Santiago has been scattered in his own blood. Yesterday; grace, happiness, coquettishness. Today: each oppressed person can recognize himself in that unrecognizable body. Today: a promise, a sorrow which stanches our tears and makes us determined to struggle toward victory.

Lola, your body, pecked by the hideous fowl of the Pinochetistas held a butterfly of dreams and kisses with a silver ribbon that they could not find. We know it. Your shroud shall be our banner.

Two Marin City men were arrested over the weekend and charged with a Thursday night holdup of two U.S. Navy sailors and a shooting that left one sailor on the brink of death with a shattered brain.

Arrested and held in Marin County Jail were: Donald M. Morgan, 26, of 49 Cole drive; and Leonard Smith Jr., 24, of 171 Drake avenue.

Both are charged with conspiracy, armed robbery and attempted murder. Morgan was held in lieu of $125,000 bail, and Smith's bail was set at $10,000.

Marin county sheriff's investigators said two sailors from the Alameda-based replenishment oiler Wabash—Donald Scott and John Chiancola, both 22 years old—were driving along Cole Avenue in the hills above Marin City Thursday evening when their car was stopped by two black men, both armed with pistols.

The gunmen flanked the car, one going to the driver's side, where Scott sat behind the wheel, and the other went to the passenger side where Chiancola sat.

Without apparent provocation, the gunman on the driver's side shot Scott in the left temple. The bullet pierced the sailor's brain and exited through the right temple.

The other holdup man took Chiancola's wallet containing $100, but did not shoot. The thieves then fled.

Chiancola drove his injured friend to the Golden Gate Bridge Plaza, where an ambulance rushed Scott to San Francisco General Hospital.

Convicted Cop-Killer Is Now a $13,000-a-Year Parole Officer

"Hiring the convicted murderer of a policeman to work for the Department of Corrections is like hiring a fox to guard the chickens." That's how Joseph Pecoraro, a 23-year veteran with the Chicago Police Dept., reacted to news that a convicted cop-killer is now earning $13,000 a year as a parole coordinator with the Illinois Dept. of Corrections.

"When I think that part of my tax dollar is paying that man's salary, I feel damn bitter about it," said Pecoraro, who's president of the 6,500-member Chicago Patrolmen's Assn. "It's an insult to me and all policemen. I wonder how Policeman White's widow feels? I don't think she's making anywhere near $13,000 a year. Yet the guy who murdered her husband is getting it — and she's paying part of it with the taxes she pays the state."

The convicted cop-killer referred to by Pecoraro is Harold McEwen, one of four men who held up a tavern on Chicago's south side in June 1961, and fled with $45. The robbery was interrupted by off-duty Patrolman LaVeugh White, who was shot to death in a blazing gun battle with the gunmen. McEwen, who was wounded in the shootout, was caught, tried, and sentenced to 99 years in jail. During June 1973, he was released from jail after serving 12 years of his sentence. In April 1974, he was hired by the state at a salary of $1,090 a month.

James Johnson, a Chicago policeman and president of the 7,000-member Confraternity of Police, is also fuming over the state's hiring of McEwen. "This is an affront to every dedicated police officer in Illinois and in the country," Johnson said. "It appears that the permissive attitude of society and some authorities have combined to create an atmosphere in which cop-killers flourish. In Chicago alone, we've had 48 police officers killed on and off duty since 1965."

Equally annoyed over the hiring of McEwen is John Dineen, president of the 5,000-member Fraternal Order of Police in Chicago. "The officer who was slain had a wife and two small children,"" he said. "The state certainly didn't offer her a $13,000-a-year job. It looks like the state is giving out awards to people who kill policemen."

Pecoraro pointed out that McEwen is being paid more than many Chicago policemen, who start out at $11,148 a year.

"What must Policeman White's widow and kids think?" Pecoraro asked. "What reward did the kids' father get for being a good man who helped people? He got killed and they let his murderer go. Mrs. White must feel like her husband gave up his life for nothing — absolutely nothing. What a waste."

"McEwen should have been put in the electric chair for killing Policeman White. I'm a great believer in an eye for an eye — a tooth for a tooth." — Bud Gordon

Pork Production Soared to 14 Billion Pounds in 1974

American farmers produced nearly 14 billion pounds of pork in 1974, enough to supply 66.5 pounds for each man, woman and child in the nation, says the Business Farmer, a trade publication.

This is 5 pounds more per person than was produced in 1973 and 3 pounds more than the average of the 1960s. Farmers also produced enough food in 1974 to provide each person 41.5 pounds of chicken, 9.4 pounds of turkey, 128 pounds of grains and 288 eggs.

NO "GAY HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSIONER!!"

When the Reverend Raymond Broshears and James "Jim" M. Foster agree on something, you know that it has to be right. And that point of historic agreement came concerning the matter of agay person being appointed to the Human Rights Commission, solely because they are homosexual.

Both Foster (director of the Whitman-Radclyffe Foundation) and Broshears (director of the Helping Hands Center) see such an appointment as divisive and segregating gay people from the mainstream of society even further.

Broshears agrees that it would create racial animosity towards gay people, as several leaders of various racial groups have stated words of disgust and hate towards gay people as a result of this racist move by "uncle tom" Supervisor Terry Francois and Supervisor Quentin Kopp (who won his election by campaigning on a white racist platform of "no bussing"). Both Francois and Kopp have taken this move, according to many observers, in an effort to create racial disharmony towards gay people, thus lessen their ballot box power in November, as neither Kopp nor Francois figure to receive any gay spoort outside of the newspaper, the Sentinel.

Harvey Milk, a candidate for the Board of Supervisors, agrees with the Sentinel publishers in this move, as Milk feels that a person should be appointed for no other reason that the fact he is homosexual.

Rev. Broshears then stated that, "if a person is appointed because of the fact they they are a homosexual, then I guess the barriers would fall, and a left-handed person would have to be appointed, so as to represent all left-handed people, and most certainly, we would have to have a long-haired person appointed to represent long-hairs, and then we must not have a Human Rights Commission that doesn't have a person on it to represent the "royal courts" as we don't want them discriminated against either!" "The whole concept is anti-humanist, and is supported by only assholes and racists!"

The controversy rages on, but it appears that Supervisors Dianne Feinstein and Nelder, both will support the Broshears-Foster position.

The FBI said yesterday it has arrested John Edward Copeland, one of its “Ten Most Wanted” fugitives, in Dorchester, Mass.

He was wanted on rape and robbery charges in Monterey and Berkeley.

It was the fourth arrest of a Top Ten fugitive in the past four months. Copeland, 31, had been fugitive for two years.

He and a companion, who was arrested in Houston last year, were charged with 14 counts of rape, robbery and kidnaping Monterey County in 1973.

Similar charges also were issued in Berkeley.

Copeland and his companion allegedly picked up female hitch hikers and took them to isolated beaches where the victims were terrorized and raped repeatedly, the FBI said.

Copeland often carried a .22 gauge shotgun and a small automatic pistol, a spokesman said.

Copeland allegedly said he would kill any law enforcement officer who interfered.

The FBI said he was arrested without incident in a home in the presence of his wife and 10-month-old child.

Copeland was to be arraigned before a U.S. magistrate today.

Associated Press

UKIAH — Nearly eight years after she was raped, beaten, shot and left for dead beside a road, Susan Bortolomiel is learning to walk and talk again.

She has taken a few steps in a suspension walker that holds her upright in what looks like a parachute harness.

She communicates with sign language, using the hand she discovered she could move after coming out of a seven-month coma following the attack. She was unable to speak and mostly paralyzed from the neck down.

“She’s in very good spirits most of the time,” said her mother, Mrs. Angelo Bortolomiel.

Susan was kidnapped Aug. 21, 1987. Her boyfriend, Timothy Luce, 17, son of the Lake County district attorney, was murdered. She was left in a ravine near Sonora.

Thomas Braun and Leonard Maine, both 18 at the time, were convicted of the crime.

Braun’s death sentence was reduced to life by the U.S. Supreme Court, and he is in San Quentin. Maine is serving a life sentence.

At Tracy:

Officials said neither is likely to be paroled.

Damage to eye muscles made it difficult to read. Her hearing was also affected, but her mother says she can understand almost everything now.

Since she started her recovery, she completed high school with a B average.
How Zebra witness got 'a better look'

Jurors in the Zebra murder trial heard yesterday how a command performance line-up of two defendants was arranged for a witness who “wanted to get a better look.”

The man who had his very own show-up was David Paul Benveniste, 23, who testified that he saw J.C. Simon kill Tanie Smith at Geary and Divisadero Streets on Jan. 28, 1974.

Benveniste was the only witness at this unusual session at the Hall of Justice last Nov. 4, six months after the arrest of Simon and his co-defendants, Manuel Moore, Larry Craig Green and Jessie Lee Cooks.

Besides Benveniste and homicide inspectors, those attending were defense attorneys Clinton W. White and Roger Pierucci and Assistant District Attorneys Robert Podesta and Robert Bondero.

Benveniste, a florist, concluded two days of testimony yesterday by explaining why he asked police to arrange a special line-up.

He had been in the hospital at the time of the general witness line-ups on May 1 and 2, 1974. He had looked at photographs and seen a videotape of the line-up, but wasn’t satisfied.

“I just thought it may be more helpful,” he said. “The videotape wasn’t all that bright. I just wanted to get a better look.”

With the jury of five men and seven women excused by Superior Judge Joseph Karesh, Benveniste put it another way:

“I thought it would be a good idea to have a line-up, to be more positive, less positive, or whatever.”

The line-up consisted of eight men, including Simon and Moore. The witness picked Simon as the man he had seen hiding over Miss Smith, pistol in hand.

With the jury back again, White established that Benveniste previously had seen pictures of Simon, and suggested that was the reason he had picked Simon in the line-up.

“That wasn’t why I picked him,” the witness said. When his explanation was interrupted by White, Judge Karesh took over.

“Why did you circle that (Simon’s) number on the (line-up) card?” the judge asked.

“I circled it because he appeared to me to be the man most like the man I had seen that night,” Benveniste said.

In earlier cross-examination, Benveniste often seemed less than positive in his identification of Simon.

He admitted that on one occasion he had picked Moore and Green as well as Simon as resembling the black man who killed Miss Smith. He agreed that he had once said he could not choose among the three.

He conceded he had described the killer as a black man of medium light complexion.

Benveniste seemed to go to the substance of his position when, at another point, he explained: “I said that as far as what I had seen, I was not positive but I was reasonably sure that this was the person I had seen that evening.”

The prosecution proceeded today with further testimony about the murder of Miss Smith, 32, a legal secretary.

She was one of 14 whites killed in random attacks in San Francisco in the winter of 1973-74. Seven others survived assaults.

With this testimony, an Ohio striped the jury and a friend, Jar Ocean Bet Cider.

Defense Attorney Edward W. Jacko questioned Forks suspiciously. This dialog ensued:

Q — When were you told you would be a witness?
A — Yesterday.
Q — Then what happened?
A — I was told to come today.

Q — Then what happened?
A — (hands turned up)

Zebra Victim Testifies in Cold-Blood

He Was Shot in the Back

By Charles Raudebaugh

A survivor of Zebra bullets old yesterday what it was like to be shot in the back.

"There was immediate pain in the right leg. I couldn't move either one of my legs."

He testified in Superior Court that the man who shot him was Manuel Moore, one of four blacks on trial since March 3 for murder, conspiracy to commit murder, and other charges.

"Are you positive in that identification?" asked Assistant District Attorney Robert Dondero.

"Yes, sir," Anderson responded firmly.

Anderson, then 18 years old, was shot at Hayes and more streets the night of April 14, 1974.

He said that as Moore approached, he asked Moore a cigarette and the only reply was "a grunt." Moore pedaled into the street looked in both directions then returned to the walk, moved past Anderson and "then he shot me," Anderson testified.

While on the street with bed legs, Anderson watched his assailant two shots into Terry White, another white man who was also waiting for a bus.

White also survived his injuries and is scheduled to testify trial of the four accused killers.

Fourteen persons were killed and seven wounded in the series of wanton street assaults the winter of 1973-74.

that are known—because of a police radio code—as the Zebra murders.

The jurors listened with obvious attention when Anderson described how a bullet surfaced on his body five months after the shooting and was removed under a local anesthetic.

The surgery was performed at Mesa, Ariz., where Anderson's family resides.

He said the doctor gave the bullet to the nurse and the nurse left the room to put it in a bottle and then gave him the bottle.

Defense lawyers immediately protested that there was a hiatus in what is called legally "the chain of evidence" and therefore the bullet should not be admitted as evidence.

With a tolerant smile, Judge Karesh overruled the objection and allowed the bullet to become a prosecution exhibit.

"What did you do with the bullet after the nurse gave it to you?" asked Prosecutor Dondero.

"I took it home and showed it to my friends," said Anderson.

Anderson was under cross-examination by Clinton W. White, one of the four defense attorneys, when court recessed until 10 a.m. this morning.

WARD ANDERSON
Witness identified a defendant as his assailant
WASHINGTON — A columnist arriving home from a month in the Middle East is driven almost crazy by the potential for columns of passion.

I want to write angrily about how Gerald Ford and the others who once spread scare stories about a veto-proof Congress are now using the veto so often that they have reduced this country to minority rule.

There are 435 members of the House of Representatives, but Ford needed only 182 of their votes to nullify the emergency farm bill; a mere 145 House members joined him in wiping out a $5.3 billion emergency jobs bill which would have funded some 900,000 public service jobs; still fewer members (143) enabled the President to block the strip-mining bill.

But how can I devote a column to that when I want to say "hooray!" to Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's warning to our "allies" (especially Turkey) that they had best stop threatening that unless the U.S. kowtows to every ally's stupidities, that country will abandon NATO, or some other security arrangement.

"No ally can pressure us by threat of termination," said Kissinger. "We will not accept that its security is more important to us than it is to itself." Well said, and long overdue!

Yet, you come home wishing someone in the Ford Administration would speak half as forthrightly about the agonies of those pitiful millions of Americans who are jobless — and the many more million of their children and other relatives who know hunger, ignorance and many other miseries as a result.

The National Urban League has told a truth that the Labor Department never quite tells — that one black job seeker out of four cannot find work in America today — and in some inner cities fully half of black job-seekers are in desperate, almost hopeless straits.

You arrive home asking yourself: Is it that the White House still hasn't figured out what to do, or is it that this administration doesn't care?

But you can dwell only so long on a matter even of such importance personally and nationally. For there is an invasion of thoughts, an urge to comment, about the recent ruthless grasping of the reins of tyranny by India's Indira Gandhi.

What lower of personal liberty, of press freedom, of an obeyed judiciary, can help but weep over India — and over the fact that tyranny seems to be the worldwide trend.

Mugger penalties

THE STATE SENATE has passed by an emphatic 36-0 vote a bill by Senator George Deukmejian, R-Long Beach, to stiffen penalties for assault and robbery on persons 65 or older.

Recently San Francisco Police Sgt. Sid Patton pointed out in the Examiner the growing wave of purse snatchings and savage beatings pointless inflicted on senior citizens. He argued that the state has special laws to protect children, why not special laws to protect senior citizens as well?

Deukmejian's proposal would add not less than two years nor more than five to existing penalties. It would permit transfer from Juvenile Court to criminal court of offenders 16 to 18.

Whether these penalties are too severe or not severe enough is a matter for legislative determination. But the principle of heightened penalties for such violent crimes against helpless senior citizens is a sound one and should be enacted into law.

The Assembly Criminal Justice Committee, where the bill next will be heard, has a reputation for resisting increased penalties for criminal behavior. It should reconsider.
Lightning Kills Child

In Park

A child was killed and four others injured in Central Park yesterday during a thunderstorm when lightning struck a tree under which they had sought shelter.

A police spokesman said a group of children supervised by a teacher were playing on a ball field when the thunderstorm broke.

"Let's get under the bridge!" the teacher called out, and started moving the group toward a stone bridge nearby.

Once under the bridge, the teacher looked back and saw that five children, aged 8 to 14, had sought shelter under a tree. Realizing the danger, he started to run toward them just as the lightning struck.

Of Beach Killing

By Peter Stack

A young woman described in chilling detail how she and her hitchhiking companion were murderedously attacked on starlit Ocean Beach January by a "polite" black man who had given them a ride from Half Moon Bay.

In testimony before a Superior Court jury, Julia Kehling, 20, her voice cracking with emotion, told how her lifelong friend, Janet Rodgers, also 20, whimpered just before she died.

Miss Kling said she watched the killer pace about the beach as both women lay wounded and bleeding on the sand.

She told the nine-woman, three-man jury in the courtroom of Superior Court Judge Edward Cragin that the defendant, Clarence Ferguson, 24, had said, "It's kind of foggy and scary, just before he opened fire with a handgun.

She said he parked his car, a blue Datsun, near the beach on Great Highway after promising the women a "grand tour" of San Francisco.

Both women had come to California from Ohio two weeks earlier.

Miss Kehling said Ferguson had stopped at the beach to relieve himself. He returned to the car; she said, and opened the doors "like a chauffeur" and asked the women to view the "ships on the water."

The young witness said she and her companion followed the defendant onto the beach. "There were millions of stars," she said.

She said when Ferguson mentioned the odd scenery, she became apprehensive and began to walk back toward the car.

"I heard something that sounded like a shot," she said.

She turned and saw Ferguson holding a gun with both hands, his arms outstretched to take aim, she testified.

"I saw a spark," she said, "and then I felt myself being shot. I felt a sting and warm blood in my cheek."

Miss KLing said she then took kick sand into her attacker's face and turned to run when she felt a second sting, this time in the back of her neck.

She said she fell face first onto the beach, and that she heard another shot as her companion ran toward her.

"She must have tripped over me, because she fell on top of me. I lay still. My ears were ringing. My head was under her waist. I could see the man pacing. He seemed to be almost running back and forth.

"Jan was crying, and he ran away. She had a high pitched whimper. I figured she was unconscious. I poked her with my right elbow and I said 'Shut up, I know I was OK, and give her confidence.'

"She kept whimpering. I heard him approach again, and there was another shot, really loud. He was really close. I thought he was going to kick us over to see if we were dead. When I heard the loud shot, Jan was pushed up against me harder, and he paced some more around us."

Then he left and Miss Kehling heard a car door slam.

Miss Kehling said that although she was bleeding profusely and tasted broken pieces of her teeth in her mouth, she tried to lift her dead companion and took her pulse.

"I slapped her six times, trying to revive her, and then I lay her back down, and ran straight across the street to the first house I saw. 'A door was open, and a lady answered, and I said, 'Don't be afraid, I'm all bloody, but I need help. Call an ambulance.'

She said the woman was very reluctant and asked whether Miss Kehling was being chased.

Miss Kehling said she and Miss Rodgers came home to California because Miss Rodgers had been accepted as an art student at an academy here.
Woman fugitive found dangerous

A County sheriff's officers continued their search for a convicted murderer who escaped Suisun County jail.

The prison, near Pleasanton, is adjacent to Interstate 580 and considered a good east-west escape route.

Fern Miles, 23, was sentenced to death on murder and rape charges and appeared late last night after her escape was reported by authorities yesterday.

A police report said she considered "exequy".

W.C. Godfrey, who had previously been able to make his way through tile floors in her cell, was reported to have been caught by moveable bars on a hole in the floor. He is believed to have entered the hole, then crawled under the hole for 20 minutes before walking another distance through a hole in the armored fence after which he fled.

Miss Miles was convicted last month of the murder of Geraldine Bonnfield, 22, and attempted murder of her sister, Renee, 19. The victims worked in different massage parlors in the East Bay.

The two women were apparently lured onto Miss Mills' car on the pretext of being given a ride home. Then Miss Miles produced a gun, and according to Renee Bonnfield's testimony.

The older sister was fatally shot and her body was dumped in a parking lot at Providence Hospital.

Renee was also shot and thrown from Miss Miles' car in Contra Costa county.

Burglaries at The Brigadoon

A cat burglar walked silently away with $300 in cash from the bedrooms of sleeping guests at the Brigadoon Lodge on East Monte Vista Avenue in Vacaville before dawn yesterday, police reported.

The burglar also got an $8,000 diamond ring, but left it lying outside, unnoticed in the pocket of a man's trousers.

Carmela T. Maggin, 53, of Lodi got out of bed at 5:30 a.m. to discover his pants missing. One window had been opened and the screen removed. He called police.

Officers found Maggin's trousers and emptied wallet in the bushes outside. The burglar got $230 in cash from the wallet, Maggin told police.

Still in the front pocket of the pants was Maggin's $8,000 diamond ring.

The other burglary was discovered at 6:30 a.m. by Jesse H. Reimere, 69, and Lillian M. Reimere, 68, of Reno.

Reimere's pants and wallet and Mrs. Reimere's handbag were missing from their room when they awoke, and their window, too, was open.

The pants, wallet and handbag were found outside, with $70.50 in cash missing.

Police report no suspects in the burglaries.

Mugger kills Air Force aide in an elevator

A 68-year-old civilian employee of the Air Force was stabbed to death last night in an elevator of the Holiday Inn near the waterfront in Emeryville.

Officials, who withheld his name pending notification of kin, said the victim was waiting for the elevator on the sixth floor when he was accosted by a young man in an apparent robbery attempt.

When the elevator arrived with a lone passenger inside, the youth panicked and stabbed the Air Force man, who was en route to the East Coast from Guam.
By Malcolm Glover

A young Ohio woman broke down on the witness stand here yesterday as she told of how she was wounded and her girl friend murdered at Ocean Beach last Jan. 13.

Julia Kehling, 20, told the jury in the court of Superior Judge Edward Craven that she and Janet Rodgers, also 20 and from Ohio, were hitchhiking here from Southern California. A prearranged ride had fallen through, she said, and they started thumbing north along the coast. The sixth person to pick them up, she related, was the defendant, Clarence E. Ferguson, 35, near Half Moon Bay.

Miss Kehling said she felt uncomfortable with Ferguson, a warehouse manager, although she described him as being very nice. However, she said, “I was disgusted and upset over acceptance of the ride with him.”

After arriving in San Franisco, she said, Ferguson drove them around, showing them the Sea Cliff area, and then told them, “I’m going to take you to your final destiny.”

Miss Kehling said she assumed that meant the YMCA Hotel on Turk Street, where the two women had stayed previously.

Southbound along the Great Highway on a moonlit night, he stopped the car and got out to relieve himself, she said. When he came back he was running and jumping, looking like a little kid, said Miss Kehling.

“Ladies, you should see the stars from out here,” she said he announced, opening both passenger doors. The three walked about 20 steps from the car.

Ferguson, she said, told them they should be able to see some ships out at sea, although it was foggy and scary. She said she became concerned when he used the word ‘scary,’ and started walking back to the car.

Then, she testified, she heard a shot. I turned back to where he and Janet were. He had both arms outstretched at about chest and shoulder level, pointing gun at me.

“I saw a flame from it, and then I shot, but I didn’t make connection. But he pointing straight at me felt warm blood and sting.”

The first bullet had struck her in the cheek, next to her mouth. She said Janet was standing next to Ferguson, a blank look on her face.

Miss Kehling said she kicked sand at Ferguson and turned to run, then felt a second sting in her neck. The second bullet is still lodged at the base of her skull.

Miss Kehling fell and lay still, feigning death. She heard her friend running, heard another shot, and then Miss Rodgers fell on top of her.

“He ran up to us, paced back and forth for a while. Janet was crying, he ran away.”

She said she poked Janet with her elbow, told her to shut up. Then, she said, she heard Ferguson return, heard a “really loud shot.”

The blast, from a shotgun into Miss Rodgers’ head, pushed the dead woman up against Miss Kehling with a jolt. She said she remained motionless and heard Ferguson pacing back and forth.

Finally she dozed.

WASHINGTON — After con-
ers of San Francisco's minority filed an indignity yesterday at the city's new school superintendent, Robert Alioto, he has denied blacks equal authority in the new setup.

Alioto's announcement of the bigest administrative change in the school history was made in a telephone call to the Bayview-Hunter's Point Coordinating Council and the Bayview-Hunter's Point Education Committee. In a news release, Alioto said he would appoint a black deputy superintendent, although the district has a 40 percent black pupil population.

The changes, Alioto said, were designed to streamline services and improve efficiency in the district.

In a news release, signed by ten black ministers and the Black Educational Council, the Bayview-Hunter's Point Coordinating Council and the Bayview-Hunter's Point Education Committee, it was charged Alioto had failed to appoint a black deputy superintendent, although the district has a 40 percent black pupil population.

There were also complaints that in the shakeup no black had been promoted to another position. Frederick Kennedy, assistant superintendent of personnel, was removed from his post and shifted to another.

The group spokesmen asserted that the new organization plan is only one black man as an administrative assistant, "a flunky" job.

Reaching by telephone in Yonkers, N.Y., where he is preparing to move to San Francisco, Alioto said he could not "comment intelligently on the allegations" from a distance of 3000 miles.

"It is unfortunate people are reacting to an organizational chart without knowing what the responsibilities of the individuals will be," he said. "There is evidently a great deal of misunderstanding abroad."

Alioto said he will be back in San Francisco next Monday and after that he will be "happy to meet with representatives of the black community to discuss the reorganization plan in detail with them."

Dope...$72 million...death

An alleged conspiracy involving $72 million in counterfeit Treasury notes a murder plot and traffic in cocaine sent six men to jail here and in Stockton today.

The dramatic roundup brought into the open a long-secret undercover probe by city, state and federal agents, begun when Stockton police got wind of some cocaine deals in their area.

Others are involved, and more arrests can be expected, agents said.

Willie Ed Phillips, 30, a San Francisco attorney of 105 Montgomery St., was arrested at 7 a.m. at his home at 1209 Page St.

He was booked at the U.S. Marshal's office on charges of conspiracy to traffic in cocaine. He was not linked to the fortune in Treasury notes nor to the planned killing.

Arrested in Stockton were Louis Maro, 70, Stockton jeweler and partner in an "adult bookstore"; Andrew Barlupi, 54, an associate in the bookstore; and Maurice Edward Ringer, 54, Stockton, described as a loan middleman; John Joseph Barkett, 49, disbarred Stockton attorney, and his brother Jeffery George Barkett, 29, also of Stockton.

All were booked for conspiracy to sell counterfeit Treasury notes.

Barlupi was also accused of conspiracy to sell machineguns.

And the younger Barkett was accused of four cocaine counts, sale of stolen property — a $5,000 mink coat — and solicitation of homicide.

Full details of the activities of the alleged crime conglomerate were not immediately available.

Donald H. Heller, assistant U.S. attorney at Sacramento, said the investigation is "on-going" and to tell any more might scare off other suspects.

However, Heller and others said enough to provide a hair-raising picture of far-reaching crime.

The arrests followed indictments voted yesterday by a special federal grand jury in Sacramento. Two others were named, besides the six who have been rounded up. However, their identities were kept secret until agents can catch up with them.

Heller and the others would say only that the inquiry began six or seven months ago in Stockton.

Undercover agents were assigned to ferret out the alleged participants in a cocaine-distribution ring.

Before long they called for state and federal help, because of unexpected developments in the case.

Somewhere along the line they were allegedly told that the conspirators possessed 72 Treasury notes each of $1 million/denomination. These were offered for sale, the agents said.

At another point, someone assertedly tried to arrange the murder of someone else.

Details of the alleged killing plot — and the nature of the machinegun and mink coat theft charges — were not made clear.

He signs death bill
'It might help'

United Press International

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — No one can prove capital punishment is deterrent to crime, according to Gov. Christoper Bond. But he says he signed legislation returning the death penalty to Missouri because he believes it can reduce the number of premeditated murders.

The measure provides for mandatory execution in the state's gas chamber for all premeditated first-degree murder convictions.

In signing the bill yesterday, Bond said it was worthwhile even if it saved one life.

"I believe that a death penalty for a deliberate and premeditated killing of a human being can serve as a deterrent," the governor said. "For that reason I will sign the bill that has been passed by the Missouri general assembly."

When asked if he expected my executions to take place during the remainder of his term, Bond said he did not intend for the state to begin executions again.

"The death penalty is not a cure-all for the perplexing problem of the rising crime rate, but there is overwhelming support for the restititution of the death penalty for premeditated murder," Bond said.

"I've tried to consider all the pro and con arguments and the arguments on both sides are emotional and leave something to be desired. I don't think anybody on either side can prove that the death penalty is a deterrent to crime."

But supporters of the legislation were positive Bond's signature on the bill would change the state's crime statistics.

"You watch, after the bill is implemented, and see how much the crime rate goes down," Senate sponsor Ike Skelton said. "Persons who would wilfully and premeditatedly take the life of another are now on notice that in killing the other persons they, in essence, execute Broshears & Foster Agree.....

NO "GAY HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSIONER!!"

When the Reverend Raymond Broshears and James "Jim" M. Foster agree on something, you know that it has to be right. And that point of historic agreement came concerning the matter of a gay person being appointed to the Human Rights Commission, solely because they are homosexual.

Both Foster, (director of the Whitman-Radclyffe Foundation) and Broshears (director of the Helping Hands Center) see such an appointment as divisive and segregating gay people from the mainstream of society even further.

Broshears agrees that it would create racial animosity towards gay people, as several leaders of various racial groups have stated words of disgust and hate towards gay people as a result of this racist move by "uncle tom" Supervisor. Terry Francois and Supervisor Quentin Kopp (who won his election by campaigning on a white racist platform of "no bussing"). Both Francois and Kopp have taken this move, according to many observers, in an effort to create racial disharmony towards gay people, thus lessening their ballot box power in November, as neither Kopp nor Francois figure to receive any gay spoor outside of the newspaper, the Sentinel.

Harvey Milk, a candidate for the Board of Supervisors, agrees with the Sentinel publishers in this move, as Milk feels that a person should be appointed for no other reason that the fact is he is homosexual.

Rev. Broshears then stated that, "if a person is appointed because of the fact they they are a homosexual, then I guess the barriers would fall, and a left-handed person would have to be appointed, so as to represent all left-handed people, and most certainly, we would have to have a long-haired person appointed to represent long-hairs, and then we must not have a Human Rights Commission that doesn't have a person on it to represent the "royal courts" as we don't want them discriminated against either!" "The whole concept is anti-humanist, and is supported by only assholes and racists!"

The controversy rages on, but it appears that Supervisors Dianne Feinstein and Nelder, both will support the Broshears-Foster position.

THANK YOU - A special thank you to Bob Trotloppe, of the Club Rendezvous and P.S. for all the help that you have given to the poor and disabled of San Francisco. Your generosity will always be remembered and appreciated!

He's Not Gay by Choice

Hampton, Va.

Technical Sergeant Leonard P. Matlovich, a gay, pleaded with an Air Force discharge board yesterday to let him stay in the service and said he would not have chosen to be a homosexual "if I had a choice."

"I would never have chosen this lifestyle. But I don't have that choice. I have to live with myself," the 32-year-old Air Force man with 12 years' service told the board.

Matlovich's appearance on the witness stand came in the second day of the hearing, in which he is challenging the Air Force regulation calling for the automatic discharge of homosexuals.

Earlier in the day, the government had sought and won the removal of two members of the five-man officer panel charged with deciding the case, claiming they could not be fair and impartial.

And a joint statement was placed in evidence in which the defense conceded that Air Force men were among those with whom the sergeant had committed homosexual acts.

Matlovich, a veteran of three tours of Vietnam, himself precipitated the hearing when he admitted his homosexuality in a letter to the secretary of the Air Force six months ago.

On the witness stand yesterday, he told the three officers remaining on the discharge board that he first learned for sure he was a homosexual two years ago at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas.

"I cried a lot," he said, when he realized it was true.

"I didn't like it at all," he added. "I prayed a lot, 'change me, please change me,' but I realized there was no changing to be made."

The government action resulting in the removal of two of the board's original five members — Colonel Davis H. Glass, its president, and Major Phillip K. Heacock — was termed "courageous" earlier by Matlovich's chief attorney, David Addleston.

Lieutenant Colonel James E. Applegate, the Air Force attorney directing the government's case, challenged the continued presence of Glass and Heacock on the discharge board during a closed session of the panel.

Applegate told the judge advocate, Colonel Robert E. Shank, that after hearing from Glass and Heacock during the closed session he felt they could not fulfill their roles as "fair and impartial jurors."

TAYLOR WANTS GAY COPS HERE

Lloyd Taylor would like to have a few gay policemen, according to a recent news release.

The difference is that Taylor, who is running for the Board of Supervisors, has called for an affirmative action hiring program here.

"To make up for the low percentage of gays working in city government, no non-gays should be hired until the percentage of gays in city government equals that of the San Francisco community," Taylor said, mentioning the board of education and the police and fire departments in particular.

GAYER GETS LICENSE PLATES PLUS EGG ON HIS WINDSHIELD

After finally getting his GAYLIB license plates, Dick Gayer has ended up with egg on his windshield.

The night after he got his plates, June 10, he was threatened by a car full of teenagers, shouting "Queer" et al, and then on Sunday, June 15, Gayer found his windshield covered with egg and egg shells.

Gayer says that in his Castro neighborhood, most people are tolerant, but a group of parents affiliated with the Most Holy Redeemer Church was upset about the gay influx into the area. Father John O'Connell has been called to intervene, despite requests from the Police Community Relations officers.

"We hope the last egg has been thrown," Gayer said, "but if it follows, so will litigation and prosecution."

Bay Area gays pick an emperor

Mike Caringi, a Valencia Street bartender, has been elected Emperor of the Bay Area’s gay community.

Caringi, 33, won over two other contestants by 11 votes, more than 1,200 votes were cast by residents of five Bay Area counties.

Caringi, the fourth such emperor to be elected in recent years here, was feted in a coronation ceremony Saturday night at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel and Sunday afternoon at S.I.R. headquarters on Sixth Street.

“Two hundred or 300 people urged me to run,” said Caringi. “They thought I would make a good candidate. The emperor works for the gay community, raising funds and helping to solve any problems that might arise.”

One of Caringi’s first functions will be to travel to Los Angeles in two weeks to take part in the coronation of an emperor there.

During yesterday’s festivities Caringi sported buttons and insignias from other gay “courts,” pinned on him from delegates from Los Angeles, Alaska, Canada and Seattle.

Although other cities with large gay contingents have similar coronations, Caringi said San Francisco’s has precedence. “We are basically the highest court,” he said, “because San Francisco has the largest gay community.”

He said the emperor contests began as a spin-off from the 10-year-old “empress” contests, which in turn were inspired by San Francisco’s historic Emperor Norton.

Third Baffling East Bay Killing

Police in the East Bay were investigating yesterday the strangling death of a Laney College student, the third young woman to be found murdered in three days.

Oakland Homicide Sergeant Fred Farkus said there was no evidence to connect the three slayings, but he conceded that in each case there were no leads, no suspects and no recovered weapons.

Two of the women had been sexually assaulted and the third might have been.

The latest victim was Nancy Huber, 20, of 1510 East 31st street in Oakland. Her strangled body was found early Sunday afternoon under a boxcar on the Southern Pacific railroad tracks in Berkeley. She was wearing only a sweater, pulled up to her neck.

The earlier victims were Shawn Davies Perry, 27, of 2675 Monterey boulevard in Oakland, and Caridad Shanks, 18, of 2039 42nd avenue in Oakland.

Miss Perry, a singing waitress at a Jack London Square nightspot, was found shot to death in her Oakland Hills home Saturday. She was wearing a nightgown. Police said she was killed with one shot in the chest sometime after 3 a.m., when she returned home from work.

Miss Shanks, a Merritt College student, was found at 2 p.m. Friday near a recycling center on the campus. She was wearing only a blouse. Her other clothes were strewn nearby.

According to the coroner, she was killed with a blunt instrument and might have been dead two days before her body was discovered.

Dymally family row over election

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Romer Dymally says his bid for the state Assembly was “sabotaged” by his brother, Lt. Gov. Mervyn Dymally.

Romer, 46, an electrical engineer, lost his bid for the Assembly in the June 8 primary when his brother supported the incumbent, Teresa Hughes. Hughes received 82 per cent of the vote in the Democratic primary, winning with 21,846 to 4,649 for Dymally.

Romer alleged that his brother called potential supporters and asked them not to support him and used one of his own staff members, Linda Blair Muir, to work on the Hughes campaign.

He said his campaign was hurt by a letter sent out on the lieutenant governor’s stationery saying, “...I am writing you this personal letter because some people are trying to confuse the voters in the 47th Assembly District by putting the name Dymally on the ballot.

“A Please be informed that Gov. Jerry Brown, the entire Dymally family and I are supporting Assemblywoman Teresa Hughes for re-election.”

Romer said, “The letter made it sound like the ballot was fraudulent, as if there was no Dymally running.”

Asking about the accusations, Lt. Gov. Dymally replied through his press secretary, Bob Holmes, that he did not want “to get involved.”

The lieutenant governor said, “The campaign is over. The voters spoke overwhelmingly. It was unfortunate that it had to happen this way, but I supported Teresa from the beginning and Romer knew that. I stand by the statement that the entire Dymally family, with the obvious exception of Romer, supported Teresa.”

Romer said his father, visiting from Trinidad, was “planted” in his campaign and “spied” on him when he thought initially that his father wanted to help.

He said he believed he would have won the election if his brother had remained on the sidelines.

Brown re-seeds farm labor board

Examiner News Services

SACRAMENTO — Hopes that the mothballed state Agricultural Relations Board soon will be re-established will be realized by board money will be included in the spending program.

Initial reaction from the farming industry indicated growers were satisfied with the appointment of general counsel receives $40,000.

The announcement said Gerald Brown was a member of the National Labor Relations Board from 1961 to 1971. He had worked for the National Relations Board.
Panther leader Huey Newton says he wants to return to U.S.

Black Panther leader Huey Newton, now living in Cuban exile, wants to come back to the United States, a college professor who visited him in Cuba said last night.

The professor, Richard E. Lapchick, of Virginia Wesleyan College, recently returned from a visit to Cuba sponsored by the United Nations.

Newton, co-founder of the Black Panthers who had a falling out with Eldridge Cleaver, another erstwhile Panther leader, jumped bail in 1974 while awaiting trial in Oakland on a variety of felony charges.

A year ago last March, he disclosed in a phone call to San Francisco attorney Charles Garry that he was alive and well and living in Havana.

Lapchick said he talked with Newton on three different occasions in a Havana hotel.

“He is fully prepared to face the charges he fled from,” Lapchick said.

However, the professor added, Newton has been advised not to come back to the United States as long as Cleaver still is making “inflammatory remarks” about him.

Newton regards the charges against him as “trumped up,” Lapchick said.

These charges include pistol-whipping a 56-year-old Oakland tailor, assault on two police officers, and the fatal shooting of a 17-year-old girl, who was in a coma when Newton fled. She died later.

Lapchick said he and other members of a U.N. delegation were in the dining room of a Havana hotel when Newton, his wife and two children entered.

The professor said he recognized Newton and spoke to him, and that he visited Newton in his room the next day and that Newton returned the visit.

Newton was “quiet, fairly shy and very gentle, very considerate,” Lapchick said.

The professor said Newton seemed convinced Cleaver is trying to discredit him with the Panthers.

“He wants to come back, but not as long as Cleaver makes allegations about him,” Lapchick said.

He said Newton told him that for three weeks after he arrived in Cuba he was held under house arrest.

Since then, Lapchick said, Newton has been supported by the Cuban government. The professor said Newton told him that he was at first asked to teach American literature at the University of Havana, but asked to do manual labor and was given an auto mechanic’s job.

Newton, the professor said, currently is engaged in writing a history of the Black Panthers.

Cleaver voluntarily returned last year from a long exile that included sojourns in Cuba, Algeria and Paris.

He had been scheduled to go to trial in Oakland today, on charges arising from a 1968 shootout with Oakland police in which Panther treasurer Bobby Hutton was killed.

The trial has been delayed, however, by the motion of Boston lawyer-author George Higgins to withdraw as Cleaver’s defense counsel.

There were reports last week that San Francisco Board of Supervisors President Quentin Kopp might take the case.

Kopp said last night, however, that “I have not been approached by Mr. Cleaver.”

Kopp said that “I have had a few conversations with Kathleen Cleaver (Eldridge’s wife) but the talk was purely social.”

Mrs. Cleaver said there are no plans to ask for a court-appointed attorney for her husband.

Kopp, asked if he would consider taking the Cleaver case, said: “To reply to that would be an improper comment on the client-attorney relationship.”

Youth gangs in Chicago rampage

CHICAGO — Youth gangs roamed the South Side late last night and early today, attacking motorists stranded by torrential rains, killing one woman and assaulting at least 15 persons, police said. Phyllis Anderson, 51, was shot to death and her husband, Leo, 51, was critically wounded when they refused to pay a gang $10 to push their car across a flooded bridge, authorities reported. The Andersons' three children were cut by flying glass when three shots were fired into their car. Police said that in another attack, Edward Rosen, 35, finance director of St. Francis Hospital in Blue Island, suffered a broken jaw and wounds to the left cheek when attacked by youths carrying baseball bats.

Fire out of control

CORONA, N.M. — The Forest Service rushed fresh crews today to a 900-acre fire raging out of control in the Gallinas mountains in south-central New Mexico. A weather forecast called for winds gusting to 50 miles per hour, which firefighters feared would spread the flames too fast to control. Another fire, called the Indian Fire, in the Carson National Forest south of Taos was brought under control last night after burning 100 acres of mixed conifer forest. Firefighters said they thought that fire was set.

No raise for police community relations chief

By Harry Johanesen

The Civil Service Commission voted 22 yesterday on the request of Police Chief Charles Gain to exempt the head of the Police Community Relations Unit from civil service and give him an $11,000 salary increase.

The tie vote killed the chief's proposal, for the time being at least. It had been approved Assistant Inspector Rodney Williams would have been promoted to the position of a full-fledged department director and given the $28,000 salary of a police captain.

Gain, who had appeared before the commission four times previously in efforts to win the new job for Williams, said he would write a letter asking for reconsideration of the matter.

Commissioner Frank N. Alioto was absent from yesterday's meeting. His presence for a new vote on the question could change the result.

Commission president Joseph

Mayor on civil service

Mayor Moscone addressed the Civil Service Commission yesterday to ask for a study of qualifications for entry-level jobs of craft union members employed by The City.

"I would like to see the commission consider entry-level apprenticeships rather than the over-qualifications we currently demand, which keep our salaries so high," He said.

The mayor made a number of other suggestions to the commission in his sixth of a series of appearances before City boards and commissions.

He asked the commission to:

- Develop a concrete plan with explicit procedures to address all phases and programs of affirmative action.
- Shorten the length of time of the eligibility list for city employees. "We must keep our lists fresher than the current four years now allowed and I would encourage the commission to shorten the period of time, possibly to two years," Moscone said.
- Take another look at ideas such as flex-time, permanent part-time jobs and the inclusion of volunteer work as experience on job applications.

Tarantino and commissioner Genevieve Powell voted against creating the new non-civil service position within the police department.

Commissioners Darrell Salom and William Jack Chow voted for the idea.

Gain told the commission that no other officer in the police department could fill Williams' shoes. The chief said he is an expert in the management of police departments and could make such a determination in a matter of hours.

Gain listed the job of police community relations with a $28,000 salary in his proposed 1975-76 budget. The supervisors' Finance Committee, however, knocked the job out of the budget and it stayed out when the full board approved the budget.

Gain said he wants the full board to consider the matter again. He said the time for this would come when the Police Commission submits a supplemental appropriation request.

The supplemental request, however, would have to be held up until the Civil Service Commission acts again on the chief's request to create the new job.

More bloodshed, burning as So. Africa riots resume

United Press International

JOHANNESBURG — Police today fired into mobs of black rioters who burned three schools and attacked a white farmer and slaughtered his livestock as the nation's race riots spread to the capital.

A weekend of relative calm exploded into new violence in black townships around Pretoria, the capital. Hundreds of blacks burned three schools, a hospital, 11 buses, administration buildings, a missionary bookstore and a beer hall.

Police said at least two blacks were killed today when riot squads fired into the rampaging mobs.

The worst racial riots in South Africa's history began in the Soweto township near Johannesburg last Wednesday during protests by schoolchildren over the compulsory learning of the Dutch-base Afrikaans language in schools. They spread to surrounding towns and continued for three days.

Authorities said today casualty lists showed 128 persons, two of them white, died in last week's rioting, and 1112 were injured.

A police spokesman said the new trouble broke out at Mabopane, northwest of Pretoria, and appeared to have been started by black workers at the municipal waterworks who went on strike for higher wages.

A mob of rioters estimated at about 300 ransacked the home of a white farmer, attacked him with knives, inflicting several stab wounds, and forced him to hand over $3,450 before being dispersed by police gunfire.

A police spokesman said scores of white-owned cars were stoned near Pretoria townships.
So. Africa officials blame others see racial policy

By Larry Heinzerling
Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG — Officials of South Africa’s white government suggest black political agitators were behind the racial uprising in black ghettos around Johannesburg last week.

Others say a student protest over the forced use of the Afrikaans language in the schools of Soweto township was exploited by thugs who went on a burning and looting spree.

An official commission will investigate the causes of the worst racial trouble in South African history. But anti-government newspapers have published lists of the blacks’ grievances they say were the underlying cause of the trouble.

In “white” South Africa, blacks have no voting rights, no job security, no property rights, no labor unions, virtually no say in their own community affairs and no future.

Under South Africa’s apartheid policy of separate racial development, blacks in white areas are regarded as “temporary sojourners” from distant tribal homelands or reserves. In South Africa, 80 per cent of the labor force is black.

“And because they are regarded as only temporary, so are the places in which they live,” said the Express. “Vast, sprawling, soulless places with..."

sprawling African township of Soweto, 15 miles south of Johannesburg, and police opened fire on the demonstrators.

In scattered incidents today, blacks stoned white-owned cars in the exclusively white northern suburbs of Johannesburg which border on Alexandra. But a senior police spokesman said the situation was under control with police regularly patrolling the areas.

The rioting also spread to university campuses. In Natal Province, screaming students on a dawn rampage set fire to campus buildings.

Prime Minister John Vorster, making his first statement since the riots were touched off by rock-throwing schoolchildren in Soweto protesting mandatory use of Afrikaans in schools, said the disturbances were planned. He ordered police to clamp down and use all necessary measures to end the violence.

Vorster said all black universitiesties where clashes occurred would be closed indefinitely.

In Johannesburg, about 1000 white students of the University of the Witwatersrand marched to city hall last night along with black supporters to protest police action in firing into crowds of black demonstrators. They carried banners saying “Your kids next.”

Police broke up the ranks of marchers with baton charges, arresting an undetermined number of demonstrators.

Police Minister Jimmy Kruger banned all public meetings — except sports gatherings, meetings within buildings or those authorized by a magistrate.

The former head of Marine Corps recruiting said yesterday he established a quota limiting the number of black recruits begin accepted in the southeastern part of the country.

Brigadier General Edward E. Meyer, who served as director of recruiting from 1973 to 1975, made the admission after testifying before the House Military Manpower Subcommittee that the Marine Corps had no racial quotas and that he instructed recruiters to follow the “demographic cross-section” of their districts.

However, under questioning by subcommittee members, Meyer said he had issued guidance to the head of the Sixth Recruiting District in Atlanta in 1973. The district had a black population of 26 per cent but the proportion of blacks among the district’s recruits reached 47 per cent.

“I told him you are getting off the representation of the district,” Meyer said. “I told him his black representation had too many unqualified blacks in it.”

Asked if this was not limiting the number of blacks taken in, Meyer replied, “All right, then I am guilty of that. If that is a quota then I established a quota.”

The subcommittee is investigating Marine Corps recruiting and training policies.

Meyers also was asked about an August, 1973, directive carrying the signature of then Marine Corps Commandant Richard Cushman that ordered the number of minority recruitments be controlled at 15 per cent of the total of recruits accepted in the lowest mental category taken by the Corps.

Terming the document “an embarrassing message,” Meyer said the directive had been ordered canceled in a matter of days. He testified it was issued without his knowledge and that he did not know who had formulated the policy.

See, chief, when you let women in your life—

By Baron Muller

San Francisco’s policewomen have asked the department’s Uniform Committee for permission to leave their caps in the locker room.

The caps are ruining their hair-dos, according to Sgt. Bob Bernardini, secretary to the uniform committee.

The three-man committee will consider allowing the women to go to work hatless, according to Bernardini.

The City of Ventura recently approved a uniform change allowing policewomen there to work hatless on the theory that they would be more comfortable and look more contemporary, he said.

The cap is not the only part of the uniform troubling the City’s 61 policewomen, Bernardini said.

The women want a little more femininity in their uniforms, he said—a little flare to the trousers, jackets a bit more flattering, shoes with a little lift in the heels. They

Secretary paints homosexual tinge on Capitol scandal

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Colleen Gardner, who has accused a congressman of paying her a high salary to provide him with sex, said today some men on Capitol staffs have told her their jobs required homosexual activities with congressmen.

Gardner, 28, refused to say how many congressmen or staff members are involved in the alleged homosexual activities. She also refused to identify them.

She said in an interview she is prepared to provide federal investigators with copies of tape-recordings documenting her allegation that Rep. John Young, D-Fla., pressured her and other women on his staff into providing him with sex.

In addition to Young, other lawmakers embroiled in accusations involving sex with women include Sen. Mike Gravel of Alaska, Rep. Wayne Hays of Ohio and retired Rep. Kenneth Gray of Illinois. All are Democrats. All deny knowledge of any criminal wrongdoing on their parts.

In her interview, Mrs. Gardner was asked:

Q. Were the male staffers required to provide sex for their bosses in order to keep their jobs?
A. Yes.

In an earlier exchange with reporters, she was asked whether men on congressional staffs are exploited as she says women are.

A. The men are very affected by the system, as much as the women are. Some men are oppressed sexually, and other men are oppressed in different ways.

Q. Are you saying there are men forced into sex as well as women?
A. Some men, yes.

Meanwhile, a source said Elizabeth Ray, who claims that Hays was paying her $14,000 a year in government salary to be his mistress, is willing to take a lie detector test and give federal investigators her secret handwritten diaries.

The source also said Ray is keeping other documentary material in a safe-deposit box, expected to be opened this week in the presence of FBI agents. The diaries describe Ray's activities in 1973 and part of 1976.

Copies of tapes made by Gardner were obtained by the AP. One tape, of a discussion between Gardner and another woman, described how the other woman felt she was coerced into sexual acts with Young. The other woman wept as she spoke.

Tapes of other conversations contained more discussions of alleged coercion.

In her interview, Gardner said women staffers dreaded rotating assignments to work in Young's office on Saturdays because frequently they would be left alone with him.

Young called women assigned to this duty "Lucky Lulu," she said.

Gardner also said she was an eyewitness to a sexual encounter between Ray and Sen. Gravel on then-Rep. Gray's houseboat on the Potomac River four years ago.

A source said Saturday that Ray told investigators she provided sex for Gravel on Aug. 16, 1972, when ordered by Gray, her boss at the time.

Cecil Poole named judge

By Alan Cline

President Ford today nominated former U.S. Atty. Cecil F. Poole to be a U.S. district judge.

The nomination marked the third try for the prominent San Francisco lawyer, who is 61. His reaction was restrained elation.

"I'm looking forward to what happens in the Senate," he said.

He was first nominated in 1968.

Senate confirmation was blocked by the personal objection of George Murphy, then Republican senator from California.

Poole said he assumed Murphy's complaint was more political than personal, but that when it happened "there was anguish and shock."

Poole quit as U.S. attorney after eight years in the office and went to UC's Boalt Hall as a regents' professor of law. In 1972, he joined the firm of Jacobs, Sills & Coblenz.

"There is no room for bitterness," Poole said. "It shouldn't have happened, but it did."

He was nominated to succeed Olivier J. Carter, an old friend, who retired in April and died last Monday.

"I'll follow Judge Carter, but I won't replace him," he said.

Poole, a graduate of the University of Michigan and Harvard Law School, served 10 years as an assistant district attorney in San Francisco and was secretary and legal counsel to Gov. Edmund G. Brown until President Kennedy named him U.S. attorney in 1961.
Worst South Africa racial violence ebbs

Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG — The worst racial conflict in South Africa's history has subsided, police said, leaving an estimated 101 persons dead and more than 1,000 injured.

"Some arson, some looting" were still being reported in a ring of segregated black townships around Johannesburg, Police Minister James Kruger said last night. But there was "no reason to worry at all," and police were in control, Kruger declared on national television.

Thousands of police, many armed with automatic weapons and riding in armored vehicles, were patrolling the troubled areas. Military reservists were on standby alert.

"We will not be intimidated and will maintain law and order at all costs," Prime Minister John Vorster told the South African parliament after three days of bloody uprisings.

In New York, the United Nations Security Council debated a proposed condemnation of South Africa for using "massive violence" against the black rioters.

The rioting broke out Wednesday in the huge black township of Soweto when police tried to break up a demonstration by high school students opposed to the required use in school of the Africans language, the language of the white ruling Boer faction. Many blacks view Africans as a symbol of white oppression and many students prefer English because it is a more practical, universal language.

The uprising grew into a violent protest against the government's racial policies.

The rioting spread Thursday and yesterday to other black settlements and black universities as blacks burned shops, beer halls, government buildings, schools and cars, and stoned passing whites and policemen.

The worst violence on Friday was in the black township of Alexandra and spilled over into adjacent white suburbs on the northern edge of Johannesburg.

Police opened fire on screaming mobs of blacks, mostly youngsters, who had set up roadblocks and prevented riot units from moving into the Alexandra area. Twelve persons were reported killed there.

In nearby white neighborhoods, two white women reportedly were attacked. Parents took some children out of schools in the area and several factories closed down for the day.

She lands in jail for bad breath

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. — When Patricia Schultz, 20, showed up to visit her boyfriend in the county jail with the announced intention of giving him a big kiss, the guards became suspicious. They searched the girl's mouth and found a small balloon filled with enough pot to roll two cigarettes. They promptly took away her temporary visitor's pass and gave her one more permanent. She's being held in lieu of $2,500.
A Lesbian Who Wants To Stay in the Army

By Blake Green

"Radical lesbian feminist" seems as easy a self-description to Miriam Ben Shalom as "sergeant, U.S. Army Reserve." As proof of the first, she wears a DYE logo on her lapel. Sometimes for the second, she wears her military uniform at Gay Liberation rallies.

Now, as she claims she always has since she decided to come out of the closet four years ago, she talks openly and positively about her sexual orientation with as much of the conversation as she is intentionally intended to shock—as it probably has back home in the Midwest.

In fulfilling her duty, she says she has never been attentive to her professional homosexuality. Except for answering "no" to the questions of the mental form question about "homosexual tendencies" or "being a homosexual," Ben Shalom insists that "I couldn't have been more open."

The Army, however, wants to discharge Ben Shalom, two years after her enlistment, under a regulation which states that "homosexual persons cannot be accepted into our armed forces and must be promptly separated when so identified."

Why it took two years to "no identify" isn't clear—and the Army will not discuss Ben Shalom's case until after her discharge hearing next month in Milwaukee, where she is a drill instructor one of the few females, student, Gay Liberation activist, poet, mother and, renowned as "Human being."

If the ruling is not in her favor—and it probably will not be—she will probably receive a general discharge. She says when she takes her case—an infringement of constitutional rights, she says—into federal court where she believes she stands a chance of winning—and settling a precedent with far-reaching ramifications.

Rules are rules, you might be thinking. After all, Ben Shalom was not drafted into the Army. She enlisted, being fully aware of those rules.

Ben Shalom, of course, feels those rules are wrong—a product not just of the military mentality ("there has been no harassment from anyone I worked with," she says but of a society that in general harbors misconceptions about homosexuality. "Homo phobia," she calls it.

"One of the basic myths," she says, "is that we are all child molesters. The average person views homosexuality as "the lavender plague—if there's a gay around, you'll catch it from him" and thinks of the homosexual as "the sexual Martian." Gay, she insists, are normal, very happy people.

As for problems that might arise in a communal living arrangement such as the armed forces, she says, "I have never slept in another woman while I was in uniform." She believes there is absolutely no justification for the Army regulation that also states the Department of Defense has an obligation and responsibility to provide young men and women—with the most wholesome and healthful environment possible.

"Anyone who does anything to another human being by force is not homosexual or heterosexual," Ben Shalom says. "They're sick. And I am not sick."

Panther leader Huey Newton says he wants to return to U. S.

Black Panther leader Huey Newton, now living in Cuban exile, wants to come back to the United States, a college professor who visited him in Cuba said last night.

The professor, Richard E. Lapchick, of Virginia Wesleyan College, recently returned from a visit to Cuba sponsored by the United Nations.

Newton, co-founder of the Black Panthers who had a falling out with Eldridge Cleaver, another erstwhile Panther leader, jumped bail in 1974 while awaiting trial in Oakland on a variety of felony charges.

A year ago last March, he disclosed in a phone call to San Francisco attorney Charles Garry that he was alive and well and living in Havana.

Lapchick said he talked with Newton on three different occasions in a Havana hotel.

"He is fully prepared to face the charges he fled from," Lapchick said.

However, the professor added, Newton has been advised not to come back to the United States as long as Cleaver still is making "inflammatory remarks" about him.

Newton regards the charges against him as "trumped up," Lapchick said.

These charges include pistol-whipping a 56-year-old Oakland tailor, assault on two police officers, and the fatal shooting of a 17-year-old girl, who was in a coma when Newton fled. She died later.

Lapchick said he and other members of a U.N. delegation were in the dining room of a Havana hotel when Newton, his wife and two children entered.

The professor said he recognized Newton and spoke to him, and that he visited Newton in his room the next day and that Newton returned the visit.

Newton was "quiet, fairly shy and very gentle, very considerate," Lapchick said.

The professor said Newton seemed convinced Cleaver is trying to discredit him with the Panthers.

"He wants to come back, but not as long as Cleaver makes allegations about him," Lapchick said.

He said Newton told him that for three weeks after he arrived in Cuba he was held under house arrest.

Since then, Lapchick said, Newton has been supported by the Cuban government. The professor said Newton told him that he was at first asked to teach American literature at the University of Havana, but asked to do manual labor and was given an auto mechanic's job.

Newton, the professor said, currently is engaged in writing a history of the Black Panthers.

Cleaver voluntarily returned last year from a long exile that included sojourns in Cuba, Algeria and Paris.

He had been scheduled to go to trial in Oakland today, on charges arising from a 1968 shootout with Oakland police in which Panther treasurer Bobby Hutton was killed.

The trial has been delayed, however, by the motion of Boston lawyer-author George Higgins to withdraw as Cleaver's defense counsel.

There were reports last week that San Francisco Board of Supervisors President Quentin Kopp might take the case.

Kopp said last night, however, that "I have not been approached by Mr. Cleaver."

Kopp said that "I have had a few conversations with Kathleen Cleaver (Eldridge's wife) but the talk was purely social."

Mrs. Cleaver said there are no plans to ask for a court-appointed attorney for her husband.

Kopp, asked if he would consider taking the Cleaver case, said: "To reply to that would be an improper comment on the client-attorney relationship."

A Woman’s Terrifying Week in a Torture House

A young San Jose woman’s tale of more than a week of rape and torture by members of a Bay Area motorcycle club has led to the arrest of two men, three women and a teenage boy. Oakland police said yesterday.

“They did it to me to show me the treatment I’d get if I didn’t go along with their plans,” said the 17-year-old whose eyes were so puffed up by beatings that she could hardly see.

“They told me I was going to be ‘turned out.’ I was going to be sold as a whore to a pimp for $400.”

When police raided the Oakland house at 615 Douglas Avenue, where she had been kept from May 24 until Tuesday, another victim — bound in chains — was also found.

That victim, identified only as a 20-year-old Alameda man, told police he had been manacled and severely beaten after being hired to fix the car of John Kaleo, 29, who lived at what investigators called “the torture house.”

Kaleo, described by police as “the heavy” in a motorcycle club known as The Ravens, had him beaten because of dissatisfaction with “the job I did and the time I took,” the victim said.

The woman’s ordeal began when she was returning home from a job interview early last week, she said.

An acquaintance, Michael Lee Stevenson, 27, of 856 Onslow way, San Jose, passed by in his car as she was walking, and offered to give her a lift. Instead, police said, he pulled out a gun and drove her to the Oakland address.

There she was kept prisoner, beaten, raped and forced into sexual perversions by Kaleo, Stevenson and a 17-year-old boy who was also associated with the motorcycle club, she said. Finally, she told police, she managed to escape Tuesday morning when the others were asleep.

After neighbors took her in, police were called. Officers surrounded the house in a 5 a.m. raid and arrested 11 persons.

The five formally charged yesterday included Kaleo, who was held on $200,000 bail on counts of felony assault, assault with a deadly weapon, false imprisonment, forcible rape, sex perversion and possession of dangerous drugs.

Stevenson, held in lieu of $100,000 bail, was charged with kidnapping as well as the other counts. Kaleo’s wife, Judith, was charged with possession of a machine gun and a sawed-off rifle along with the dangerous drug possession count.

She and Patricia Fatman, 28, who lived at the same address and was also charged with a variety of drug and gun possession counts, were held on $100,000 bail each.

Another woman, Judy Ann Murphy, 29, of 2210 Colony street, Mountain View, was released on $1,000 bail after being charged with possession of stolen property.

Police said they confiscated 15 firearms at the “torture house,” including the machine gun.
Narcotics linked to double murder

Narcotics activity is believed to be the motive for the slaying of a man and a woman in a Western Addition apartment during the weekend, police said today.

Marijuana, empty balloons and narcotics paraphernalia were in the eighth floor apartment at 1247 Turk St. where Brenda Strickland, 22, was slain in her bedroom and Benjamin Carl Benton, 23, on the living room floor. Homicide Inspector Carl Kotz said neighbors reported there had been "heavy foot traffic to the apartment."

Near each body was a pillow with a bullet hole in it, suggesting the killer muffled the shots.

Kotz said Mrs. Strickland, whose husband moved out a month ago, was shot twice in the neck, Benton once in the head.

The slayings were reported to police yesterday by Benton's brother-in-law, James Roland, who went to the apartment to get the key to the car Benton had borrowed. He said he looked through a peephole and saw Benton's body on the floor.

Yesterday morning both San Francisco daily newspapers and the Housing Authority got mysterious telephone calls about "two dead bodies." But the caller mixed up the address, giving it as 1274 Turk.
Hospital escapee indicted

An 18-year-old San Francisco man was indicted by the Grand Jury here yesterday on rape, robbery and sex charges for crimes committed during four months of freedom which followed his escape from San Francisco General Hospital.

The suspect, identified as Richard Caton, was being held in the hospital awaiting trial on rape, robbery and burglary counts when he escaped last Jan. 22, police said.

He was recaptured May 24 when he attempted to flee following an altercation at 1846 McAllister St., police said. The jury accused him of raping and robbing a woman in her apartment, and of committing the same crimes against a Sacramento Street woman shopkeeper while he was at large following his escape.

Slain S.F. woman let killer in, police surmise

Joetta Rodgers, 26, San Francisco's 47th homicide victim of the year, apparently let her killer into her basement apartment at 2010 Quesada Ave. sometime Saturday or Sunday.

She was found lying on the floor of the apartment, dead by strangulation, yesterday morning by her landlord, Joseph Prince.

Miss Rodgers, a supply worker at Peninsula Hospital, had a handkerchief stuck in her mouth. Her hands were tied behind her back with electrical cord. There was a deep, but not fatal, stab wound in her lower back according to homicide inspector David Toschi.

She had been strangled with her panty hose.

Toschi said he found no evidence that the apartment had been ransacked. There was still money in the victim's purse.

There was no evidence of forced entry, he said. Apparently Miss Rodgers brought the killer home with her, or opened her door to the person.

Sausalito police said yesterday they were looking for perhaps three men responsible for the killings of a man Friday near U.S. 101 and the Rodeo Avenue exit.

The body of Edwin Williams, about 30, was found by a Sausalito public works crew in a grass covered area about 100 yards from the freeway. The man had been shot execution style, said police Lt. Robert Glynn and detective Charles Numark.

Police speculated that Williams was killed after an argument among a group of men who may be responsible for a string of burglaries. The names of the suspects were not revealed. There have been no arrests.
A little girl’s story puts mother in jail

At the coaxing of her suspicious grandmother, a 5-year-old Costa County girl blurted a horrible little story that landed her mother in jail on a charge of murder.

As her grandmother's tape recorder whirred, Danya Paxman of Oroville told of the day last fall when she and her cousin, Nicki Priest, 11, school and came to visit her grandmother, Celia Hasse.

Danya, a sixth-grader infuriated by repeatedly opening and closing the refrigerator door, looking for food.

The little girl told how her mother started screaming, grabbed a pair of scissors and chased the frightened girl through the house.

When she cornered her in the living room, Danya said, her mother stabbed her cousin three times.

Then she, the girl said, cleaned up the blood and stuffed Nicki's limp form into a bag, which, police said, was a Salvation Army bag with the words "Handicapped Families" on the outside.

Four days later, according to Danya's story, they drove out into the country and spent a day in Rio Vista in the Delta.

On the way, she said, her mother stopped the car, pulled the bag from the trunk of their 1964 Rambler and placed it in some brush. She poured some liquid over the bag and set it afire, she said.

The body was found by a motorist who stopped to put out the fire, authorities said.

Danya told no one of what she had witnessed until her grandmother began prodding her, sheriff's investigators said.

The woman had suspected her daughter and had come to authorities. They suggested she try to get her granddaughter to talk, and tape record her story.

It was April 16 when the little girl finally told of the killing. Authorities searched the Brentwood house soon after that.

Sheriff's investigators reported finding "inconclusive" bloodstains in the rug. The trunk reeked of cleaning fluid, they said, and several other Salvation Army bags with the same words were found.

Mrs. Paxman is being held without bail and is to enter a plea to the charge of murder June 22.
Lawyer quitting Cleaver case

By Don Martinez

A rift between Eldridge Cleaver and his attorney on tactics and strategy to be used in the former Black Panther leader’s trial, which was set to start tomorrow in Oakland, has forced another delay in the long-stalled proceedings.

George V. Higgins, a 36-year-old author-attorney from Boston, who took over Cleaver’s defense last February, has filed a motion with Alameda County Superior Judge Lionel Wilson to withdraw from the case.

“There are three or four reasons why I’m forced to pull out,” Higgins said yesterday from his Boston office in a telephone interview with the Examiner.

“Mainly, there are profound differences of opinion between my client and me on how to proceed with the case,” he added.

Explaining that “it damn near broke my heart to file the motion,” Higgins said he had discussed the impasse with Wilson and Dep. Dis. Atty. Tom Orloff before making his decision.

Wilson is expected to grant Higgins’ motion to withdraw tomorrow.

Kathleen Cleaver said she and her husband have “several other lawyers in mind, including Howard Moore and Patrick Hallinan.”

Moore led the defense team for Angela Davis in the murder-conspiracy trial in which she was acquitted. Hallinan’s father, Vincent, unsuccessfully defended Black Panther chief of staff David Hilliard on the same 1968 Oakland police shootout charges that Cleaver faces.

Mrs. Cleaver, who is leading a nationwide defense fund drive that has so far raised about 10 per cent of the target of $25,000, said there are no plans to ask for a court-appointed attorney.

“This case is highly political and the high cost of proper investigation precludes a court-appointed defense,” she said.

Higgins said that he had been “looking forward to this trial. I think Cleaver has a very good defense.”

In numerous pretrial hearings, the author of “the Friends of Eddie Coyle” and other novels, outlined the thrust of his case by declaring that the 42-year-old ex-militant acted in self-defense in the West Oakland shootout.

More than 1000 shots were exchanged between police and eight Panthers. Cleaver, another party member and two officers were wounded. Panther treasurer Bobby Hutton was killed.

Cleaver, who voluntarily returned late last year from his lengthy international exodus to stand trial, is being held on $100,000 bail at the Oakland Courthouse jail. He is charged with three counts each of attempted murder and assault with a deadly weapon on police officers.

Higgins maintained that there was “an affirmative program” on the part of the FBI and other government agencies to disrupt, harass and provoke Black Panthers to violence in the late 1960s.
S.F. massage bandit held in double murder

The suspect, Charles Griffin, 26, a Seaside, Monterey County, tire repairman, was arrested here last Saturday.

He was charged with robbing and pistol-whipping a masseuse, receptionist and customer in a massage parlor here.

Inspector John Sully said detectives noticed that the robbery here was carried off in much the same way in which a Monterey parlor was robbed last New Year's Day.

In the Monterey robbery, however, two women victims were bound and strangled to death and their bodies dumped in a vacant lot. The victims were Kim McConnell and Yong Suk Huilman.

Monterey police obtained a search warrant and went to Griffin's Seaside home where; they found a car with a bloodstained back seat, tires which matched casts made where the bodies were found, and bloody shoes.

Police said Griffin, an Air Force veteran, never had been arrested before and has a wife and one child.

They said Griffin told investigators he robbed the parlor here because he had a lot of unpaid bills.

Child Tapes Story Of Grisly Slaying

By Peter Kuehl

The grisly tale of a mother’s brooding suspicion that her daughter had committed murder — and that her 5-year-old granddaughter had watched the slaying — led to the arrest of an Contra Costa county woman last week, sheriff’s investigators revealed yesterday.

Sheriff’s Detective Sergeant Michael Fernand said Celia Hastings of Oroville finally tape-recorded an account of the crime from the lips of her granddaughter, Danya Paxman, daughter of Gloria Paxman, 44, of Brentwood, a farming community.

Mrs. Paxman was arrested Friday and charged with the murder of her 11-year-old niece, Nicki Priest, whose charred body was found in a field seven miles south of Dixon in Solano county September 23. A motorist on Highway 113 spotted a fire, and when he stopped to attempt to put it out discovered the body in a burned bag.

An affidavit filed yesterday in Delta Municipal Court in Pittsburg gave this version of the little girl's story:

Nicki, instead of going to school September 19, was visiting her aunt, who grew furious when she continued to open and close the refrigerator in search of food.

In a screaming rage, Mrs. Paxman picked up a pair of scissors and chased the terrified sixth-grader around the house until she caught her in the living room and plunged the shears into the girl’s body three times.

Methodically, Danya indicated to authorities, her mother cleaned up the mess and stuffed the lifeless body into a Salvation Army bag with the words “Handicapped Families” on the outside.

On September 23, Paxman threw the bag into the trunk of her 1964 Rambler and drove north with her daughter to spend the day in Rio Vista, a Sacramento River delta town. On the way, Danya recalled, her mother stopped by a field and, after pouring gasoline or oil on the bagged body, hid it in the high grass and set it afire.

The little child said nothing, but Mrs. Hastings somehow became suspicious and talked to law authorities. They encouraged her to pry the story from Danya and sent her home with a tape recorder.

On April 16 Danya at last unburdened herself. The very next day a warrant was sought in order to search Paxman’s house.

"Inconclusive" blood samples turned up on the rug, the odor of cleaning fluid reeked from the trunk of the car and several other Salvation Army bags with the same inscription were discovered, authorities said.

Paxman will appear June 22 to enter a plea before Judge Manuel Rose, who yesterday denied her appeal for bail.
S.F. Man, Stepmother Found Slain

By Harry Jupiter

A 56-year-old warehouseman and his 86-year-old stepmother were found shot to death yesterday in their neat stucco home in the Parkside district.

Police entered the house at 1830 Santiago street through a window at 1:30 p.m. after receiving a report that William E. Watson, a warehouse foreman for the Emporium, had not showed up for work.

Sergeant James Skinner found Watson's body in an alcove near the front door. The body of Tillie Watson was found in a bedroom. Both had gunshot wounds in the head.

Their little dog, Tippie, was found hours later cowering under a bed.

Homicide Inspectors Dave Toschi and Jeff Brosch said it appeared the killer was someone known to the Watsons. There was no weapon in the house, Toschi said, and no evidence of forced entry.

Watson's rear trouser pocket was pulled out, Toschi said, and his wallet was missing.

Watson's blue-and-white Mercury sedan, which had been parked outside the house, also was missing.

"It looks like robbery and burglary as well as murder," Toschi said.

John Curley, who lives next door at 1836 Santiago, said, "They were good neighbors, nice, quiet, friendly people. They had been living here 16 or 18 years.

"They were robbed two weeks ago, the Sunday after St. Patrick's Day. Somebody broke into the house while they were out for a drive."

Another neighbor, Hans Hansen, 78, who lives up the block at 1806 Santiago, said Watson had told him $400 had been taken in the break-in on March 21.

Hansen said Watson, a bachelor, was very devoted to his stepmother.

"Billy always said he wouldn't marry as long as his mother was alive," Hansen said.

"She was very quiet, very nice. She used to wave to me as I walked past their house.

"Billy just bought the car about a year ago. His mother always wanted to go for a ride, and he bought the car to take her riding.

"She told me, 'My son Billy is better to me than my real son.'"

Toschi said it appeared the Watsons had been killed Wednesday evening.

Coroner's deputies removed the body of one of the victims from the house at 1830 Santiago street.

Dymally family row over election

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Romer Dymally says his bid for the state Assembly was “sabotaged” by his brother, Lt. Gov. Mervyn Dymally.

Romer, 46, an electrical engineer, lost his bid for the Assembly in the June 8 primary when his brother supported the incumbent, Teresa Hughes. Hughes received 22 per cent of the vote in the Democratic primary, winning with 21,846 to 4,649 for Dymally.

Romer alleged that his brother called potential supporters and asked them not to support him and used one of his own staff members, Linda Blair Muir, to work on the Hughes campaign.

He said his campaign was hurt by a letter sent out on the lieutenant governor’s stationery saying, “...I am writing you this personal letter because some people are trying to confuse the voters in the 47th Assembly District by putting the name Dymally on the ballot.

“Please be informed that Gov. Jerry Brown, the entire Dymally family and I are supporting Assemblywoman Teresa Hughes for re-election.”

Romer said, “The letter made it sound like the ballot was fraudulent, as if there was no Dymally running.”

Asked about the accusations, Lt. Gov. Dymally replied through his press secretary, Bob Holmes, that he did not want “to get involved.”

The lieutenant governor said, “The campaign is over. The voters spoke overwhelmingly. It was unfortunate that it had to happen this way, but I supported Teresa from the beginning and Romer knew that. I stand by the statement that the entire Dymally family, with the obvious exception of Romer, supported Teresa.”

Romer said his father, visiting from Trinidad, was “planted” in his campaign and “spied” on him when he thought initially that his father wanted to help.

He said he believed he would have won the election if his brother had remained on the sidelines.
Guilty Plea in Slaying of Elderly Woman and Son

Kevin Thomas Strack, 19, entered a guilty plea yesterday to two counts of first-degree murder in the shooting deaths of an Emporium warehouseman and his 86-year-old stepmother.

Strack was arrested in Colorado Springs, Colo., on April 3, two days after the bodies of William E. Watson, 56, and Matilda (Tillie) Moyer, were found in their stucco home at 1830 Santiago street.

Strack also pleaded guilty yesterday in San Francisco to first-degree robbery, burglary and auto theft.

Strack entered his plea before Superior Court Judge Walter Calcagno. On April 10 the suspect had entered a not-guilty plea, and a month later had participated in a lengthy preliminary hearing.

Calcagno scheduled sentencing for July 8.

At Kentfield Home

The secluded Kentfield residence of a San Francisco attorney was looted of $135,000 in valuable art works, antiques and oriental rugs, the Marin county sheriff's office reported yesterday.

The burglars also took the luxury silver-blue 1975 Mercedes sedan that belongs to John M. Nolte.

The burglary was discovered about 6 p.m. Wednesday by Nolte's wife, Sharon Kay, 31, when she returned from San Francisco to the family's two-story home on Toussin avenue.

The first thing she noticed, she told deputies, was that the automatic garage door was open — and the Mercedes missing. When she entered the house she found the carpets had been taken and that the family's most valuable paintings were missing, along with a collection of antique telescopes, color TV sets, and a rare silver and gold chess set.

Ironically, the home's burglar alarm system had been turned off by Mrs. Nolte, she said, because a carpet company representative was coming to give her an estimate for cleaning and repairing some of her priceless Oriental rugs.

Sheriff's deputy J. R. Curley said pry marks were found on a French door leading to the kitchen.

Mrs. Nolte had left a key to the home taped inside her clothes dryer outside the kitchen entrance for the carpet company representative. It was found on the floor inside the house.

Neighbors told the deputies they saw nothing unusual at the Nolte home during the day.

Mrs. Nolte's husband was out of town.

N.Y. Court Voids
Ex.-U.S. judge in a vice bust

Associated Press

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Former federal Judge G. Harrold Carswell, whose U.S. Supreme Court nomination was rejected by the Senate in 1970, was arrested on a battery charge by vice squad officers after he met an officer in a men’s room, a state attorney said yesterday.

State Atty. Harry Morrison said the arrest was made Thursday in a wooded area north of Tallahassee. Carswell “categorically denied any wrong-doing.” Morrison added.

Morrison said he will review the evidence after he receives additional reports from arresting officers and then decide whether to proceed with the case or to drop the charges.

Carswell, 56, allegedly made initial contact with undercover officer George Greene in a men’s room that officers had staked out at a shopping center, Morrison said. The two then drove together to the woods in Carswell’s car.

“During that time they were in the car, passes were made to the officer,” Morrison said, adding Carswell touched Greene in the car. He would not describe the type of physical contact allegedly made.

Morrison said police staked out the restroom after shop owners complained about homosexuals frequenting the men’s room.

Shortly after the arrest, Carswell was admitted to Tallahassee Memorial Hospital. A hospital spokesman said he was being treated for a nervous condition.

Morrison said the arresting officers told him that Carswell was distressed and denied that he made advances to the officer.

“He said, ‘I’d rather be dead than be in the clutches of vice officers under such circumstances. I may just kill myself. This is not true. You’ve got it all wrong.’” Morrison quoted Carswell.

Morrison said officers decided on a charge of battery because “they concluded themselves that the provable charge would be battery.”
