Donald Klopfer of Random House called. He stated that William Faulkner has written him a lengthy letter regarding an individual in New York who is making long distance calls to his wife in Oxford, Mississippi, using the names Guernsey Smith and A. B. Stein.

The essence of the calls are that for $500 the caller will furnish Mrs. Faulkner information regarding a relationship between William Faulkner and Miss Jean Stein. Klopfer stated that Jean Stein, age 22, is the daughter of Jules Stein of the Music Corporation of America; that Jean Stein is a family friend; that when Faulkner comes to New York by himself he frequently dines with Miss Stein; and that this is a fact well known to Mrs. Faulkner. Faulkner apparently is annoyed by the calls and Klopfer wondered if this was not a matter which was a violation of a federal law.

The Blackmail Section of the Extortion Act is handled by the Post Office Department when the mails are used. If, however, long distance calls are used, this is a matter handled by the Bureau and ordinarily U.S. Attorneys do not prosecute in such cases where there is just a threat to blackmail. After discussing the matter with Mr. Boardman, I told the New York Office to have an agent contact Klopfer, secure the letter, and if there are enough facts in the letter to present to the U.S. Attorney, the traditional facts are we can interview William Faulkner and then present it to a U.S. Attorney. William Faulkner is one of the foremost authors of the day. He at one time had a brother in our service.

McELREATH and ROBIN O. COTTEN:

Mrs. ESTELLE PAULKNER advised on January 29, 1957, that she had received a person to person long distance telephone call from New York on November 29, 1956 from a man who identified himself to her as A. B. STEIN. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that STEIN, after identifying himself, stated that he was no relationship to Miss JEAN STEIN of New York and that he had something of interest for her concerning her husband and Miss JEAN STEIN. She continued that STEIN had stated to her that this information would be worth $500.00 to her.

Mrs. PAULKNER advised that at this point she became angry and advised STEIN that she was not interested in this information and further that she was well acquainted with the association between her husband, Mr. WILLIAM PAULKNER, and Miss JEAN STEIN. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that STEIN at that time appeared to be surprised at her statement and at this point the conversation was terminated and STEIN hung up. She advised that her husband was out of town at this time.

Mrs. PAULKNER advised that the individual calling sounded like an educated person and possibly a young man. She stated that he definitely had a New England accent. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that she received a second call from STEIN about December 16, 1956, and that after she learned the identity of the caller, she stated that she had nothing to discuss with him, at which time she terminated the conversation and hung up. She advised that she received a third call about January 3, 1957, at which time STEIN stated that he planned to go to Florida in February of 1957 and that his plans were to stop in Oxford and discuss the matter further with her. She recalled that STEIN, at that time, stated he understood that Mrs. PAULKNER would be in New York during February and that he would have an opportunity to talk with her more in detail. She advised that she again told STEIN she was not interested in any information which he had to offer.

Mrs. PAULKNER advised she received the fourth call about January 19, 1957, from an individual identifying himself as GUERNSEY (phonetic) SMITH, at which time SMITH inquired whether or not she planned to go to Virginia with Mr. PAULKNER in the near future. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that the proposed trip of her husband had already been publicly announced. She could not determine from talking with GUERNSEY SMITH whether he was identical with the person who had previously called and furnished his name as A. B. STEIN. She did state, however, that SMITH did not refer to JEAN STEIN or to any matter previously discussed with her by STEIN.

Mrs. PAULKNER advised that she received the fifth call on January 22, 1957, at 4:30 P. M. from A. B. STEIN, at which time she refused to talk with him. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that threats of any sort were made at any time and that no demands were made for any money. She advised that she gathered from all of the conversations that the caller was attempting to "sell her" some information. She advised that she is not acquainted with A. B. STEIN and is not personally acquainted with Miss JEAN STEIN but has heard her husband speak of Miss STEIN on many occasions. Mrs. PAULKNER advised that all calls received by her were pre-paid and were made at approximately 4:30 P. M. on each occasion.

Mr. WILLIAM PAULKNER advised on January 29, 1957, that he is not acquainted with an A. B. STEIN or a GUERNSEY SMITH but stated that he is a close personal friend of Miss JEAN STEIN of New York and that he and Miss STEIN have mutual interests in television, radio, and literary matters and that through Miss STEIN he has made many writer contacts in New York City. He stated he is of the opinion that the individual representing himself as A. B. STEIN is possibly a young writer whom he has offended in some manner in the past. He advised that he does not feel STEIN is attempting to extort money from his wife by these anonymous calls.

On January 29, 1957, U. S. Attorney THOMAS R. ETHRIDGE advised that from the available facts he does not believe a violation of the Extortion Statute exists since no demand was made for money and the caller was apparently attempting to "sell" information to Mrs. PAULKNER.

Mrs. PAULKNER is described as follows, from personal observation and interview:

Birthplace	Bonham, Texas

Weight	110 pounds

NICHOLS, requested Mr. DONALD KLOPFER, Random House Incorporated, be contacted to receive information of a violation within the Bureau's jurisdiction.

Mr. DONALD KLOPFER, Publisher, Random House Incorporated, advised on January 25, 1957, that Mr. MAX COLLINS, Editor and Associate of WILLIAM FAULKNER, received a letter from Mrs. FAULKNER, who resides in Oxford, Mississippi, to the effect that Mrs. FAULKNER had received four telephone calls, allegedly from one A. J. STEIN in New York, the first of which was received on November 29, 1956. Both Mr. KLOPFER and Mr. MAX COLLINS pointed out that during this first telephone call, the unknown subject said that for $500.00 he could tell her something about a Miss STEIN and her husband. According to Mr. COLLINS, since the first call, Mrs. FAULKNER has received three additional calls, the last of which was received on January 20, 1957.

Mr. COLLINS stated that the substance of the last three calls were not known to him.

Mr. KLOPFER further advised that the A. J. STEIN mentioned in the telephone call, is JOHN STEIN, 2 Sutton Place South, New York City, a personal friend of WILLIAM FAULKNER, and this fact is known to Mrs. FAULKNER.

By teletype dated January 25, 1957, the Memphis Office was requested to interview both Mr. and Mrs. FAULKNER for complete information to determine if the telephone calls came within the jurisdiction of this Bureau, and whether or not the calls were prepaid or collect in order that the records of the New York Telephone Company be checked. By teletype dated January 20, 1957, the Memphis Office advised that Mrs. WILLIAM FULLNER, Oxford, Mississippi, stated that the first telephone call received from New York on November 26, 1956, from a person giving the name A. P. STEIN, pointing out that he was no relation to JIM STEIN, but had something of interest for Mrs. FULLNER concerning Mr. FULLNER and Miss STEIN which would be worth $500.00 to her. Mrs. FULLNER told the caller she was familiar with the association of her husband and Miss STEIN.

According to Mrs. FULLNER, the second call was received about December 16, 1956, and Mrs. PAUL LEMER being called by LEMER identified himself. According to Mrs. PAUL LEMER, the third call was received about January 3, 1957, when the caller stated that he was going to Florida, and would come to Oxford, Mississippi in February to see Mrs. FULLNER. Mrs. FULLNER further advised that the fourth call received by her was from GUYMOND STEIN (phonetic) inquiring if Mrs. FULLNER planned to accompany her husband to Virginia in the near future. Mrs. FULLNER pointed out that the last call she received was at 4:30 p.m. on January 22, 1957, from STEIN, and Mrs. FULLNER refused to talk to him. She stated that all the calls were prepaid, and made at approximately 4:30 p.m. on each occasion.

Both Mr. and Mrs. FULLNER advised that no threats were made during any of the telephone calls.

The facts of this case were presented to United States Attorney THOMAS A. LETHBRIDGE on January 29,

NY 9-2415

1957, at Oxford Tennessee, and he did not feel that a violation of the extortion statute exists since no demand for money was made, and the caller was apparently attempting to "sell" information to Mrs. FAULKNER.
