On April 4, 1972, the National Park Service of the Department of Interior furnished the following information:

On March 24, 1972, Olav T. Ofstadal, 2223 Wyoming Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), filed a notice of a proposed demonstration to be sponsored by the Ananda Margya Yoga Society. The society was described by Ofstadal as an incorporated association whose address he furnished as 3453 East 12th Street, Wichita, Kansas, 67208, telephone number 316-385-8867.

Ofstadal identified the principal officer of the Society as Achary Yatī Sharananda Avadhuta, the Spiritual Director of the Ananda Margya Yoga Society. His address and phone number was the same as that of the Society which is given above. The demonstration was scheduled for the dates April 14-16, 1972, for the purpose of placing certain unspecified demands before the Indian Embassy. It was stated that the purpose was to bring "attention to our cause". It was estimated by Ofstadal that the demonstration would have 250 participants. They intended to use sound magnification equipment for speakers and musicians. They were also going to display placards and banners and were to engage in collective songs, spiritual chants and silent meditation.

On April 12, 1972, the National Park Service, advised that Ofstadal had called to state that the planned demonstration had been canceled and that no further date had been set. He did say that the decision to cancel the demonstration had been made at an internal meeting held that week at Kansas City, Missouri.

indicated he expected only a few individuals to participate and felt certain that they would not attempt to enter the Consulate.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed a group of individuals, consisting of both men and women assemble on the sidewalk immediately in front of 215 Market Street at approximately 3:00 p.m. on March 18, 1973. These individuals assumed a sitting position on carpets and blankets they had brought with them. There was no chanting and only three or four posters were in evidence. The area where the demonstrators were seated was separated by a fence from the entrance to 215 Market Street. This fence remained following recent construction work that had been accomplished in the area. One or two individuals placed themselves near the doorway of the building and offered passers-by leaflets.

A typical leaflet among those being distributed appears as follows:
FREE

BABA
The entire mankind of this universe constitutes one singular people. The whole humanity is bound in fraternity; those who are apt to remain oblivious of this very simple truth... those who are prone to distort it... are the deadliest enemies of humanity. Today's mankind should identify these foes fully well and build up a healthy human society totally neglecting all obstacles and difficulties.

It must be borne in mind that so long as magnificent, healthy and universalistic human society is not well established, man's culture and civilization, his sacrifice, service, and spiritual endeavor shall not be able to carry any worth whatsoever.

SHRII SHRII ANANDAMURTI
January 1st, 1973
Bankpur Jail
Patna, India
SHRII SHRII ANANDAMURTI
Called BABA By His Followers

Spiritual leader and social reformer, has been imprisoned without bail for the last 14 months on charges of murder and conspiracy. In December the murder charges were dropped. The court battle continues...and still bail is denied.

On February 12th, 1973, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti was poisoned in Bankepur Jail, in Patna, India.

Since then, his doctors have not been allowed to see him.

He teaches that we are all children of God and that we are truly one common humanity of brothers and sisters. He teaches that social and economic oppression have no place on our planet.

His crime is that he dared to speak out.
Immediately before his poisoning, Shirii Shirii Anandamurti was isolated from fellow prisoners and from visitors. When he was allowed visitors, he related the incident of the poisoning and requested that he be allowed to see his personal doctor. This was denied, and no care was given.

His pain is severe, his vision blurred. His physical health even before this incident had deteriorated due to the conditions of the Patna jail. He had received neither proper food nor the opportunity for much-needed exercise. His windowless cell was without a fan throughout the summer, at which time the temperature outside rose as high as 130 degrees.

He has not been allowed to be treated by his physician to this date.

He must be hospitalized immediately and must receive proper medical attention if he is to regain his good health.
IN NEED OF MEDICAL ATTENTION

Shrii Shrii Anandamurti's mission is simply one of love of humanity. He asks his followers to look upon every living creature with an attitude of love and sympathy, and realizing the essential unity of all beings to serve mankind as children of one spirit. His message is similar to that of other great humanists.

He lies poisoned in a jail in India.
If Shrii Shrii Anandamurti preaches only love and brotherhood, why is he being persecuted?

... he opposes intolerance, pettiness, and exploitation
... he has spoken out against abuses of power and money
... his social service has been more effective than many government programs
... his call to morality is reaching many influential persons
... he will not compromise his ideals to the pressure of vested interests
... he will not keep silent to save himself

SERVICE TO SUFFERING HUMANITY
IS SERVICE TO GOD
Shrii Shrii Anandamurti

Throughout the world his followers are actualizing his mission and teaching by various volunteer services:

... hundreds of orphanages, schools, and children’s homes established
... disaster relief to hundreds of thousands in Bangladesh, India, The Philippines, and currently in Nicaragua
... daycare centers
... senior citizen centers
... drug abuse programs

His volunteers are servants to humanity, following his example.
WE, HIS FOLLOWERS, OVER TWO MILLION IN 35 COUNTRIES AND IN EVERY STATE IN AMERICA ASK YOU TO SPEAK OUT WITH THE VOICE OF LOVE AND COMPASSION TO OVERCOME THIS INHUMAN PERSECUTION.

There are various means through which this persecution may be protested. Listed below are the names and addresses of government officials in India to whom you can voice your concern.

Indira Gandhi

Nityanand Kanungo
Office of Governor of Bihar State
Patna, India

D. Prasad Rai

Shrii K. V. Giri

Please bring whatever influence and pressure you may command to this situation.

DEMAND:
... an end to the persecution of Shrii Shrii Anandamurti
... immediate and quality medical attention
... immediate hospitalization if necessary
... release from Bankepur Jail

Do not let his poisoners have another opportunity.

Ananda Marga Yoga Society

The following was received by mail from National Capitol Parks, National Parks Service, United States Department of Interior, on March 16, 1973:

On March 12, 1973, Richard Greenberg, 6913 Granby Street, Bethesda, Maryland, 20034, telephone number 229-5350, filed a "Notice of Proposed Demonstration in Park Area" to be conducted by the Ananda Marga Yoga Society (AMYS) from 3:00 p.m., March 18, 1973, to 6:00 p.m., March 19, 1973, at Dupont Circle, N.W. The purpose of the demonstration was to bring public attention to the persecution of Spiritual Leader P. R. Sarkar in India. Greenberg estimated that five hundred people would participate by the display of fifty placards, fasting and silence except for the singing of a song "We Are One in Spirit". Ten marshals were to be furnished and supervised by Greenberg and one Karen Paquette, 2119 Guilford Road, Hyattsville, Maryland, telephone number 820-2638. Greenberg indicated that he would be in charge of the demonstration and has had one year's experience conducting events for the AMYS.

In filing the above notice, Greenberg furnished the address of AMYS as 3453 East 12th Street, Wichita, Kansas, 67208, and identified Paul Fahnestock of the same address as president of the Society's National Board.

"The Washington Post Times Herald" of March 20, 1973, carried a photograph and an article which indicated that thirty-six people were participating in a twenty-seven hour demonstration in support of their Guru P. R. Sarkar, the founder of the AMYS who had been jailed in India since December, 1971, on a charge of murder. One demonstrator, one Paul Hosch, advised that similar demonstrations and fasts were being held simultaneously in eight other United States cities and sixteen cities in other countries as well as throughout India.

Hosch and Fahnestock, previously mentioned, advised the newspaper representative that Sarkar has a following of twenty thousand people in the United States, all of whom have been recruited since the movement was organized in the United States three years ago.
ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY

Hosch and Fahnestock continued that the teachings of Sarkar, who is called Shrii Shrii Anandamurti by his followers, differs from other Yoga systems primarily by its heavy emphasis on the performance of good works.

According to the newspaper article, the society has a monthly publication called "Sadvipra", the current issue of which described various social service projects being conducted by the society in a number of foreign countries and various parts of the United States.

The Ananda Marga Yoga Society is self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. The Society claims to have 80 branches in the United States.

The Society has engaged in demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, in 1972 and 1973. The demonstrations occurred at the Indian Embassy, Indian Consulate, and the White House. The stated purpose of these demonstrations was to protest the jailing of the Society’s spiritual leader, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti, by the Indian Government in 1971. Anandamurti was arrested by the Indian Government for the murder of six people.

These demonstrations were conducted in a law-abiding and peaceful manner; however, a demonstration at the Indian Embassy on April 25, 1973, resulted in the arrest of two demonstrators by the Executive Protective Service for the “Depositing of Trash in a Public Place.” The demonstrators were attempting to deliver to the Indian Ambassador the ashes of a monk who had immolated himself. In the process, the container of ashes was dropped and broke on the Embassy steps.

In 1973, the Society published a monthly magazine entitled "Sadvipra." It is not known if this magazine is still being published.

By letter dated 10/21/75, the United States Department of State, requested a summary of information from FBI files concerning the captioned group.

Ananda Marga

India Sees Threat in Yoga Sect

Noted for Good Works in U.S.

By Lewis M. Simons
Washington Post Foreign Service

NEW DELHI, April 28—To Americans, the Ananda Marga Yoga Society sounds like its initials—\textit{AM}—Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band. American college kids standing on their heads, eating wheat germ, chanting "om on om.

But in India, Ananda Marga is hard at work in slum areas. Dancers at their hips, their feet jutting in connection with the yon kara of six defects. Here the government—which Ananda Marga views as corrupt and immoral—uses the 90th amendment to cut funding into the government and install its own system of highly disciplined regulations.

Ananda Marga means "Path of Bliss." Eight million people throughout the world have been initiated into the group. In India, they run 490 schools, soup kitchens, bring relief to Bangladesh and spiritual succor to the Soviet.

In the United States, followers teach self respect in black ghettos and in prisons. In Nicaragua, they rebuild houses destroyed by the Managua earthquake, providing food, clothing, jobs.

"Violence and dictatorship are the cornerstones of the Ananda Marga philosophy," says India's home minister, Uma Shankar Dixit. "This is an organization which wants to lead the country to fascism."

The basis of Ananda Marga is spiritualism," says Olaf Otr ek, a young American devotee. "But the distinction between Ananda Marga and other Indian-based spiritual groups in the United States is that we go beyond meditation and singing. We try to help oppressed people. We're activists."

Otr ek, 25, came to India last year as a "public relations coordinator" working for the release of the founder and head of Ananda Marga, Prabhakt Ranganath Shankar, known to his followers as "Shankarshankarshana."
Neither the prime minister nor the president responded. The immolation took place late on the night of 29th May. It was carried out secretly and in secrecy from the police, but not from the news media.

News coverage was extremely important to Ananda Marga. Oftedal and his Indian public relations counterpart, Acharya Nir- mahandananda, carried live transmissions from press headquarters and background information and clippings.

Before last week's demonstration concluded, it evolved into what Indians—past masters of every form of protest—term “causing arrest.” A few hundred demonstrators, wearing symbols of their beliefs, broke police cordons and were shot into waiting vans. But not before the police disarmed tear gas canisters and cracked some heads with bamboo sticks.

“Look, look. You gentlemen of the press have seen this kind of brutality,” cried Nirmahandananda. “You, Mr. Lal, you have seen their vicious, mad dog attacks. Tell the world how we are persecuted!”

The next day, Tuesday, Swadhinabandhula Lal, a Columbia Broadcasting System cameraman, tried to tell the world. Accompanied by Patria Dutta, a young French woman who works as a sound technician, Lal filmed the immolation. Lal’s film and some still pictures taken by a photographer hired by Ananda Marga are the only complete records of the burning.

Rana, one of a large number of middle-class and wealthy Indians who are attracted to Ananda Marga’s potent anti-Communist philosophy, has also drawn a high proportion of senior government officials, enough to cause the government to attempt outlawing Ananda Marga and, failing that, banning membership for civil servants.

Rumors are circulating widely in Delhi that officials with access to government funds have helped finance Ananda Marga. According to the organization, finance comes from assessment of members—they must donate two percent of their income—and “private contributions.”

Friday in Parliament, a member of the ruling Congress party claimed that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency was behind the organization. The charge was carried on the front page of The Patriot, the daily newspaper published by the Communist Party of India.
Certainly the group is well-organized. Located behind the New Delhi headquarters is the Ananda Press Plant, a printing firm owned by the organization. Another press is operated in Patna, Bihar, the group's headquarters.

According to O'Neil, Ananda Marga owns "dozens" of other printing plants throughout India.

"We believe that literacy and information are important in educating the lower classes about the corruption and immorality of the Indian government," he said. The presses churn out dozens, if not hundreds, of different leaflets, circulars, pamphlets and newspapers. At the moment, most of them stress the alleged persecution of Sarkar and the claim that Indian intelligence officers poisoned him in his cell.

According to several of these publications, Sarkar has been so maligned—confined to a cell without food, water, and medical attention—that he has been forced to go on a fast for a month. The report claims he has retracted some of his accusations and at one time had a single member of Parliament in support.

Just as the Communist and Congress Parties, which have operated as allies the last few years, are leading the current attacks on Ananda Marga, its greatest support comes from the right-wing, proliftrana Jana Sangh Party.

In the last few days, several government officials have drawn comparisons between Ananda Marga and Jana Sangh's parent organization, Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (National Service Organization). RSS, as it is widely known, was founded some 25 years ago, around the time India won its independence from Britain. It is a broad-based, tifically disciplined Vaisnava-style organization which draws its uniformed university student members in self-defense and the use of weapons.

A founder of both Jana Sangh and RSS, Shri Ram Prasad Chaurasia, died in 1963 in a Kashmir prison where, his followers claimed, he was poisoned to death.

Ananda Marga, according to Home Minister Dutt, is "much worse than RSS."

"How bad is it? Even if it has 250,000 members in India—which it claims—but which is most unlikely—does it constitute a threat to the government? The answer, given by both the government and Ananda Marga, are yes and no.

The organization espouses a philosophy of "socio-economic-political-religious revolution" which it calls the "progressive-utilization theory." The Stalin-like twisted logic has run candidates in Central and Bihar state governments and at one time had a single member of Parliament in support.

Ananda Marga literature admits that much of Sarkar's teachings are "unfashionable" and that they require, at least, "a sustained effort and a highly developed intellect."

Nevertheless, in trying to capitalize on the ordinary man, one pamphlet says "it stands for guaranteeing minimum essentials of life to each and every individual. The essentials should go on increasing progressively with growing economy and growing wealth."

According to a New Delhi newspaperman who is active in Ananda Marga, the theory is of immediate importance and applicability to India, "where the government is widely known to be corrupt and immoral and is actively courting the Communists."

O'Neil adds that it is also of immediate use in certain countries of Latin America and in the Philippines, where Ananda Marga claims to be particularly active. (A group spokesman in Manila said on Friday that a "sacrificial death" by immolation was planned there.)

"Pratap is not applicable at this moment in the United States," O'Neil says.

In a 35-page appeal to Amnesty International, the group said, "clearly the CBI (Central Bureau of Investigation) and the government seem to be haunted by the fear of being thrown out of power by the repressive moral and spiritual force of Sarkar and Ananda Marga."

"Nontence," says Minister of State for Home Affairs, Ram Nivas Mirtha. "They are merely a gang of extremists and criminals and that is the way we are treating them. Sarkar is being treated the same as any other person charged with a murder conspiracy charge. No worse and no better."

For every Ananda Marga claim of pressure tactics, persecution, illegal detention and maltreatment, Mirtha has a logical and legal argument.
"The pressure they are feeling is, because they are at loose ends without their leader. This shows how much of a dictator he is. His word is law to them.

"We are certainly not persecuting them. We classify them somewhere between a crank case and dangerous criminals. But we do not worry unduly about them.

"Sarkar is not being detained illegally. A magistrate has committed the case to the Bihar sessions court. The group has been allowed an extraordinary appeal to the Federal Supreme Court. This is pending. Bail has not been allowed because the Bihar court fears Sarkar will tamper with the evidence."

Maltreatment? Mindha referred to a statement made by the Bihar government after Sarkar claimed he was punished on Feb. 12. The government said he was examined by a state physician and a cardiologist who found only that his blood pressure was "a little high" and that a claim of blindness turned out to be conjunctivitis. "for which drops and ointment were prescribed."

Yet, despite this cool logic, the answers do not quite reply to the questions. A foreign journalist who asked Mindha if he could be given permission to visit Sarkar in jail was refused. "It is against the regulations" he said.

SUBJECT: ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY

OO: San Francisco

Re Los Angeles letter and LHM to Bureau, dated 2/11/76, captioned "ANANDA MARGI, aka, IS - INDIA, OO: Los Angeles."

Enclosed for Los Angeles is one copy each of San Francisco LHM captioned "DEMONSTRATION SPONSORED BY ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY AT CONSULATE GENERAL OF INDIA, 215 Market Street, San Francisco, California," and WFO LHM captioned "ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY," both dated 3/29/73.

The above described LHMs are being enclosed for Los Angeles to provide background information regarding captioned group.

Investigation regarding captioned organization in the past has failed to develop any information indicating the group or any of its members advocated violence. Investigation to date has been conducted under the caption "Demonstration Sponsored by Ananda Marga Yoga Society at Consulate General of India, 215 Market Street, San Francisco, California, IS - INDIA."

In view of the allegation presented in referenced Los Angeles LHM indicating that the Ananda Marga Yoga Society (AMYS) may engage in violent activities, San Francisco is initiating captioned investigation.

RESTIet dated 3/17/76 captioned as above.

FBINHQ does not believe that a sufficient basis has been established to conduct investigation of captioned organization and San Francisco should therefore close its investigation of Ananda Marga at this time.

For the information of San Francisco, Ananda Marga Yoga Society has been self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. While there have been conflicting reports as to the exact nature of captioned organization abroad, some describing it as a legitimate religious organization and others as being involved in terrorist activities, this group is not known to have ever engaged in any illegal type activity within the United States.

The fact that has been alleged to advocate violence is not a sufficient basis for opening an investigation of captioned organization. If San Francisco during its investigation develops information which warrants reconsideration concerning investigation of captioned organization, this information should be furnished to FBINHQ.

I have worked in the defense industry over 25 years. To that time I have held secret clearances. At the present time I am doing unclassified work and my clearance status is inactive. I anticipate changing jobs soon and in the new work I will need a high level clearance.

I wish to know if my wife's peripheral association with the Ananda Marga Society will have a negative affect on my clearance. I have tried to point out to my wife that the Ananda Marga Society is a commie group they peddle a sweetness & light yoga philosophy as the truth. Their leader is in jail in India. His writings on political subjects span: renunciation of wealth, one world, one police force, one law. The Ananda Marga Society in the U.S.A. takes case from India. I have enclosed awhite which they print.

Please give me an opinion as to the affect my wife's peripheral association with the above group has on my current request for a new secret clearance.

If you have information on the society which could help convince my wife that they are a menace I may I make benefit of that knowledge. This can be in the form of a letter, an article or a meeting by FBI for instance.

"Struggle is the essence of life. Yours should be a ceaseless struggle against corruption, hypocrisy, and animalism," wrote Shri Shrii Anandamurti to his disciples on New Year's Day, 1960.

Then his words seemed only inspirational rhetoric. Now Anandamurti and his disciples are fighting for their lives. In 1960, Ananda Marga, the organization founded by Anandamurti, was barely five years old and just beginning to exert its moral and spiritual influence on Indian society. Today it is bearing the full force of Indira Gandhi's repressive attack on civil liberties and dissent. Anandamurti himself has been imprisoned for over four years; for the past three years he has been on a liquid fast in protest against the mistreatment he has undergone in jail, including an attempted poisoning.

Ananda Marga formed

Eight years after India's independence, in 1953, Anandamurti (then known by his given name, Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar) gathered together several of his personal disciples and formed an organization to propagate Ananda Marga (the Path of Bliss), a synthesis of traditional Tantric and yogic practices with a carefully planned program of service and social reform. By the early 1960s the organization was large enough to support full-time workers, and it formed an order of renunciates, who spread all over India, initiating others and founding schools, children's homes, and relief teams. The motto of the Margis (as the members of Ananda Marga came to be called) was "Liberation for the Self and Service to the World."

The goal of Ananda Marga's service work was not simply to fill minds and bellies, and to bandage wounds but to engender a dynamic, spiritual society. It gave out inspiration and hope along with bread and milk—"You are the child of a great Father, the whole universe is your home, you have every right to use it to the fullest." It raised expectations and offered a means for realizing them.

Dealing with poverty

The effectiveness of ERAMS (the Education, Relief, and Welfare Section of Ananda Marga) in dealing with the problems of poverty and disaster greatly contributed to the growth of Ananda Marga and gave it a base among the common people. In a village that had been struck by an earthquake, Ananda Marga workers were on the scene first and before the tremors had subsided a well was dug while other agencies had a clearer idea of what had happened. The villagers were thoroughly impressed by the promptness and efficiency of the relief that they joined Ananda Marga en masse.

In another village, the Margis performed a different kind of service. A band of thugs who styled themselves as communists were extorting protection money from shopkeepers in the local market. Members of Ananda Marga visited all the shops, saw and persuaded them to resist the extortion. The next time the "communists" came to collect, the people refused to pay. Returning this right to destroy the shops, the thugs found the mark was well defended by the organized shopkeepers. They were forced to end their harassment.

In just eight years (1963-71), ERAMS founded 250 primary and secondary schools. At the height of its popularity, Ananda Marga had two million members, many of them intellectuals and government officials dissatisfied with India's slow growth and pervasive corruption. The Congress Party's newspaper, Current, reported that half the police
In 1969 the government tried, unsuccessfully, to ban all government employees from membership in Ananda Marga, which, it was feared, was itself a political organization, where its opponents were taking more active action. Ananda Nargis, the Ananda Marga headquarters, located on a large tract of land in rural West Bengal, had a children's home, primary school, liberal arts and technical colleges, a leper's home and a medical clinic, as well as an ashram and printing press, whose programs gave it a strong local influence and local officials' support for its own interests. In 1967, the government imposed a number of legal restrictions and harassment on Ananda Marga, forbidding the gathering of a mob which blocked the headquarters and killed five uninvited workers on March 5, 1967, while the vice stood by. After several years of legal wrangling, nine of these local officials were convicted and given sentences ranging from three years to life imprisonment, while none of the sixty-five charges brought against the organization held up in court. In July 1975, Amandamuri was ransacked and all the workers and students either fled or were arrested.

Despite his quiet demeanor, there was no denying the powerful effect Anandamuri had on other people, and in 1971 Ananda Marga's leaders singled him out for attack. This group of enemies was not composed solely of corrupt officials and wily politicians. Conservative Hindus reacted against Anandamuri's program to abolish the caste system, promote business and landowners felt threatened by his socialistic ideals, and, most importantly, communists feared his Soviet press and power, and it was not adverse to converting his work to the struggle to suppress Ananda Marga. Anandamuri has accused the Soviet KGB of organizing much of the anti-Ananda Marga activity, recently, the Soviet press carried articles denouncing Ananda Marga and calling for its abolition not only in India, but throughout the world.

Serious harassment of Anandamuri began in June 1971. After he had moved the Ananda Marga headquarters from Ranchi to Patna, the vacated headquarters building in Ranchi was searched by the police and nothing was found. Shortly after, the vacated building was searched again and a large cache of ammunition and explosives was allegedly found. Anandamuri was arrested in Patna and released on bail six weeks later.

Also arrested in the Ranchi incident was a monk known as Madhavananda who, sometime later confessed to having murdered a number of displaced workers of Ananda Marga. Madhavananda received a government pardon for implicating Anandamuri as the head of this murder conspiracy. In December 1971, Anandamuri was arrested on these charges.

From the beginning, Anandamuri and his co-defendants have maintained that the charges are fabricated and the case itself is politically motivated. The judge who originally committed the case to trial did so with major reservations, citing "defects" on "every material point" of Madhavananda's testimony and the lack of corroborative evidence. Meanwhile, Mrs. Gandhi, at total variance with the committing court's findings, made a prejudicial statement to a Canadian Member of Parliament declaring that there was "overwhelming suspicion" of Anandamuri's guilt.

The Canadian's inquiry was written during a flurry of protest which followed the alleged poisoning of Anandamuri by the political leaders in February, 1973. Despite massive popular protests and official inquiries from abroad, the government refused to investigate the incident. Anandamuri therefore started a protest fast on April 1, 1973.

He was still fasting in June, 1975, when Mrs. Gandhi declared a "State of emergency" throughout India, claiming that internal and external forces were conspiring to topple her government. The real reason, however, was obvious. Mrs. Gandhi's ruling Congress Party, despite its most determined efforts, had suffered a defeat in the state elections in India's westernmost state. This was seen as a barometer for the national elections to be held in the spring of 1976. News of the Gujarat defeat was followed immediately by another blow — on June 12, the High Court at Allahabad found Mrs. Gandhi guilty on two counts of electoral corruption, stemming from her election to the lower house of Parliament in 1971.

The Allahabad decision, if upheld by the Supreme Court, would cost Mrs. Gandhi her Prime Ministry. Before the Supreme Court had a chance to decide, Mrs. Gandhi lodged an appeal against her conviction. She ordered massive arrests of her opponents and clamped a censorship on the press that was harsher than any imposed during India's wars.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Gandhi assumed essentially dictatorial powers. A week later she banned twenty-six organizations, including Ananda Marga.

Under this ban, all members of Ananda Marga were subject to arrest and indefinite detention without formal charges, with the probability of torture and the invitation to admit or implicate others in various political crimes. Several Margis have recently been charged with the 1974 bombing that killed railway minister L. N. Mishra. Once again, despite the strong evidence to the contrary, Mrs. Gandhi has personally proclaimed the Margis guilty before the trial has even begun.

All Ananda Marga activities and meetings are forbidden, and all properties have been confiscated. According to Indian sources, 95 percent of Ananda Marga monks and nuns have been arrested, along with nearly 90 percent of the lay members. Those full-time workers who escaped arrest have forsaken their orange robes, cut their hair and beards, and tried to return to normal life in order to avoid detection. They face a new life in a country plagued by chronic unemployment and critically scarce commodities.

According to The Washington Post of March 5, 1976, there are still over 150,000 victims of Mrs. Gandhi's summer crackdown in the Indian jails. Officials of Amnesty International and other groups closely following the prisoner situation say that neither may be as high as 200,000. The crush on the press has tightened, and the national elections scheduled for early 1976 have been postponed for a year. Anandamuri, one of the first to be arrested and sentenced, is being held at the current administration, entering the fourth year of his protest fast. He faces a possible death sentence if convicted. Ananda Marga members throughout the world are attempting to focus international attention on this situation in the hope that the trial may be brought to a just conclusion.

NOTE: The Ananda Marga (AM) is basically a religious organization concerned with social services and peaceful social reform. It was founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, who is imprisoned in India for conspiring in the murder of some former followers who defected from AM. Recently, there have been several attacks directed at Indian establishments and citizens within the United States. A group, United Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF), which alleges to be a front organization for AM, has claimed responsibility for these attacks. The FBI does not have a separate FCI investigation on AM or UPRF, but we do have two PFO investigations as a result of UPRF attacks.

SUBJECT: UNKNOWN SUBJECT; STABBING OF SILLA KOTESWAR, ATTACHÉ, EMBASSY OF INDIA, EMBASSY ANNEX, 2536 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE, N.W., WASHINGTON, D.C. 11/28/77; PFO - ASSAULT - CRIMINAL

Ananda Marga

PURPOSE: To advise regarding the progress in the investigation of captioned matter.

RECOMMENDATION: None. For information.

APPROVED:

DETAILS: You were previously advised that Silla Koteswar, an Indian Embassy, was stabbed on 11/28/77.

By teletype dated 11/29/77, our Washington Field Office (WFO) advised that at approximately 6:45 p.m., 11/28/77, Silla Koteswar, Attache, Indian Embassy, was stabbed by an unknown assailant outside the Embassy Annex, 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. An Embassy security guard, after removing two knives from Mr. Koteswar, reported the incident to the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), who responded and commenced investigation. Initial investigation by MPD failed to develop witnesses or suspects.

Memorandum to [redacted]
Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
STABBING OF SILLA KOTESWAR;
ATTACHE, EMBASSY OF INDIA, EMBASSY ANNEX

Mr. Koteswar was transported to the George Washington University Hospital, Washington, D.C., where he underwent immediate surgery. He remains in serious but stable condition following surgery.

Our WFO Agents will recontact this date, 11/30/77, for additional details.

Weapons utilized in the attack on Mr. Koteswar were two hunting knives. Laboratory examinations for blood or any other evidence are continuing. Neighborhood investigation conducted by WFO with negative results.

To date, no individual or organization has claimed credit for this assault, but it is the opinion of [redacted], that this incident was an act of political terrorism perpetrated by the Ananda Marga (AM) or its front organization, the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF). The AM is basically a religious organization concerned with social services and peaceful social reform. It was founded in India by Prabhat Ranjan Sarkar, who is imprisoned in India for conspiring in the murders of several former followers who defected from AM.

On 11/29/77, WFO interviewed [redacted], member of the AM acting in a public relations capacity, and [redacted] denied that AM is involved in terrorist activities and advised the UPRF is a separate organization from AM, but is connected by a common founder, Sarkar, and by the fact they have a somewhat overlapping membership.

On 11/25/77, WFO Agents interviewed [redacted] advised that because of the number of violent acts
Memorandum to
Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
STABBING OF SILLA KOTESWAR,

perpetrated around the world and more specifically, in the United States, by a group calling themselves the UPRF, the AM has been somehow linked with the UPRF and accused of these violent actions. The AM organization denies any connection with these violent acts and indicated that condemnations of the acts have been made publicly at all levels of the organization and that AM Headquarters, Denver, Colorado, has contacted the Denver FBI regarding this. Advised AM has been in contact with USDS, U. S. Secret Service and the Indian Government regarding AM’s concern in this matter. He offered his and his organization’s fullest cooperation to ensure that the individual or individuals responsible for the acts of violence claimed by the UPRF are identified and punished.

We are investigating each of these incidents in addition to the captioned matter, and you will be kept advised of pertinent developments. At this time, all of these investigations are being handled as criminal investigations under the PFO Statute, and no separate foreign counterintelligence investigation regarding AM or UPRF has been instituted.

NOTE: The AM is basically a religious organization concerned with social services and peaceful social reform. It was founded in India by P. R. Recently, there have been attacks directed at Indian establishments and citizens within the United States and UPRF has claimed responsibility for these attacks. UPRF alleges to be a front organization of AM. However, AM leaders vehemently deny any affiliation with UPRF or any of the attacks claimed by UPRF. AM is headquartered in the United States in Denver, Colorado, and AM leaders in Denver and other U. Los Angeles, New York and WFO should submit, under individual incident caption, a succinct summary of the terrorists acts claimed by the alleged Ananda Marga front organization, Universal Frutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF).

Tokyo will be advised separately concerning acts of terrorism committed by the UPRF within the U. S. The UPRF is allegedly a front organization of the Ananda Marga. For Tokyo’s additional information, the Ananda Marga and the UPRF are not subjects of separate Domestic Security or Foreign Counterintelligence investigations. The investigations concerning the acts of terrorism allegedly committed by the UPRF within the U.S. are being handled as Protection of Foreign Officials and Neutrality Act matters.

NOTE: The Ananda Marga is basically a religious organization concerned with social services and peaceful social reform. It was founded in India by P. R. Sarkar, who is imprisoned in India for conspiring in the murders of several former followers who defected from the Ananda Marga. Recently, there have been attacks directed at Indian establishments and citizens within the U.S. and the UPRF has claimed credit for these attacks.

At approximately 6:45 p.m., November 28, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Attaché assigned to the Indian Embassy, was stabbed by an unknown assailant outside the Indian Embassy Annex, 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC). An Embassy security guard removed two knives from Koteswar's back and Koteswar was transported to the George Washington University Hospital, where he underwent successful surgery. Investigation by the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), WDC, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), at the Indian Embassy Annex after the stabbing reflected no information relating to the individual responsible for the assault on Koteswar.

On November 28, 1977, the Indian Embassy, WDC, received a threatening letter signed by the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF), North American Command, United States Division, which demanded the unconditional release of P.R. Sarkar and stated that if this was not done "blood is on your hands." {$\%$}

On December 1, 1977, I received a letter addressed to Morari Bapuji, Prime Minister of India, advising that the UPRF was taking credit for the stabbing of Koteswar and signed UPRF, United States Division, North American Command. The letter stated, "The Universal Proutist {$\%$}

REVOLUTIONARY FEDERATION again had to take action because you did not meet our demands. UPRF demands the immediate and unconditional release of political prisoner P.R. Sarkar. Now you can see that the attack on the Government worker in Washington was done by the UPRF. One Government worker or airlines worker will die for every two weeks that P.R. Sarkar remains in jail. We have been reading the India Airlines mail. We know about your plan to identify the supporters of the seven activist groups you have named, including the Jarsinighe Party and the Socialist Party of India, and to sell their tickets and then they arrive in India, not to let them into the country. You Moraji Dasai, and your Government are corrupt. You are trying to decide the people of India, but it will not work. Release P.R. Sarkar, the founder of Prout and the one man who really cares about the welfare of the people of India; until you do, more Indians will die. Their blood is on your hands.

On December 1, 1977, I was advised that the AM is a volunteer organization which teaches meditation and performs community service functions, and that Proutist Universal is the social philosophy of P.R. Sarkar. I was advised that some individuals in the AM espouse Proutist philosophy, but generally the membership does not, and that he could provide no information regarding the stabbing of Koteswar.

CONFIDENTIAL
DISILLUSIONED WITH THE BUREAUCRACY, she began drinking alcohol and began using some drugs. During this period she met a source from Amana Morca who introduced her to the organization and taught her to meditate.

During her involvement with Amana Morca (AM) increased. She quit her job to become a maharim (phonetic), which is a novitiate with AM. She stayed in various AM residences around the country.
She meditated three times a day, one or two hours at a time, during this period.

During this period she seemed to be very secretive, she was a "revolutionist," and had never been happier.

She was not doing anything harmful, since she did not approve of that.
She got her passport under a false name in order to travel to India. She would not be let into India under her own name, since she would be known as an American member.

   (PRELIMINARY INQUIRY INITIATED 5/12/78)

The North American headquarters of the Anand Marg is in Denver, Colorado, therefore, Denver is being designated office of origin in this matter. Recent investigative activity by the FBI in connection with captioned organization and its membership has been conducted primarily under the Act for Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the U.S. and in Foreign Police Cooperation matters. Following is a summary of activities committed or claimed by the Anand Marg, its cover or splinter groups, or members. This summary is not intended to be all-inclusive.

Activity in the U.S.

1. On 10/20/77, a brick and fire bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office at 400 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

Re: Anand Marg, aka

2. On 11/11/77, an employee of the Air India office in Los Angeles, California was assaulted with a knife by an unidentified female.

3. On 11/23/77, Silla Koteswar, Attaché, Embassy of India, Washington, D.C., was stabbed.

Activity Outside the U.S.

7. On 11/19/77, a flaming Molotov cocktail was thrown through the window of the Indian High Commission in Ottawa, Canada.

9. On 2/7/78, two U.S. citizens were arrested and charged with the stabbing of the personal secretary to the Charge of the Embassy of India, in Manila, Philippines.
Receiving offices are to conduct a preliminary investigation of the captioned organization in accordance with the Attorney General's Guidelines for FBI Foreign Counterintelligence Investigations. This investigation should be directed to determine if the Anand Marg is engaged in terrorist activities pursuant to the direction of a foreign power, as defined in the Attorney General's Guidelines. This investigation should identify Anand Marg chapters and leadership as well as violence-prone members.

The following characterization may be used until a more complete characterization is provided by Denver for FBIHQ approval:

The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anadmuti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), is imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from Anand Marg. The Anand Marg and its splinter groups, i.e., Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation, etc., have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader Sarkar, and social revolution in India.

Auxiliary offices should report results of their preliminary inquiry in this matter to Denver within 90 days of this communication. This reporting deadline will allow Denver time to prepare a comprehensive summary LHM in accordance with the Attorney General's Guidelines for FBI Foreign Counterintelligence Investigations within 120 days of the date of this communication. This LHM will be submitted to the Investigative Review Unit, Department of Justice, to determine if there is basis for a full investigation of the Anand Marg as a foreign based terrorist group.

NOTE:

Two Americans Get Prison Terms for Attack in Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Two Americans were sentenced yesterday to 10 to 17 years in prison for the attempted murder of an Indian Embassy official. They said they were innocent and would appeal.

Steven Michael Dwyer, 28, of Wichita, Kan., and Victoria Sheppard, 31, of Maryland, also were ordered to pay the victim, Jyoti Sarup Vaid, $13,333 plus the cost of the three-month trial.

Vaid was stabbed Feb. 7 by three assailants. During the trial, the accused admitted they were at the scene but denied any part in the stabbing. They said they were there because they wanted to get visas to enter India.

Both belong to Ananda Marga, an Indian religious sect whose leader is jailed in India on murder charges. Other members of the sect have been arrested elsewhere for attacking Indian officials and property to protest the arrest of the Ananda Marga leader.

Judge Onofre Villaluz ordered the Defense Department and the Philippine constabulary to investigate members of Ananda Marga, which claims a following of 50,000 in the Philippines, as possible "security risks."

Villaluz called the group a "international terrorist organization with "diabolical ends."

I. ORGANIZATIONAL DATA

A. Aims and Purposes that Anand Marg (AM) was founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, as a peaceful, religious, social service organization, and AM's goals are meditation and social programs.

ANAND MARG
(See Appendix)

B. Headquarters

that AM is an international organization founded in India, and it has headquarters offices in various countries of the world, including the United States. The national headquarters of AM in the United States is located in a house at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and in addition, AM has various regional offices in this country. Also in the United States, there are approximately 80 AM units or chapters.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
C. Leadership

It is indicated that the world leader of AM is Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, who originally founded AM, but he is currently in jail in India.

In the United States, AM has various national officers or positions and all of the people holding these positions are reportedly in Denver. These positions are:

<thead>
<tr>

<th>Duties</th>
<th>Person Holding Position</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

<td>Handles all the national paperwork of running AM in North America.</td>

</tr>

<td>Unknown</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The AM Southern Regional Leader is a man named Davadatta, a German, age about 28, who operates out of Raleigh, North Carolina, and he travels about the South as a teacher for AM.

The local units have officers in the same categories as the national officers, namely a Unit Secretary who is the general coordinator for the local AM unit; the Dharma Pracar Secretary, who is responsible for public relations and classes of the unit; the Eraws Secretary, who handles education, relief, and welfare; and the Rawa, who is responsible for the Renaissance Artists and Writers Association.
To become an officer in AM, a person has to show considerable interest in the group, work hard for the group, and then be selected or recruited, which is usually done by the AM sectorial secretary.

D. Membership

would estimate that AM nationally has about 500-1000 members.

E. Publications

mentioned that AM nationally publishes a monthly newspaper called "Crimson Dawn", which has an 8½" x 11" format, consisting of about 32 pages or so, and it contains articles dealing with AM meditation, inspiration, and AM projects.

In most areas, the AM people live communally and the members go out to work.
III. CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

AM is not connected with any other organizations either in the United States or throughout the world. AM was founded in India by its leader Sarkar who also founded the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Foundation (UPRF) or Proutists, but AM and UPRF are totally separate groups. UPRF is a political organization based on spiritual values, whereas AM is not political. Both groups have offices and members but are totally separate from each other, and individuals in the UPRF are told to stay out of AM.

IV. ACTIVITIES
ANAND MARG

That approximately twice a year, AM holds a national seminar in various cities in the United States, the last being in Pueblo, Colorado.
These usually last about a week and are strictly religious,
with collective meditation, philosophy, etc.

V. TERRORISM

I have never heard anyone ever mention that any AM people take part in any terrorist activities or that AM condones such acts. I had no knowledge of any terrorist activities on the part of any individuals, either locally or nationally, connected with AM or the UPRF.
APPENDIX

Anand Marg (AM), also known as Ananda Marga (AM),
Ananda Marga Yogi Society (AMYS),
Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF)

The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Adrmurti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (Father) is imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from AM. The AM and its splinter groups, i.e., Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF), etc., have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader, Sarkar, and social revolution in India.

During an interview with the Los Angeles Times
Newspaper Religion Reporter Russell Chandler, Allen Thurm
furnished the following concerning his affiliation with AM:

"It is also an international socio-political movement propagating spiritual philosophy and practices based on ancient Indian meditation and yoga techniques.

"Founded in India in 1955, the first orange-robed Ananda Marga teachers journeyed to the Philippines 13 years later, then on to Palo Alto in 1970.

"Today there are "ashrams," or units, in major cities (including Los Angeles) in all 50 states as well as in about 45 other countries.

"'The appeal of Ananda Marga is that people in it live by example--they don't just talk about it,' explained Allen Thurm, 28, who, with his wife, Karol, 29, head the local unit headquartered in a large house at 1245 S. Norton Ave. in the Crenshaw district.

"The leader of Ananda Marga in the United States, Dadaji Yatiishvarananda, is headquartered in Denver, and there are perhaps six or seven full-time teachers in this country, Thurm said.

"'We're not a fanatical organization, and we don't feel we're the only path,' declared Thurm, a thin, bearded man, who, following Ananda Marga custom, eats a vegetarian diet.
"Ananda Marga followers--there are an estimated 75,000 initiated members in the U.S.--believe in reincarnation and karma, the Eastern concept of retribution through cause and effect in successive lives.

"The Los Angeles unit is involved in free food distribution to the needy; literacy training; help for orphans, the retarded and disturbed individuals, and the teaching of 'alternate systems of government and economics.'

"Ananda Marga's Golden Lotus shampoo, sold in health food stores, beauty and barber shops, produces profits used in social service projects, Thurm said.

"In the United States most Ananda Marga followers are Caucasians of middle and upper income, according to the Thurms. The young couple, who live in Eagle Rock, are graduates of local colleges and both teach the trainable mentally retarded in the Los Angeles City school system." (U) members, were conducted by Special Agents of the FBI in Los Angeles, California.

related that AM is a socio-spiritual organization, whose objective is to relieve human suffering and promote the teachings of P. R. Sarkar. Both denied that any AM members participated in any acts of violence, and advised that for AM members to do so would be contrary to the teachings and principals of AM.

stated that the founder of AM, P. R. Sarkar, is unjustly jailed in India and that AM desires his immediate release, however, AM would never condone violence to achieve his release.

On July 27, 1978, AM of Los Angeles sponsored and conducted a demonstration in front of the building housing the Government of India Tourist Office, 3550 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. The demonstrating group was composed of four females and six males, led by Jesse Kramer. The demonstration consisted of the group marching in a circle carrying signs which demanded the release of P. R. Sarkar, chanting, playing small drums, tambourines, and guitars. Various members of this group handed out a printed letter captioned, "Political Prisoner Held After Acquittal". The demonstration lasted approximately one hour and involved no disruption of any activities of the Government of India Tourist Office or activities of the general public. Three AM members who signed a register as Jesse Kramer, Loneita Pitkin, and Deborah Hight were permitted to enter the aforementioned address and were escorted to the Government of India Tourist Office suite. These AM members created no disturbance and were subsequently escorted from the building. On July 26, 1978, the Government of India Tourist Office, Los Angeles, California, received a copy of a "News Release" which was sent through the United States Mail by Loneita Pitkin. On Thursday, July 27 at 9:00 A.M., members of Ananda Marga plan to hold a march and rally to protest the continued imprisonment of the social service organization's founder, P. R. Sarkar. The event will begin at the Ananda Marga Family Unity Center, a community project on child abuse, and will proceed to the India Tourist Office at 3550 Wilshire Boulevard. There will be public information sharing and live music.

"P. R. Sarkar was acquitted on July 4th of politically inspired charges in Patna, India. The acquittal came when a state High Court reversed a conviction which had occurred after a stormy trial during Indira Gandhi's state of emergency. The trial of Mr. Sarkar and four aides has embroiled India's social and political structure in one of the greatest controversies in its history. Observers reported clear instances of false testimony and fraudulently obtained evidence. Only after Indira Gandhi was replaced by the current Janata government was it possible to secure the appeal hearing which led to the acquittal.

"Mr. Sarkar had been imprisoned since 1971, and during that time was on a protest fast, taking only liquids. He is a prolific writer with over twenty books in a dozen languages covering diverse topics in spiritual and social areas. While in prison he was awarded the coveted Rosa de Oro Humanitarian Award from the people of Italy.

"Note: This is to inform you of our march and rally. We plan to be very peaceful and orderly, so please do not be alarmed. We have chosen your office due to its proximity to us and its significance in relation to India. This is not intended to be threatening to you in any way.

"Sincerely, Loneita Pitkin"

On April 4, 1972, the National Park Service of the Department of Interior furnished the following information:

On March 24, 1972, Olav T. Oftedal, 2203 Wyoming Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., filed a notice of a proposed demonstration to be sponsored by the Ananda Marga Yoga Society. The society was described by Oftedal as an incorporated association whose address he furnished as 3453 East 12th Street, Wichita, Kansas, 67208, telephone number 316-685-8667.

Oftedal identified the principal officer of the Society as Achary Yatii Shyarananda Avadhuta, the Spiritual Director of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society. His address and phone number was the same as that of the Society which is given above. The demonstration was scheduled for the dates April 14-16, 1972, for the purpose of placing certain unspecified demands before the Indian Embassy. It was stated that the purpose was to bring "attention to our cause." It was estimated by Oftedal that the demonstration would have 250 participants. They intended to use sound magnification equipment for speakers and musicians. They were also going to display placards and banners and were to engage in collective songs, spiritual chants and silent meditation.

On March 12, 1972, the National Park Service advised that Ortedal had called to state that the planned demonstration had been canceled and that no further date had been set. He did say that the decision to cancel the demonstration had been made at an internal meeting held that week in Kansas City, Missouri.

The following was received by mail from the National Capitol Parks, National Parks Service, United States Department of Interior, on March 16, 1973:

On March 12, 1973, Richard Greenberg, 6913 Granby Street, Bethesda, Maryland, 20034, telephone number 229-5350, filed a "Notice of Proposed Demonstration in Park Area" to be conducted by the Ananda Marga Yoga Society (AMYS) from 3:00 p.m., March 18, 1973, to 6:00 p.m., March 19, 1973, at Dupont Circle, N.W. The purpose of the demonstration was to bring public attention to the persecution of spiritual leader P.R. Sarkar in India. Greenberg estimated that five hundred people would participate by the display of fifty placards, fasting and silence except for the singing of one song "We Are One in Spirit." Ten marshals were to be furnished and supervised by Greenberg and Karen Paquette, 2119 Guilford Road, Hyattsville, Maryland, telephone number 820-2638. Greenberg indicated that he would be in charge of the demonstration and has had one year's experience conducting events for the AMYS.

In filing the above notice, Greenberg furnished the address of AMYS as 3453 East 15th Street, Wichita, Kansas, 67208, and identified Paul Fahnstock of the same address as president of the Society's National Board.

"The Washington Post Times Herald" of March 20, 1973, carried a photograph and an article which indicated that thirty-six people were participating in a twenty-seven hour demonstration in support of their Guru P.R. Sarkar, the founder of the AMYS who had been jailed in India since December, 1971, on a charge of murder. One demonstrator, one Paul Hosch, advised that similar demonstrations and fasts were being held simultaneously in eight other United States cities and sixteen cities in other countries as well as throughout India.
ANAND MARG, aka, FT AL

Hosch and Fahnestock, previously mentioned, advised the newspaper representative that Sarkar has a following of twenty thousand people in the United States, all of whom have been recruited since the movement was organized in the United States three years ago.

Hosch and Fahnestock continued that the teachings of Sarkar, who is called Shrii Shrii Anandamurti by his followers, differs from other Yoga systems primarily by its heavy emphasis on the performance of good works.

According to the newspaper article, the society has a monthly publication called "Sadvipra", the current issue of which described various social service projects being conducted by the society in a number of foreign countries and various parts of the United States.

On April 18, 1973, the captioned organization filed a notice of demonstration with the National Capitol Parks of the National Park Service of the United States Department of Interior. The notice, which was filed by Karen Paquette, 3121 Patterson Street, N.W., the sponsor of the demonstration, indicated that the demonstration would take place on April 23, 1973, commencing at 8:30 a.m. at the Peace Monument at First and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. The demonstration would then proceed to Dupont Circle, where a vigil would be kept until 2:30 p.m. The demonstration would then proceed to the vicinity of the residence of the Indian Ambassador on Macomb Street, N.W., and then return to Dupont Circle. The stated purpose of the demonstration was to draw public attention to the persecution in India of a spiritual leader. In literature distributed during the demonstration, the spiritual leader was identified as Shrii Shrii Anandamurti, who in previous activities of the Society had been identified as the Society's spiritual leader P.R. Sarkar.

A representative of the United States Secret Service advised that during the attempt to deliver the ashes at the Indian Embassy, the container of ashes was broken on the embassy steps and two arrests by the Executive Protective Service ensued on charges of "Depositing Trash in a Public Place." Arrested on the above charges were:

Both [redacted] elected to forfeit $10 collateral apiece on the above charges.
Shrii Shrii Anandamurti has been publicly identified as the head of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society and has been charged with conspiracy in the slayings of six of his former disciples. He is in prison in India on that charge.

On July 29, 1975, it was learned from representatives of the United States Capitol Police and the National Capital Parks, National Park Service, that Ananda Marga Justice Committee planned to hold a demonstration in Washington, D.C., on August 15, 1975, to protest the anti-Democratic policies of the Indian government. Participants in the demonstration would gather in the vicinity of the Washington Monument at 8:30 a.m. At approximately 10:00 a.m., they would march up Constitution Avenue to the west front of the United States Capitol, where a rally would feature several speakers and the display of placards. Several members of Congress were invited to speak at the rally, but it was not known at the time how many would attend. Sponsors of the demonstration believed the number of expected participants to be from 2,000 to 30,000. Time of the termination of the rally was listed as both 1:30 and 5:00 p.m.

Local sponsors of the demonstration were identified as Richard J. Gochal and Joni Zweig, 1354 Montague Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20011, phone number 291-7542.

A representative of the United States Capitol Police advised that all activities of the Committee, commencing July 17, 1975, and concluding August 15, 1975, had proceeded without incident. No arrests were made. During the month long vigil on the Capitol steps, participants normally numbered about six with participants increasing to about 200 for the August 15, 1975, march and rally.

Representatives of the United States Park Police and the Metropolitan Police Department advised that activities of the AMJC proceeded without incident in their respective jurisdictions on August 15, 1975. No incidents occurred and no arrests were made.

STABBING OF INDIAN ATTACHE, AT WASHINGTON, D.C.
NOVEMBER 28, 1977
CREDIT CLAIMED BY
UNIVERSAL PROUTIST REVOLUTIONARY FEDERATION
At approximately 6:45 p.m., November 28, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Attache assigned to the Indian Embassy, was stabbed by an unknown assailant outside the Indian Embassy Annex, 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. An Embassy security guard removed two knives from Koteswar's back and Koteswar was transported to the George Washington University Hospital, where he underwent successful surgery. Investigation by the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C., and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), at the Indian Embassy Annex after the stabbing reflected no information relating to the individual responsible for the assault on Koteswar.
On November 29, 1977, [redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at the Washington Field Office (WFO), 1900 Half Street, S.W., WDC. He furnished the following information:

According to [redacted], Ananda Marga is a volunteer organization which teaches meditation and performs community service functions. The size of the organization in the United States is gauged by activity. [redacted] estimates around 5,000 individuals are considered active. The purpose of Ananda Marga is twofold: 1) personal development through meditation and 2) social services. The social services involve permanent projects which consist of pre-schools for children and halfway houses, and individual projects such as food for the needy and general membership projects such as disaster action teams.

Informed the Agents that the Proutist Universal is the social philosophy of P.R. SARKAR. There are some in Ananda Marga who espouse the proutist philosophy, but generally the membership does not. One RICHARD GOCHAL of Santa Cruz, California, is the national proutist leader.

Ananda Marga receives most of its funds by voluntary contributions through its membership. It does, however, receive some Federal monies in the form of CETA grants for its permanent projects. Donations from the membership are proportioned with certain percentages forwarded to the sector offices. Ananda Marga receives no funds from any Indian sources.
Regarding the trial of P.R. SARKAR, Ananda Marga sent W.T. WELLS from England to observe the trial. WELLS is an attorney and Ananda Marga helped pay his expenses. Also sent were CLAUDE-ARMAND SHEPPARD, who was commissioned by the International Commission of Jurists in Geneva and International Human Rights Committee of New York. SHEPPARD appeared before the Committee on International Relations, Sub-Committee on International Organizations, Congress of the United States. [REDACTED] provided a copy of that testimony.

According to [REDACTED], the trial hinged on the testimony of one witness, a man named MONTLVANANDA, who had been associated with the SARKAR movement and defected. [REDACTED] stated the trial was a wholesale travesty of justice and an engineered frame-up of SARKAR.

When asked why the Indian Government was so interested in the Ananda Marga Movement, [REDACTED] replied that the movement had been attracting a number of the young communists in India and the pro-communist forces in India were concerned with the movement's growth among the middle class. Although the Communist Party in India never received much publicity, [REDACTED] maintained INDIRA GHANDI and the Communist Party were very close. The Soviet KGB was actively involved with the whole affair which was directed by the Central Bureau of Intelligence in India. [REDACTED] stated that the Central Bureau of Intelligence might have been controlled during GHANDI's government, but was now almost autonomous and uncontrollable.

[REDACTED] advised he knew little of the so-called splinter groups said to be associated with Ananda Marga by the Indian Government such as the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation. [REDACTED] believes this group is probably a concoction of the Soviet KGB and the Central Bureau of Intelligence to cause difficulty for Ananda Marga.

Baba's Followers Protest
Indian Guru's Flock Seeks His Release

By John Rabe

Washington Post Staff Writer

In a demonstration as gently peaceful as the beliefs they espouse, 350 members of an international yoga society marched here yesterday to protest the imprisonment in India of their guru, or spiritual leader.

Claiming to represent 30,000 American followers of the man they call 'Baba,' the Loved Father, the protesters carried placards demanding his release as they walked in a chanting procession from the Capitol to Dupont Circle.

After periods of meditation during which they sat cross-legged, with heads bowed, around the Dupont Circle fountain the protesters, mainly young people, enacted a symbolic immolation ceremony. Each of them burned a piece of saffron cloth to commemorate an Indian monk who died by self-immolation earlier this month to draw world attention to the case.

Leaders of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society then carried the ashes to the Indian Embassy, 2167 Massachusetts Ave. NW, while the main group raised a chant which could be heard several blocks away. After reading a statement condemning the Indian government for imprisoning Baba, also known as Anandamurti, without bail, and allegedly attempting to poison him in jail, the leaders threw the turn on the embassy steps.

After refusing to obey a police order to clear up the ashes and fragments of glass, Paul Hoog, of Berkeley, Calif., and Steve King, Wichita, Kan., were arrested and charged with depositing trash in a public place.

In a statement released last night, the Indian Embassy accused the Ananda Marga Society of making "all kinds of wild allegations."

Calling the rumor of a poison attempt "false," Press Attache George Shukla said Anandamurti was in good health and under regular medical treatment. "He has been detained in India on charges of murder and homicide under various provisions of the Indian penal code," he said.

The guru's American supporters insisted that their leader is falsely accused of murdering some of his followers and charged that Anandamurti being persecuted because his humanitarian credo aroused the enmity of establishment groups in India.

The demonstration ended in the late afternoon when it began to rain after another group meditation.

One who made the protest pilgrimage to Washington this weekend was 25-year-old Lyn Doggett, a teacher from Columbia, S.C. She said the joint Ananda Marga beliefs of finding oneself through meditation and helping others through good works had brought her through difficult emotional times and experiences with LSD and other drugs.

"I wasn't into anything spiritual, but I was desperate. I found people radiating love, humanity. I had never experienced anything like it," she said.

India Sees Threat in Yoga Sect
Noted for Good Works in U.S.

By Lewis M. Simons
Washington Post Foreign Service

NEW DELHI, April 28—To Americans, the Ananda Marga Yoga Society seems about as harmless as Sgt. Pepper’s Lonely Hearts Club Band. American college kids standing on their heads, eating wheat germ, chanting “om, om, om.”

But in India, Ananda Marga is bearded monks in saffron robes, daggers at their hips, their guru jailed in connection with the murders of six defectors. Here, the government—which Ananda Marga views as corrupt and immoral—regards it as a fascist group committed to ousting the government and installing its own system of highly disciplined regulations.

Ananda Marga’s “Path of Bliss.” Eight million people throughout the world have been initiated into the group. In India, they run 400 schools, soup kitchens, bring relief to Bangladesh refugees and spiritual succor to the downtrodden.

In the United States, followers teach self-sufficiency to black ghettoes and in prisons. In Nicaragua, they rebuild houses destroyed by the Managua earthquake, provide food, teach hygiene.

“Violence and dictatorship are the cornerstones of the Ananda Marga philosophy,” says India’s home minister, Uma Shankar Dixit. “This is an organization which wants to lead the country to fascism.”

See SECT, A14, Col. 1
India Views Ananda Marga Sect as Threat

We try to help oppressed people. We’re activists,” said Ofteal, 23, who came to India last week as a “public relations coordinator” working on the release of the sect’s founder, Radjan Sarkar, and his followers at Shri Anandamurti Bagh.

Sarkar, 85, was arrested in the eastern state of Bihar after several of his former followers went to trial and were convicted of murdering him. In addition to the murders, Sarkar said his husband was involved in “bizarre” activities, including forcing followers into homosexual acts after convincing them they had been women in former lives.

He has no doubt that what went on would deny her relationships, says Ofteal. “It was coerced. She’s assisted in English and she doesn’t understand English.”

Sarkar, however, speaks English, 20 Indian tongues, several other languages, and Norwegian, says Ofteal. The blond-haired, blue-eyed man is the son of a Norwegian diplomat, formerly an ambassador to India, and an American mother.

He says most of the 20,000 members of the U.S. branch, which has its headquarters in Wichita, Kan., are white, clean-cut, middle-class and college-educated, like himself.

“I graduated from Harvard summa cum laude,” Ofteal says, “But I and the Harvard intellectuals know that nothing is comparison with Baba.”

Baba is an affectionate term meaning “Papa,” is “a giant of intelligence, morality and strength,” he says.

“Baba is the incarnation of God,” a bearded monk screamed earlier this week, his curly black hair streaming down the back of his saffron costume. “Baba alone is the truth.” Chanting in Bengali, 100 young followers took up the cry. They were demonstrating in New Delhi for the release of Sarkar.

On the high platform in front of the crowd was a small earthenware pot, said to contain the ashes of a monk who had burned himself to death earlier this month out of frustration over Sarkar’s detention.

Bhutananda Avadhut, a tall, handsome monk wearing blue-tinted glasses, told the crowd that another immolation was imminent.

Breaking into an English translation of his speech for the benefit of foreign correspondents, he said that a registered letter had been sent earlier in the day to Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and President V.V. Giri, warning that if they would not meet with Ananda Marga representatives tragedy would follow.

Neither the prime minister nor the president responded. The immolation took place the next day inside an ancient stone fort. It was carried out suddenly and in secrecy from the police, but not from the news media.

News coverage is extremely important to Ananda Marga. Ofstedal and his Indian public-relations counterpart, Acharya Nir-mohananda, carry briefcases crammed with press handouts, background information, and clippings.

Before last week’s demonstration concluded, it evolved into what Indians—past masters of every form of protest—term “courting arrest.” A few hundred demonstrators with paper swastika emblems pinned to their shirts broke police cordons around the meeting ground and were shoved into waiting vans. But before the police discharged tear gas cylinders and cracked some heads with bamboo staves.

"Look, look. You gentlemen of the press have seen the police brutality," cried Nir-mohananda. "You, Mr. Lal, you have seen their vicious, mad-dog attacks. Tell the world how we are persecuted."

The next day, Tuesday, Sreender M. Lal, a columnist for Broadcasting System cameraman, tried to tell the world. Accompanied by Patricia Durangue de Leuna-guet, a young French woman who works as a sound technician, Lal filmed the immolation. Lal’s film and some still pictures taken by a photographer hired by Ananda Marga are the only complete records of the burning.

The police moved swiftly. They immediately arrested two monks present at the immolation and charged them with criminal conspiracy. Lal and Miss de Leunanguet were arrested that night at Bombay airport, where they had fled from Delhi. They were charged with conspiracy. The police seized a roll of 16-mm. color film from Lal. Whether it is the film of the immolation will not be known until it is processed, something which cannot be done in India.

Tuesday night and Wednesday, the police staged raids at Ananda Marga’s New Delhi headquarters and elsewhere. They arrested 24 monks and other persons, including a physician connected with the group. The physician, Dr. Subash Rana, is one of a large number of middle-class and wealthy Indians who are attracted to Ananda Marga’s potential anti-Communist philosophy. The organization has also drawn a high proportion of senior government officials, enough to cause the government to attempt outlawing Ananda Marga and, failing that, banning membership for civil servants.

Rumors are circulated widely in Delhi that officials with access to government funds have helped finance Ananda Marga. According to the organization, financing comes from assessment of members—they must donate two per cent of their income—and “private contributions.”

Friday in Parliament, a member of the ruling Congress party claimed that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency was behind the organization. The charge was carried on the front page of The Patriot, a daily newspaper published by the Communist Party of India.

"Certainly the group is well-heeled. Located behind the New Delhi headquarters is the Ananda Press Plant, a printing firm owned by the organization. Another press is operated in Patna, Bihar, the group’s headquarters. According to Ofstedal, Ananda Marga owns “dozens” of other printing plants throughout India.

"We believe that literacy and information are important in educating the lower classes about the corruption and immorality of the Indian government," he said. The presses churn out dozens of different leaflets, circulars, pamphlets, and newspapers. As the movement most of the stress on the alleged persecution of" Sarkar and the claim that Indian intelligence officers poisoned him in his jail cell.

According to several of these publications, Sarkar has been so maltreated—confined to a cell without so much as a fan in 130 degrees temperatures, fed rotten food and deprived of medical attention—that he has been forced to go on a fast as a last resort. He reportedly has not eaten since the beginning of this month."
Just as the Communist and Congress Parties, which have operated as allies the last few years, are leading the current attacks on Ananda Marga, its greatest support comes from the right-wing, pro-Hindu Jana Sangh Party.

In the last few days, several government officials have drawn comparisons between Ananda Marga and Jana Sangh’s parent organization. Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (National Self-Service Organization). RSS, as it is widely known, was founded some 25 years ago, around the time India won its independence from Britain. It is a broad-based, tightly disciplined Nazi-style organization which drills its uniformed university—student members in self-defense and the use of weapons.

A founder of both Jana Sangh and RSS, Shyama Prasad Mukherjee, died in 1957 in a Kashmir prison where his followers claimed he was poisoned to death.

Ananda Marga, according to Home Minister Datta, is "much worse than RSS."

How bad is it? Even if it has 10,000 members in India—which it claims, but which is most unlikely—does it constitute a threat to the government? The answer is given by both the government and Ananda Marga, are yes and no.

The organization espouses a philosophy of "socio-economic-political-religious revolution" which it calls the progressive utilization theory of Prout. The so-called Proutist bloc has run candidates for the Central and Bihar state governments and at one time had a single member of Parliament.

Ananda Marga literature admits that much of Sarkar’s teachings are "unfathomable" and that they require, at least, "a sustained effort and a highly developed intellect."

Nevertheless, in trying to capitalize Prout for the ordinary man, one pamphlet says "it stands for guaranteeing minimum essentials of life to each and every individual. The essentials should go on increasing progressively with growing economy and growing wealth."

According to a New Delhi newspaperman who is active in Ananda Marga, the theory is of immediate importance and applicability to India, "where the government is widely known to be corrupt and immoral and is actively courting the Communists."

Oftedal adds that it is also of immediate use in certain countries of Latin America and in the Philippines, where Ananda Marga claims to be particularly active. (A group spokesman in Manila said Friday that a "sacrificial death" by immersion was planned there.)

Prout is "not applicable, at this moment, in the United States," Oftedal says.

In a 35-page appeal to Amnesty International, the group said, "clearly, the CBI (Central Bureau of Investigation) and the government seem to be haunted by the fear of being thrown out of power by the rapidly rising moral and spiritual force" of Sarkar and Ananda Marga.

"Nonsense," says Minister of State for Home Affairs, Ram Nivas Mirch. "They are merely a gang of extremists and criminals and that is the way we are treating them. Sarkar is being treated the same as any other person charged with a murder conspiracy charge. No worse and no better."

For every Ananda Marga claim of pressure tactics, persecution, illegal detention and maltreatment, Mirch has a logical and legal argument:

"The pressure they are feeling is because they are at loose ends without their leader. This shows how much of a dictator he is. His word is law to them."

"We are certainly not persecuting them. We classify them somewhere between a crank case and dangerous criminals. But we do not worry unduly about them."

"Sarkar is not being detained illegally. A magistrate has committed the case to the Bihar sessions court. The group has been allowed an extraordinary appeal to the Federal Supreme Court. This is pending. Bail has not been allowed because the Bihar court fears Sarkar will tamper with the evidence."

Maltreatment? Mirch referred to a statement made by the Bihar government after Sarkar claimed he was imprisoned on Feb. 12. The government said he was examined by a state physician and a cardiologist, who found only that his blood pressure was "little high" and that a claim of blindness turned out to be conjunctivitis, "with which drops and ointment were prescribed."

Yet, despite this cool logic, the answers do not quite reply to the question. A foreign journalist who asked Mirch if he could be given permission to visit Sarkar in jail was refused. "It is against the regulations," he said.
Diplomat, 36, Badly Injured In Stabbing

Terrorism 'May Be Factor In Attack on Indian Here

An Indian diplomat remains in serious condition today after being stabbed last night as he departed the Indian Embassy supply mission, according to District police and the FBI, who are investigating the case as a possible act of political terrorism.

Silla Koteswar, 36, a commercial attache, had just left the embassy's supply mission at 2336 Massachusetts Ave. NW when workers heard someone scream, "Police!"

When officials opened the front door, police said, Koteswar stumbled into the mission, pleading with colleagues to remove two knives that were embedded in his body.

A Bowie-style hunting knife with an eight-inch blade and a smaller, four-inch blade, were in Koteswar's right lower back and right neck, police said.

A spokesman for the embassy said Koteswar told embassy officials shortly after the attack that he was on his way to his car in the parking lot behind the building when a man he did not recognize stabbed him without warning or provocation.

O.N. Sheopuri, the embassy's press counselor, said he suspects the assailant is a member of the Universal Revolutionary Prouti Movement, which he said has mailed threatening letters to the embassy.

"We suspect they are carrying out their threats," Sheopuri said, adding that "we have no clues why they would choose him (Koteswar)."

Sheopuri claimed that the revolutionary movement was a "front for the Ananda Marga," which has been described in news reports as an opposition group to the Indian government formerly headed by Indira Gandhi.

"It was no robbery," Sheopuri insisted, recalling similar incidents which he said occurred over the last few months at diplomatic missions in England and in Australia.

"In Australia," Sheopuri recounted, "our military attache was stabbed. A man broke into his house in the dead of night, through a window. The military attache was stabbed. He struggled with the assailant, who then fled. The assailant was subsequently arrested and he confessed to being a member of Ananda Marga." Sheopuri said the military attache recovered from his wounds.

In London, Sheopuri added, another Indian diplomat was stabbed recently, but was "not seriously hurt."

Sheopuri said he believes the attacks and threats constitute terrorist action to obtain the release of the head of Ananda Marga, P.R. Sarkar, who he said is imprisoned in India for "criminal convictions."

Asked if last night's stabbing would result in increased security measures at the embassy, Sheopuri replied, "Well, I hope so."

MANILA -- A young Swiss woman, wearing saffron robes, poured gasoline over her body and set herself on fire in front of horrified onlookers in a Manila park Tuesday night, police said.

People ran to help the woman, Elizabeth Hirschner, 26, but were unable to save her.

Police said she was a member of the India-based Ananda Marga religious sect and that they had found leaflets in which she expressed her distress over alleged persecution of the sect.

Her protest came 19 days after two American school teachers, identified as Ananda Marga members, were jailed for 17 years by a Philippines court for stabbing an Indian Embassy official here in February.
Ananda Marga Leader Cleared

NEW DELHI—A high court in eastern India overruled the 1978 murder conviction of P.N. Sarkar, the imprisoned leader of Ananda Marga, a spiritual and political organization.

The court also cleared four co-defendants, who, with Sarkar, had appealed their conviction of assassinating six defectors from the cult in 1970.

Ananda Marga was declared illegal three years ago during India’s period of emergency rule after acts of violence occurred in support of Sarkar’s release. A number of violent incidents directed at Indian diplomats and officials in recent months have also been attributed to Ananda Marga adherents. The sect has denied connection with the incidents.
Leader of Indian Sect Freed From Jail on Bail

By Laurie Daniels
Washington Post Staff Writer

Prabhu Ramjan Sarkar, leader of the controversial Ananda Marga Yoga Society, which claims several million members worldwide, has been released on bail from an Indian jail after more than six years of imprisonment on charges connected with the ayings of several of his followers.

Sarkar, 36, was carried out of the jail in Patna, capital of the northeastern state of Bihar, amid a crowd of his followers. The organisation, a Hindu revivalist sect combining meditation with social reform, claims to be established in over 70 countries, including the United States, where there are said to be 20,000 members.

Sarkar's imprisonment has produced controversy in India and abroad. Sect members have protested his jailing, saying the evidence was unsubstantiated and denying Sarkar's rights of due process were denied. Rumors have circulated about Sarkar's alleged mistreatment in the Patna jail.

The sect itself has also been the subject of controversy. Although Sarkar insists Ananda Marga is nonviolent, stabbings and other acts of violence against Indian officials in the Philippines, Australia, and Thailand and Washington have been attributed to followers of Sarkar.

Ananda Marga has denied any involvement in the incidents.

Former members have also alleged that Sarkar forced young men and boys into homosexual acts.

Sarkar has been imprisoned since December 1971 on conspiracy charges in the slayings of six of his former disciples. He was acquitted of two of the charges by the Patna high court last month and this week was granted bail pending judgment in the remaining cases.

Ananda Marga, which means "path of bliss," was banned in India during former prime minister Indira Gandhi's 21-month emergency rule in 1975 and 1976 because the group was viewed as subversive. When Prime Minister Morarji Desai took power, Ananda Marga and other banned groups were allowed to resume functioning.

Although the sect is no longer outlawed, the Indian government continues to place some restrictions on it. According to a New Delhi newspaper report, the government issued a directive in June, stating that all foreign nationals who were identified as members of Ananda Marga were to be deported. The Indian Express reported Aug. 1 that all foreign members of the sect who had been identified had been sent out of the country. An Indian Embassy spokeswoman denied that any such directive had been issued.

Kay Nelson and Mary Toth, both of the Washington area, were deported from India last month and have charged the Indian government with physically mistreating them, depriving them of their rights to due process and refusing to let them contact the American Embassy.

Nelson, 32, and Toth, both Ananda Marga members, had each been in India for about two months and visited Patna in an attempt to see Sarkar in prison. In Patna they said, three plainclothesmen took them into custody. They were then taken to New Delhi under guard, and they claim they were held for nearly four days by authorities without ever being formally arrested.

The case is currently under investigation by the United States, according to a State Department official. He said, however, that the Indian government has said Nelson and Toth were treated better than "most" Indian prisoners.

The Anand Marg was advised that at one time the employment of guards to protect the premises of other Indian establishments in the NYC area was necessary due to the general feeling is that the Anand Marg does not constitute a present danger and so guards are no longer employed against possible attacks by its adherents. (U)

This also held true for the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation. (U)

On 8/3/78, an inquiry was made of an unidentified female at the Ananda Rajnessh Mediation Center, 4th Floor, 101 Fifth Avenue, NYC. She advised that this organization has no connection with the Anand Marg. She recalled having heard this name on only one previous occasion when a female telephonically contacted their office. This female stated that she was from outside NYC and was seeking to locate someone connected with the Anand Marg. (U)

Advised that to the best of his knowledge the Anand Marg has neither members nor an organizational structure in the NY area. He recalled that on 10/20/77, a brick was thrown through the window of the Air India Office at 400 Park Avenue, NYC. It was followed by a "Molotov Cocktail" which, fortunatley, did not explode. An investigation by the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) developed no suspects in the NYC area.
The 8/3/78, issue of the "New York Times" sets forth on page A10, under a heading, "A Sect Leader in India Is Released in Killings of 6 Former Disciples", the following article:

"New Delhi, Aug. 2 - Prothath Ranjan Sarkar, a former railway clerk who heads a controversial and mysterious Indian religious sect, was released today on bail after nearly seven years imprisonment for the murders of several of his followers".

"The 58 year old Mr. Sarkar, the leader of the internationally known Ananda Marga Yoga Society, was carried out of jail in Patna, capital of the Eastern State of Bihar, in a chair and placed in a car, from which he led a colorful procession of several hundred followers. Mr. Sarkar, who is revered as the Anand Murti, or 'bliss incarnate', by sect members, reportedly has grown weak during a fast in prison".

"His jailing provoked violent protests, two suicides by fire and several bombing threats at Indian embassies, as well as many protest marches. The sect, which mixes social-welfare issues with a brand of Hindu revivalism, claims several million members scattered over 37 countries, including 20,000 members in the US. Followers of the secretive sect practice meditation using yoga, and are said to engage in a variety of rites, including worship of human skulls."
"Mr. Sarkar was charged with murder and kidnapping in seven cases, in two of which he was acquitted last month by the Patna high court. Today, another court granted him bail pending judgement in the remaining cases."

"The secretary of the sect, A.S. Awadhoot, who is also involved in the charges, was released today with Mr. Sarkar. Four other members who were charged have been acquitted."

"Mr. Sarkar, who is called "Baba", or father, was arrested on 12/29/71, by the Government of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, which viewed his sect as subversive. In addition to being charged with killing six former disciples, Mr. Sarkar and his society were accused of espionage and insurgency, and were linked by the Gandhi Government to the United States Central Intelligence Agency. The Government subsequently banned the group."

"Mr. Sarkar, the focus of numerous protests in several cities, including Washington, has contended that his society is non-violent, and is devoted to philosophy, yoga, social and spiritual reform. Former members have charged, however, that the group is involved with sadism and homosexuality". (U)

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of an LHM regarding this matter.

The enclosed LHM does not include pertinent information which has been reported to the Bureau by Legats and other offices regarding individuals identified as Anand Marg (AM) members arrested for various terrorist activities in foreign countries.
ANAND MARG (AM),
Also Known As
Ananda Marga,
Ananda Marga Yogi Society (AMYS),
Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF)

A preliminary inquiry was instituted on May 12, 1976, to determine if the Anand Marg (AM), also known as Ananda Marga, Ananda Marga Yogi Society (AMYS), Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF), is engaged in terrorist activities pursuant to the direction of a foreign power.

Investigation to date by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has not determined that AM has been involved in terrorist acts pursuant to the Attorney General Guidelines.

AM members have furnished the following information concerning the AM:

AM was founded in India in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjam Sarkar as a peaceful, religious, social service organization. Its goals are meditation and social programs. It is a volunteer organization which teaches meditation and performs community service functions. Its purposes are personal development through meditation and social services, involving pre-schools for children, halfway houses, food for the needy and disaster action teams. AM is a socio-spiritual organization, whose objective is to relieve human suffering and promote the teachings of Sarkar.

AM has been described as an international socio-political movement propagating spiritual philosophy and practices based on ancient Indian meditation and Yoga techniques.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
Proutist Universal is the social philosophy of Sarkar. Some AM people espouse the proutist philosophy, but generally the membership does not.

The Universal Proutist Revolutionary Foundation (UPRF), founded by Sarkar, is a political organization based on spiritual values. It is totally separate from the AM, which is not connected with any other organization throughout the world.

In December, 1971, Sarkar was arrested on charges of Conspiracy to Commit Murder. In July, 1975, the Indian government banned the AM on grounds that it particiapated in activities which ban was lifted after the defeat of Mrs. Gandhi and the Congress Party in 1977. The AM is now legally operating.

The following acts were committed or claimed by the AM, its cover or splinter groups, or members in the United States:
1. On October 20, 1977, a brick and fire bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office at 400 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

2. On November 11, 1977, an employee of the Air India office in Los Angeles, California, was assaulted with a knife by an unidentified female.

AM officials in the United States have denied that the acts of terrorism have been done under the direction of AM. Some individuals participating in violence allegedly have been expelled from AM.

AM discussions concerning these terrorist activities attribute these activities to a small tight-knit group acting on its own or acts by agents of the Indian Government to ruin the reputation of AM.

In the fall of 1977, AM members at Los Angeles, California, denied that any members participated in any acts of violence and advised that to do so would be contrary to the teachings and principles of AM. The AM would never condone violence to achieve the release of Sarkar.

advised that Didi Uma committed suicide by self-immolation in February, 1978, at Berlin, Germany.

AM is an international organization founded in India. There are headquarters offices in various countries. The U.S. headquarters is located at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado. Within the U.S. are various regional offices and approximately 80 units or chapters, called Ashrams, in major cities in all 50 states as well as about 45 other countries.

The majority of AM members in the U.S. are full or part-time workers, headed by chapter leaders. Next in the hierarchy are the acharyas, the nuns and monks, who in turn are led by the sadhus. They are under Sarkar, who is the supreme guru or teacher, who claims total "enlightenment" or "knowledge of the truths."

The appeal of AM is that people in it live by example. The leader in the U. S. is Dadaiji Yatiishvarananda, Denver, Colorado. There are perhaps six or seven full-time teachers in the U. S.

In November, 1977, the AM National Public Relations Representative (NPRR), Denver, estimated that around 5,000 individuals are considered active in the U. S. AM membership in the U. S. is estimated at about 500 to 1,000. The present NPRR, Craig, Runde, Denver, has directed that any proper questions for the AM should be written and sent by letter to his office at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, 80203.

AM nationally publishes a monthly newspaper, "Crimson Dawn," containing articles dealing with AM meditation, inspiration and AM projects.

Local units collect money from members according to what the members, who support themselves, think they can afford, sending surplus funds to the regional office, which remits its supplies to national headquarters. A great deal of the money has been sent to India in connection with the Sarkar defense efforts and other amounts are sent to various countries for disaster relief, administered by the AM relief team.

In Denver, Colorado, a small business produces shampoo and health care products, providing some income to the AM national office.

AM receives most of its funds by voluntary contributions through its membership. It does receive some Federal monies in the form of CELTA grants for its permanent projects. Donations are proportioned with certain percentages forwarded to sector offices. AM receives no funds from any Indian sources.
It is noted that numerous American-type names and known American citizens have been involved in terrorism activities in countries other than the United States.

Re: FOI/FOLET to the Bureau dated 10/23/78.

This file has been designated for routine destruction under provisions established by the Bureau.

A review of captioned matter reflects that members and prior members of captioned organization have committed numerous terrorist type acts, including bombings, stabbings, and kidnappings in the U.S. and abroad in an attempt to force the Indian government to release Ananda Marga (A") leader P.R. SARKAR. The "Washington Post" reflects on 8/4/78 that P.R. SARKAR had been freed from jail in India on bail after more than six years of imprisonment.

In view of the violent nature of acts of terrorism which have been attributed to followers of P.R. SARKAR, and the possibility that these violent acts could recur in the future should SARKAR be reconvicted in India, it is recommended that this file be retained ten years at WFO.

ANAND MARG,
ALSO KNOWN AS
ANANDA MARGA,
UNIVERSAL PROUTIST REVOLUTIONARY FEDERATION

The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anadmuti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from Anand Marg. The Anand Marg and its splinter groups, i.e., Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation, etc., have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader Sarkar, and social revolution in India.

The Anand Marg was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba" or Ananda Murthiji, and advocates the overthrow of the Indian government and a takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of Anand Marg. The group reportedly had indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution. Sarkar has been imprisoned since 1971 on charges he ordered the murder of several defectors from the Anand Marg. He has since been released in 1978 on bond pending an appeal before the Indian Court.

Sarkar claims to be the incarnation of God and his purpose is to establish a government of moralists. He has succeeded in persuading his followers that he has supernatural powers and can liberate their souls. Once the organization gained some popularity it became involved in politics. Since 1966, Ananda Marg started opening branches in different countries under the guise of yoga societies, pre-school programs, and relief centers. Some of the foreign disciples have traveled to India for instruction.

Ananda Marg established itself in the United States in 1971 when Acharya Yatishwarananda Avadhoot, alias R. Venkatanarayan, was sent to propagate the group's philosophy. The headquarters were established in Wichita, Kansas, under the name of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society of USA. In 1973 the Society bought its own three-story building at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and moved its headquarters there.

The Ananda Marga Yoga Society is self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline, and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. In 1975 the Society claimed to have 80 branches in the U.S. In 1972 and 1973, it engaged in demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, protesting the jailing of its spiritual leader, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti (Sarkar). These demonstrations were peaceful; however, a demonstration at the Indian Embassy on April 23, 1973, resulted in the arrest of two Society members. They were charged with "Depositing of Trash in a Public Place" after they attempted to deliver to the Indian Ambassador the ashes of a monk who had immolated himself. In the process, the container of ashes was dropped and broke on the Embassy steps.

In late 1976, Sarkar claimed to have eight million followers in India, Great Britain, the United States, Canada, The Philippines, and Australia.

Activity in the United States

On October 20, 1977, a brick and fire bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office at 400 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

On November 25, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Attache, Embassy of India, Washington, D.C., was stabbed.

Activity Outside the United States

On November 19, 1977, a flaming Molotov cocktail was thrown through a window of the Indian High Commission in Ottawa, Canada.
On February 7, 1978, two United States citizens were arrested and charged with the stabbing of the personal secretary to the Charge of the Embassy of India, in Manila, Philippines.

Regarding the captioned individual, our files reveal Sarkar, born April 1, 1923, in Bihar, India, is the spiritual leader and founder of Ananda Marga (AM), which was founded in India in 1955, and is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anandmurti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India during 1971 after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from the AM. The AM and its splinter groups have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader Sarkar, and social revolution of India.

On an appeal in 1978, Sarkar was acquitted in India of one homicide charge and as of March, 1979, one homicide charge was still pending against him and he remains on bail. There is attached one copy of an FBI memorandum dated January 3, 1977, which contains information concerning Sarkar.

Our files contain no additional pertinent information concerning him.

In response to your letter dated November 16, 1979, requesting information concerning the above-captioned organization and individual, a review of our central files reveal the following information.

The organization, Ananda Marga (AM), also known as Anand Marg and Ananda Marga Yogi Society, was founded in India in 1955 and is self-described as a religious social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. AM is also described as an international socio-political movement propagating spiritual philosophy and practices based on ancient Indian meditation and yoga techniques. The AM and its splinter groups have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader, Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, and a social revolution in India.

Regarding the captioned individual, our files reveal Sarkar, born April 1, 1923, in Bihar, India, is the spiritual leader and founder of the AM. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anandamurti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India during 1971 after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from the AM.

On an appeal in 1978, Sarkar was acquitted in India of one homicide charge and as of March, 1979, one homicide charge was still pending against him and he remained on bail. There is attached one copy of an FBI memorandum dated January 3, 1977, which contains information concerning Sarkar. (105-289420)

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Honorable Jeremiah Denton
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Denton:

I have received your March 19th inquiry concerning the Ananda Marga Yoga Society and appreciate the opportunity to give you a brief background of this organization for your personal information and for possible assistance in addressing the inquiry you received in this regard from [omitted].

The organization, Ananda Marga (AM), also known as Anand Marga and Ananda Marga Yoga Society, was founded in India in 1955 and is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. It is also described as an international socio-political movement propagating spiritual philosophy and practices based on ancient Indian meditation and yoga techniques. The AM and its splinter groups have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their imprisoned leader and advocating social revolution in India. AM established itself in the United States in 1971.

The FBI has conducted inquiries relating to AM on a foreign police cooperation basis or under the Protection of Foreign Officials Statute when requested to do so or when deemed necessary. We have not, however, received any information to date that AM has engaged in terrorist activity in the United States pursuant to the direction of a foreign power. Under the Attorney General Guidelines for Foreign Intelligence Collection and Foreign Counterintelligence Investigations, such foreign direction is necessary for the FBI to conduct an investigation.
has corresponded with the FBI on more than one occasion regarding the activities of AM and his concern is certainly understandable. You may assure him that if information is developed which falls within our investigative jurisdiction, prompt action will be taken.

I trust I have been responsive to your inquiry. Your letter and enclosures are being returned as requested.

Sincerely,

Roger L. Young
Assistant Director in Charge

AM was founded in India by Prabhat Sarkar and he was subsequently imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in murder of six former members who had defected. AM preaches that violence is the only means of achieving its goal of a world government headed by Sarkar and has committed numerous terrorist acts in furtherance of this goal. AM attempts to maintain a spiritual social public profile through the use of front groups which promote programs such as prison meditation classes, world-wide disaster aid, and other social service activities.

RE: ANANDA MARGA (AM)
FCI-INDIA- TERRORISM
OO: Los Angeles

Re Milwaukee airtel to the Bureau and Los Angeles dated 2/3/82.

Enclosed for the Bureau are six (6) copies each of an LHM concerning captioned matter and two (2) copies each of background information concerning same. Enclosed for Milwaukee are two (2) copies each of background information and same LHM.
The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Saba" or Ananda Murthiji, and advocated the overthrow of the Indian government and a takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of Anand Marg. The group reportedly had indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution. Sarkar has been imprisoned since 1971 on charges he ordered the murder of several defectors from the Anand Marg. He has since been released in 1978 on bond pending an appeal before the Indian Court.

Sarkar claims to be the incarnation of God and his purpose is to establish a government of moralists. He has succeeded in persuading his followers that he has supernatural powers and can liberate their souls. Once the organization gained some popularity it became involved in politics.

Since 1968, Anand Marg started opening branches in different countries under the guise of Yoga societies, pre-school programs, and relief centers. Some of the foreign disciples have traveled to India for instruction.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed.
ANAND MARG

Ananda Marg established itself in the United States in 1971 when Acharya Yatishwarananda Avadhoot, alias R. Venkatanarayan, was sent to propagate the group's philosophy. The headquarters were established in Wichita, Kansas, under the name of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society of USA. In 1973 the Society brought its own three-story building at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and moved its headquarters there.

The Ananda Marga Yoga Society is self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline, and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. In 1975 the Society claimed to have 80 branches in the U.S. In 1972 and 1973, it engaged in demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, protesting the jailing of its spiritual leader, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti (Sarkar). These demonstrations were peaceful; however, a demonstration at the Indian Embassy on April 23, 1973, resulted in the arrest of two society members. They were charged with "Depositing of Trash in a Public Place" after they attempted to deliver to the Indian Ambassador the ashes of a monk who had immolated himself. In the process, the container of ashes was dropped and broke on the Embassy steps.

In late 1976, Sarkar claimed to have eight million followers in India, Great Britain, the United States, Canada, the Philippines, and Australia.

Activity in the United States

On October 20, 1977, a brick and fire bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office at 400 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

On November 11, 1977, an employee of the Air India Office in Los Angeles, California, was assaulted with a knife by an unidentified female.

On November 25, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Attache, Embassy of India, Washington, D.C., was stabbed.

Activity Outside the United States
ANAND MARG

It appears, (for the time being), that continued monitoring of Anand Marga activities by Los Angeles in coordination with other law enforcement agencies and FBI offices will be the direction of investigation pursued concerning Anand Marga.

San Francisco makes the observation to the Bureau, Los Angeles and Seattle that should it become evident to the AM that they are the subject of an FBI investigation, there is a strong possibility that AM members will be instructed to be uncooperative with the FBI.

There was no apparent hostility toward the FBI (nor was there any information of value furnished).

San Francisco is setting forth the above observations in part as indications are the AM has the potential of becoming a bona fide terrorist organization and that care should be exercised in the selection of interviewed and the approach used during such interviews.
San Francisco welcomes any comments or observations regarding this matter.

San Francisco is at present endeavoring to obtain information showing the impact this article is having upon the AM organization.
Ananda Marga: a deadly mix of yoga, violence?

A cult active on the Peninsula says its goals are humanitarian. But others link it to killings around the world.

By Bernard Bauer

A worldwide sect that touts yoga and meditation classes as a lure to its followers is under investigation by the FBI because it is suspected of engaging in terrorist activities.

Publicly, the sect, the Ananda Marga Yoga Society, which Eastern practitioners say is a wide array of social programs. It operates medical clinics, nursery schools and food programs for the poor in more than 120 countries, including two in Santa Clara County.

But there is a darker side to Ananda Marga. Throughout the world, the cult has been connected to violence and bloodshed.

The sect's guru, Prahlad Ranjan Saran, spent seven years in an Indian jail on charges of murdering six detectives. His conviction was reversed on appeal in 1978.

In the interim, seven followers burned themselves to death to protest the guru's prison sentence. Other cultists went on a spree of terror aimed at winning their leader, according to CIA and FBI documents.

Among the attacks:

- An Indian embassy attack was stabbled in Washington, D.C.
- An Air India employee was assailed with a knife at Los Angeles.
- A brick and a fire bomb were thrown through the windows of the Air India office in New York City.
- A police officer and two garbage collectors were killed when the Hilton Hotel in Sydney, Australia, was bombed during a meeting of 13 Commonwealth ministers.
- Two cultists were sentenced to 10 years in prison for conspiracy to murder Australian right-wing extremist Robert Cameron.

- Two American cultists were convicted of the attempted murder of an IIA diplomat in the Philippines. One, who co-founded the Los Allen Mills cult, recently won an acquittal on appeal.

A policeman was seriously injured when a bomb exploded in the Air India office in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

The Indian High Commission office in Canberra, Australia, suffered more than $250,000 in damage from an arson fire.

Diplomats and Air India employees in Australia and England were stabbed.

Respect in staying

In an unrelated 1981 incident, police in Europe are seeking a veteran cult member who allegedly hired a former Ananda Marga monk to Sweden and killed him.

Dedaji Daneshbananda, a spokesman for the group's national headquarters in Denver, acknowledged that some terrorist acts are attributed to the cult "may have been committed by misguided youth who have no faith in Ananda Marga ideology. But Ananda Marga is an organization directed to service to humanity and raising the spiritual consciousness of everyone."

The current FBI investigation is based on reports that Ananda Marga is planning more terrorist activities, according to an agency source who requested anonymity.

"We have investigated them in the past for isolated incidents," the FBI source said. "But we haven't investigated them as an organization until recently."

Last October, India's intelligence agencies notified the FBI that Ananda Marga members were planning to cross the California-Mexico border and assassinate Prime Minister Indira Gandhi during the Cancom Summit.

Tightened security

And during Pope John Paul II's visit to the Philippines last year, police instituted extreme security measures after Ananda Marga reportedly threatened the pope's life.

The U.S. government has received reports that membership in the United States has been estimated at 8,000 to 20,000, runs terrorist training camps in California and New York. The State Department has identified similar operations in India.

A sect spokesman said the reports are "totally baseless."

Yet the FBI considers Ananda Marga to be a "potential threat." The cult's leaders are known as "Baba" or "Father," predicts that this plan will succeed and that the cult will rule the world by the year 2003.

"They foresee the bringing in of (that) through violence," said David Welch, an ex-cultist. "It's kind of taken for granted that that will happen."

"As a preventive measure, the State Department has banned Sarkar, the guru, from entering this country.

Fear of violence

"Our concern is that his presence here might lead to acts of violence," said an Indian-affairs analyst in the department who requested anonymity.

No acts of terrorism have been linked to the tax-exempt Los Altos Hills center, where about 500 disciples have been trained in the group's political and religious beliefs.

In fact, Ananda Marga denies any role in the violence attributed to the organization. Rather, spokesmen stress its social-welfare programs and the letters of commendation the organization has earned around the world.

"I know several Marga and they are fine, committed people," the State Department official said.

Sect spokesmen blame communists for spreading "inaccurate and purposefully misleading statements" about the organization. The two groups have a history of antagonism in India.

Ananda Marga also blames communists for the April 30 daylight massacre of 17 of its burnings and monks in downtown Calcutta. The victims were burned and stabbed to death and then piled in a heap and burned.

Disagreement with communists

Indian police say the massacre was caused by rumors that Ananda Marga was stealing children. The sect claims that it was an organized attack by the Communist Party.

"We were not able to protect itself or - as its critics claim - to foster its own violence, the cult maintains a security branch, known as VSS.

"The VSS, the main "violence-prone wing of Ananda Marga" and is responsible for a series of terrorist acts around the world in 1977 and 1978, according to declassified CIA documents.

trained in the use of martial weapons, including knives and nunchucks (martialarts weapons), the U.S. State Department said.

There are unconfirmed reports of VSS camps in California and New York, a department official said, "but I haven't seen any hard evidence of that."

Jim Venezia, treasurer-secretary of the VSS national office in Los Angeles, said all charges of terrorism are "totally baseless."

Venezia said the 70 VSS members in the United States act as a "security force... to keep order... during political demonstrations by Ananda Marga members.

Self-defense encouraged

"We don't carry arms," he said. "We don't train people in any organized way. But we encourage that people should be prepared to defend themselves." Like their counterparts overseas, VSS members in the United States wear uniforms of gray shirts with epaulettes, khaki pants and Australian bush hats, Venezia said.

Many U.S. followers seem to be unaware of the charges of evil that critics say permeates the inner sanctum of the cult.

"It's kind of a schizophrenic group," said Josh Baran, who runs "Sorting It Out," a counseling service in Berkeley for dropouts from cults. "There are people that have been involved for years who don't know about that side of things at all."

A former U.S. government official whose son belongs to the sect, said that good deeds are merely a cover for noble purposes.

"Despite its idealistic face in the United States, it's basically an organization dedicated to the overthrow of the basic institutions of the United States and the free world," he said.

Like other sources, the former officia...
Cult’s guru inspires devotion and 7 supreme sacrifices

By Bernard Bauer
Staff Writer

To his devout followers, Prabhak Ranjan Sarkar is a god.

"I was searching for my guru for years. In Ananda Marga, I do not have to search anymore," said a 28-year-old Trinidad man who trained recently at the Los Altos Hills center. "It is a miracle."

To others, the guru of Ananda Marga is Satan.

Naval Khalike, a former high-ranking monk, wrote in 1975 that Sarkar is "a perverted megalomaniac" whose "murder squads" tied disloyal members to trees and stabbed them to death.

"It is a fact that, under the guise of spiritual practices, Sarkar and his associates have been indulging in quite heinous crimes," says a declassified but heavily censored 1980 CIA document.

Cult critics say that Sarkar runs his organization as a merciless autocracy and inspires unthinking loyalty in his followers. He was arrested in 1971 after Indian law enforcement agencies uncovered an alleged plot to murder 18 defectors.

Sarkar and several followers were charged with six murders, as well as kidnapings and weapons possession.

From the outset, his followers mounted a long campaign aimed at winning the guru's release.

Seven disciples eventually burned themselves to death in protest.

One self-immolation occurred in the United States, with others in Europe, India and the Philippines, according to a sect manifesto.

"It was seen as a great sacrifice," said ex-member Rabbi Yehudah Fine of New York City. "These people were doing the ultimate sacrifice. That's what you were told."

Bizarre claims about the sect persisted through the 1970s. "It became a frequent practice for the Anandamurti (Sarkar), sitting on a chair with a rod in his hand, to chastise errant (monks), all of them stripped naked," ex-member Khalike wrote. "He used to cane them one by one mercilessly."

The Margis were dismayed to find that while some of them got punishments, others continued to enjoy his confidence, particularly those who brought young boys for the perverted satisfaction of Anandamurti.

A spokesman for Ananda Marga's national office in Denver called the allegations about Sarkar's behavior "a complete sham. I doubt you would find 1 percent of truth in them."

In 1976, Sarkar and four co-defendants were found guilty of murder and conspiracy to murder and sentenced to life in prison. The conviction was overturned on appeal two years later when a higher court ruled that the testimony of the prosecution's main witness had not been sufficiently corroborated.

Still, parents of current members say they are terrified by what seems to be a blind allegiance to the guru.

"I don't think anyone would have the drive on their own to go out and burn themselves," one father said. "There's some kind of mind control that makes them act as automatons."

Peninsula center trains disciples

At a large building in the San Francisco Peninsula, end of the world, the American Mapo School is dedicated to the training of its disciples. The school was founded in 1972.

The school is located at 6710 E. Penn Ave., in the heart of the town of Los Altos Hills. It offers courses in the arts, sciences, and humanities for six-week training sessions that cost $500.

For earthly goods

It is a spiritual institution. Followers, called Mapo, live on the ground floor and have free access to all the goods and services provided by the town. They work in the downtown area.

The training season follows a schedule that includes five hours of meditation and instruction. All the food is vegetarian and includes bread and water.

The school's philosophy is based on the teachings of its founder, Mapo, who is considered a spiritual leader. The school is known for its strict discipline and emphasis on spiritual growth.

Antipodal experiment

A team of Mapo students will be sent to the Antarctic to test the school's philosophy. They will be given the task of becoming the first people to live on the Antarctic continent.

The school's philosophy is based on the teachings of its founder, Mapo, who is considered a spiritual leader. The school is known for its strict discipline and emphasis on spiritual growth.

Organized tour

Four people, including the founder, will be sent on a tour of the world to spread the school's message. The tour will include visits to the major spiritual centers of the world.

The tour will start in the town of Los Altos Hills, where the school is located. The tour will then travel to the United States, India, and South America, before returning to Los Altos Hills.

On the first day of the tour, the founder will give a talk on the school's philosophy. The tour will then visit the town of Los Altos Hills, where the school is located.

Some practice yoga — others preach violence

A group of 28 teachers had gathered,
"...and some had won a martyr's name...

The event was reported in the United States in 1974, in an article that focused on the New York Times, which covered the story.

They were fanatics... They will do anything — totally unpredictable. They will kill, and they will die.

Ananda Marga: a deadly mix of yoga, violence?

A cult active on the Peninsula says its goals are humanitarian. But others link it to killings around the world.

By Bernard Boser

A worldwide cult that runs yoga and meditation classes at a notorious Los Altos Hills house is under investigation by the FBI because it is suspected of engaging in terrorist activities.

Publicly, the sect, the Ananda Marga Yoga Society, blends Eastern spirituality with a wide array of social programs. It operates medical clinics, nursery schools and food programs for the poor in more than 130 countries, including two sites in Santa Clara County.

But there is a darker side to Ananda Marga. Throughout the world, the cult has been connected to violence and brutality.

The sect's guru, Prabhakat Ranjan Borrow, spent seven years in an Indian jail on charges of murdering two detractors. The conviction was reversed on appeal in 1978.

In the interim, seven followers burned themselves to death to protest the guru's prison sentence. Other cultists went on a series of hunger strikes aimed at freeing their leader, according to CIA and FBI documents.

Among the attacks:
- An Indian temple attack was blamed in Washington, D.C.
- An Air India company was attacked with a bomb in Los Angeles.
- A brick and a flare bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office in New York City.
- A police officer and two garbage collectors were killed when the Indian Hotel in Sydney, Australia, was burned.

During a meeting of 13 Commonwealth nations, two cultists each were sentenced to 30 years in prison for conspiring to murder Australian right-wing senator Robert散发.
Ananda Marga followers:

A policeman was seriously injured when a bomb exploded at the Air India office in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The incident has raised concerns about the safety of the airline, which has been a target of recent attacks.

The Indian High Commission in Australia has warned its citizens about the threat of terrorism. The warning comes after a series of attacks on Air India flights.

Diplomats and Air India employees in Australia and England were stabbed.

Suspicious activity

In a unrelated incident in Europe, police are investigating the alleged theft of a former Ananda Marga member from Sweden and killed him.

Dadaji Desakurana, a member of the group's most active quarters in Denver, acknowledged that some terrorist acts

"We don't carry arms... But we encourage that people should be prepared to defend themselves."

— Jim Venesia, official in Ananda Marga attributed to the cult "may have been committed by misguided youth who have no faith in Ananda Marga's teachings."

The current FBI investigation is based in part on reports that Ananda Marga is planning more terrorist activities, according to an agency source who requested anonymity.

"We have investigated them in the past for isolated incidents," the FBI source said. "We did not investigate them as an organization until recently."

Last October, Indian intelligence agencies notified the FBI that Ananda Marga members were planning to cross the California-Mexico border and assassinate Prime Minister Indira Gandhi during the Cancun Summit.

Tightened security

And during Pope John Paul II's visit to the Philippines last year, police instituted extreme security measures after Ananda Marga reportedly threatened the pope's life.

"The only government also has received trained in the use of martial weapons, including knives and sanchikas (martial crafts weapons), the U.S. State Department's said.

There are unconfirmed reports of VSS camps in California and New York, a department official said, "but I don't have any hard evidence of that.".."

Venessa, treasurer-secretary of the VSS national office in Los Angeles, said all charges of terrorism are "totally baseless."

Venessa said the 70 VSS members in the United States act as "a security force to keep order during political demonstrations by Ananda Marga members.

Self-defense encouraged

"We don't carry arms," he said. "We don't train people in any organized way. But we encourage that people should be prepared to defend themselves."

Like their counterparts overseas, VSS members in the United States wear uniforms of gray shirts and pants, Australian bush hats, Venesia said.

Many U.S. followers seem to be unaware of the charges of evil that critics say permeate the inner sanctum of the cult.

"It's kind of a schizophrenic group," said Josh Baran, who runs "Second Life," a counseling service in Berkeley for dropouts from cults. "There are people that have been involved for years who don't know about that side of things at all."

A former U.S. government official whose son belongs to the sect, said that in good deeds are merely a cover for less noble purposes.

"Despite its idealistic face in the United States, it's basically an organization dedicated to the overthrow of the basic institutions of the United States and the free world," he said.

Cult's guru inspires devotion and 7 supreme sacrifices

By Bernard Bauer

To his devout followers, Prabhat Ranjan Sarkar is a god.

"I was searching for my guru for years. In Ananda Marga, I do not have to search anymore," said a 28-year-old Trinidadian who trained recently at the Los Altos Hills center. "It is a miracle."

To others, the guru of Ananda Marga is Satan.

Rahul Kishore, a former high-ranking monk, wrote in 1975 that Sarkar is a "perverted megalomaniac" whose "murder squad" killed disloyal members by trees and stabbed them to death.

"It is a fact that, under the guise of spiritual practices, Sarkar and his associates have been indulging in quite heinous crimes," says a declassified but heavily censored 1960 CIA document.

Cult critics say that Sarkar runs his organization as a merciless autocracy and inspires unthinking loyalty in his followers. He was arrested in 1971 after Indian law enforcement agencies uncovered an alleged plot to murder 10 defects.

Sarkar and several followers were charged with six murders, as well as kidnapping and weapons possession.

From the outset, his followers mounted a long campaign aimed at winning the guru's release.

Seven disciples eventually burned themselves to death in protest.

One self-immolation occurred in the United States, with others in Europe, India and the Philippines, according to a sect manifest.

"It was seen as a great sacrifice," said ex-member Rabbi Yehudah Fine of New York. "These people were doing the ultimate sacrifice. That's what you were told."

Bizarre claims about the sect persisted through the 1980s. It became a frequent practice for the Anandamurti (Sarkar), sitting on a chair with a rod in his hand, to chastise errant (monks), all of them stripped naked," ex-member Kishore wrote. "He used to cane them one by one mercilessly..."

"The Margis were dismayed to find that while some of them got punishments, others continued to enjoy his confidence, particularly those who brought young boys for the perverted satisfaction of Anandamurti."

A spokesman for Ananda Marga's national office in Denver called the allegations about Sarkar's behavior "a complete sham. I doubt you would find 1 percent of truth in them."

In 1976, Sarkar and four co-defendants were found guilty of murder and conspiracy to murder and sentenced to multiple life terms. The conviction was overturned two years later when a higher court ruled that the testimony of the prosecution's main witness had not been sufficiently corroborated.

Still, parents of current members say they are terrified by what seems to be a mind allegiance to the guru.

"I don't think anyone would have the drive on their own to go out and burn themselves," one father said. "There's some kind of mind control that makes them act as automatons."

Ex-devotee's lecture tour in Europe proved fatal

By Bernard Beau

For eight years, life in California was mere-moon for one man. He was a member of the Aum Shinrikyo cult, which believes in the spread of the cult's beliefs through peaceful means.

However, the man, known only as Aum, escaped to Russia after a dispute with his leaders. There, he set up a new religious group, the Heimon Unison, and began preaching his faith.

Then, unfortunately, Aum disappeared during a trip to Europe last year.

Two weeks later, his body was found in a field near a road. The cause of death was ruled to be suicide.

The prime suspect, a man named Yoko Okumura, was eventually arrested in Russia. He was accused of being the leader of the new cult.

Organized tour

Four people realized that Beukers, then 34, had been an Aum Shinrikyo member for seven years. They had met him in the United States and were impressed by his knowledge of the cult.

Beukers eventually convinced Aum to continue with his European lecture tour, which he continued to organize. The suspect then left for Russia.

Aum disappeared on April 20, the day he arrived in Sweden. His dismembered body was found in a field a short distance away.

Peninsula center trains disciples

At a large, well-kept house in the valley above San Francisco, a group of people are gathered for a meeting. Among them is a young woman named Anna, who has been attending the group for several years.

Anna was one of many people who have been trained at the Baha'i center since it opened in 1975. She is half the size of the house, located at 317 Choudray Road, an unassuming house near the coast of Santa Clara. Anna always stood out in the crowd of people at the center. She was often seen wearing a white dress and carrying a bouquet of flowers.

Anna Marga followed a strict schedule that included daily prayers, meditation, and study of the scriptures. She was very devoted to the center and spent most of her time there.

The center, called the Anna Marga School, was founded by Anna Marga in 1968. She was a charismatic leader who attracted many followers.

Anna was known for her kindness and compassion. She often helped the poor and needy, and was seen as a mother figure to those around her.

Anna was a devoted follower of the Baha'i faith and her life was dedicated to serving others. She was a respected member of the community and was loved by all who knew her.

Nap time for John Ralst, 3, at the Anna Marga School. He was a young boy who loved to sleep and was often seen napping on the floor. His mother was always there to make sure he was comfortable.

"I love it here. My parents are happy," said Ralst's mother, who often came to visit her son.

"He is a very special little boy," she continued. "He is always smiling and ready to play. He is a joy to have around."
Some practice yoga — others preach violence

By the time we had settled Ananda Marga for you on Page 12A they had moved to San Jose. We should have noted that the organization is a continuation of an earlier group of people who had gathered around the teachings of Ananda Marga in the late 1970s.

As you read about the cult and its members, keep in mind that they believe in the power of meditation and spiritual growth. They practice yoga and other activities to achieve spiritual enlightenment.

Ananda Marga's leader, Swami Satyananda, once described his organization as a "universal spiritual movement." He believed that everyone could achieve spiritual growth through meditation and other spiritual practices.

The organization has faced criticism and controversy over the years. Some members have reported harassment and manipulation by the cult leaders. Others have accused the organization of promoting a dangerous and sect-like environment.

As you read, consider the following questions:

1. What are the beliefs and practices of Ananda Marga?
2. What are the criticisms and controversies surrounding the organization?
3. How does this organization compare to other spiritual movements and cults?

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

Bureau is requested to forward copies of LHM to Legats, Hong Kong, Manila, and Ottawa.
The AM was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba", and advocates the overthrow of the Government of Indian and takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of AM. The group reportedly has indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution.

However, prior to and after the release of the leader in 1978, AM has committed several acts of violence which appear to be concerned with Indian domestic issues.

The Ananda Marga is a self-described religious social organization with a goal of peaceful social reform. The Ananda Marga, also known as Anand Marg, was founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar. (U)

Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anadムrti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from "Anand Marg." The "Anand Marg" and its splinter groups, i.e., Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation, etc., have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader, Sarkar, and social revolution in India. (U)
The "Anand Marge" was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba" or Ananda Murthiji, and advocates the overthrow of the Indian government and a takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of "Anand Marg." The group reportedly had indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution. Sarkar has been imprisoned since 1971 on charges he ordered the murder of several defectors from the "Anand Marg." He has since been released in 1978 on bond pending an appeal before the Indian court. (U)

Sarkar claims to be the incarnation of God and his purpose is to establish a government of moralists. He has succeeded in persuading his followers that he has supernatural powers and can liberate their souls. Once the organization gained some popularity, it became involved in politics. The organization then reportedly started a para-military cadre to give training in military drill, guerrilla warfare, etc., to its members. Since 1968, "Anand Marg" started opening branches in different countries under the guise of yoga societies, pre-school programs, and relief centers. Some of the foreign disciples have traveled to India for instruction. (U)

"Ananda Marge" established itself in the United States in 1971, when Acharya Yatishwarananda Avadhoot, alias R. Venkatanarayan, was sent to propagate the group's philosophy. The headquarters was established in Wichita, Kansas, under the name of the "Ananda Marga" Yoga Society of United States of America. In 1973, the Society bought its own three-story building at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and moved its headquarters there. (U)

On November 28, 1977, [redacted] member, Ananda Marga, 1245 South Norton Avenue, Los Angeles, California, telephone [redacted], voluntarily appeared at the Los Angeles Office and advised that the Ananda Marga Headquarters in Denver, Colorado, had directed her to appear at the Los Angeles Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office to relate the following:
On November 28, 1977, [redacted] voluntarily appeared at the Los Angeles Office of the FBI. She was introduced to SA's [redacted] and [redacted] who identified themselves to her by display of credentials as Special Agents of the FBI.

She was advised that she is a member of Ananda Marga. Her purpose in visiting the FBI was to deny certain allegations made by the news media that Ananda Marga was responsible for certain activities directed against Air-India. She stated that she was directed by the Sectorial Headquarters of Ananda Marga, which is located in Denver, Colorado, to advise that Ananda Marga does not believe in or espouse acts of terrorism. She stated that terrorism has no place in the philosophy of Ananda Marga.

She produced copies of three letters which were furnished to her through the Ananda Marga Headquarters in Denver, Colorado. The first letter was directed to the United States National Director, Air-India, 345 Park Avenue, New York, New York, which in effect denied and disavowed any association or connection with any organization known as the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF). This letter was signed by ACARYA YATIISHVARANANDA AVT. The second letter was addressed to the FBI, Denver, Colorado, dated October 23, 1977, and disclosed that Ananda Marga is a non-profit social service/spiritual organization and disavows any connection with the UPRF. This letter is signed by IVO NELSON. The third letter was mailed to An. Marg, 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and is addressed to MORAJI DESAI. This letter assumes the responsibility for actions taken against the airlines of India in the name of the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation, and is signed UPRF, U.S. Division, North American Command.

She stated that the term Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation may have been taken from the organization called Prout. She advised that Ananda Marga and Prout both espouse the philosophy and teachings... of Mr. P. R. SARKAR. She also advised that the regional leader of Prout has been in contact with an FBI Agent named in San Francisco, California.

stated that Ananda Marga would fully cooperate with the FBI in order to clear Ananda Marga of any wrongdoing. She advised that it was her personal opinion that a conspiracy to frame Ananda Marga was initiated by the India Central Bureau of Investigation and the KGB of the Soviet Union. She advised that her belief originated from information that Ananda Marga in India had been gaining followers among the young people and college students; therefore, supplanting the Communist philosophy among the Indian young.

stated that the Los Angeles Office of Ananda Marga is located at 1245 South Norton Avenue, and the telephone number is 731-1372.

advised that the copies of the three letters furnished to her through Ananda Marga Headquarters in Denver were to be given to the FBI Office at Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sirs,

Enclosed you will find a letter from the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation to Mr. Moraji Desai demanding the release of P. R. Sarkar. The letter claims responsibility for an attack on an Air India office (the letter is postmarked New York, New York) and threatens future action if their demand is not met.

A copy of the letter was sent to our national offices in Denver on October 22, 1977. Although P. R. Sarkar is the founder and president of Ananda Marga Inc. neither he nor the international organization of Ananda Marga claim any association whatsoever with the UPRF.

Ananda Marga is a non-profit social service/spiritual organization. Such actions as have been threatened by the UPRF go completely against the nature of our organization and the moral ideals that we propagate.

Sincerely,

November 20, 1977

Dear Sirs,

In the last month we have received copies of three threatening letters addressed to Mr. Moraji Desai from the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation. Two of the letters contained threats that were directed at Air India. Upon immediate receipt of each letter, a representative from our national office submitted it to the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States.

I would like to say at this time that Ananda Marga is in no way associated with the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation. Acts as have been alleged by the UPRF are not by any means representative of Ananda Marga’s activities in North America. In the United States alone we have established such projects as group homes, schools, prison programs, disaster relief teams, and many other service-oriented programs.

We do support the request that the founder and spiritual leader of Ananda Marga, Mr. P. R. Sarkar, be released from prison in India. It is our feeling that due to the adverse political setting in India during the State of Emergency, it was impossible for fair trial proceedings to take place. Documentation of our position is available through reports by W. T. Wells (Queen’s Counsel) and Claude Sheppard, a lawyer sent as a neutral observer of the trial by the International Commission of Jurists and The League for Human Rights.

Regardless of our stance on the fairness of Mr. Sarkar’s trial, we do not support violent acts as a means to justify his release, or for any other reason. Mr. Sarkar himself stated in a recent interview, “I completely disown these acts of violence... I will not obtain my release in this way.”

At this time, we feel that the attacks on your offices, as well as similar actions that have been performed in other countries under the auspices of the UPRF, are an effort by a foreign intelligence agency to defame Ananda Marga. Recent research shows good reason for such an attack. A booklet is now being prepared that will

Service to humanity...service to God clarify this line of thought. Upon completion, a copy will be sent to you.

We have been keeping in constant touch with the FBI in San Francisco, Washington D.C., and Denver as well as the State Department, Indian Embassy, and Secret Service in Washington, D.C.

I deeply regret the injury that resulted from the incident in Los Angeles and sincerely hope it will not be repeated.

If I may be of any help to you, please feel free to call or write me.

Sincerely yours,

FROM WASHINGTON FIELD (185-445) (P)
TO DIRECTOR ROUTINE
ATTENTION GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

FOREIGN OFFICIALS ATTACHED TO EMBASSY OF INDIA, WASHINGTON, D.C., DECEMBER 2, 1976
SUBVERSIVE; (OIC WASHINGTON FIELD)

ON DECEMBER 16, 1976, A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE (USSS), WASHINGTON, D.C. (WDC), ADVISED
THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS WERE ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH A DEMONSTRATION AT THE EMBASSY OF INDIA, 2127 MASSACHUSETTS
AVENUE, WDC, WDC, ON DECEMBER 2, 1977.

7U JAN 13 1977.

SRef #31
According to the USSS, the foregoing individuals were arrested by officer [redacted] Executive Protective Service (EPS), and charged with disorderly conduct and failure to move on.

On December 12, 1976, [redacted] advised the demonstrators numbered approximately 150 and were comprised of "white Americans," ages 22 to 32, and almost equally divided between males and females. He noted the demonstrators displayed banners and placards and a simulated coffin which was apparently intended to symbolically portray the "death of justice." [redacted] explained he understood the demonstrators were associated with the [redacted] and were protesting the recent sentencing of their leader in India to life imprisonment. He identified this leader or "JAGI CHIEF" as
THE CITY OF PATNA, THE CAPITAL OF THE INDIAN STATE OF BIHAR, FOR THE MURDER OF SIX MARO DEFECTORS IN INDIA DURING THE SUMMER OF 1975. WAS NOT AWARE OF
ANY SPECIFIC THREATS OR ACTS OF VIOLENCE ASSOCIATED WITH THE UNITED STATES BASED ARAHWA MARA GROUP.

ON DECEMBER 13, 1976, FOREIGN MISSIONS DIVISION, EPS, WDC, ADVISED THE ARRESTS
RESULTED WHEN FOUR MEMBERS OF THE GROUP POSITIONED THEMSELVES
ON THE STEPS TO THE FRONT ENTRANCE OF THE EMBASSY OF INDIA
AND REFUSED TO MOVE WHEN ASKED TO DO SO. RELATED THESE INDIVIDUALS OFFERED NO RESISTANCE UPON ARREST, AND THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF ANY THREATS OR VIOLENCE DIRECTED TO OFFICIALS
WITHIN THE EMBASSY. FURTHER, REPORTED THESE INDIVIDUALS
POSTED FIFTY DOLLARS EACH FOR BOND AND WERE RELEASED ON DECEMBER 3, 1976. HE SUBSEQUENTLY LEARNED THE BOND HAD BEEN FORFEITED BY EACH PERSON.

THE FACTS OF THIS CASE WERE PRESENTED BY A REPRESENTATIVE
OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) ON DECEMBER 13, 1976, TO ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEY (AUSA), CHARLES HUETC Inge, who was told by the FBI to close this file because there was no apparent violation of protection of foreign officials statute. The hill had already been a forfeiture of money in this case, this matter did not warrant further investigation by the FBI.

Vocations for Social Change, Inc. (VSC) is a non-profit organization incorporated on August 1, 1967, in Verea, Kentucky, "to promote educational efforts aimed at informing the public of opportunities in the field of Social Change." VSC is currently located in Canyon, California, and publishes a pamphlet bimonthly which lists job opportunities for "help wanted ads" placed by organizations in various states of the United States.

The following organizations listed alphabetically are those which have not previously advertised in VSC publications. These were contained in the January-February and March-April, 1972 editions of "Vocations for Social Change". For convenience, the location of each organization has been set forth in parentheses after the name of each group.
ALLEGHENY-KISKI VALLEY CITIZENS FOR PEACE
(PITTSBURGH)

"A Peace intern is urgently needed to organize the activities of the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Citizens for Peace; and to coordinate and direct volunteers at the Peace Center. The group operates a storefront Peace Center located in New Kensington, a rural, industrial community northeast of Pittsburgh. It is a diverse group of many ages, economic and ethnic backgrounds, interested in political action toward ending the Vietnam war and fostering better human relations. The Center sponsors draft counseling, discussion groups on new priorities, education workshops, and seminars. We can provide food, shelter, and pocket money. CONTACT Allegheny-Kiski Valley Citizens for Peace, P.O. Box 34, New Kensington, Pa., or call evenings 412-339-2242."

ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY
(KANSAS CITY)

"For those who wish to combine a personal spiritual trip with work on alternative institutions, the Ananda Marga Yoga society is in need of teachers, nurses, professionals, journalists, and anyone else who wishes to take part in establishing new schools, daycare centers, magazines, newspapers, old age centers, clinics and other essential services for the birth of a new society. The philosophy of Ananda Marga goes beyond just trying to attain individual perfection. We believe that the developed personalities should take the lead in bringing about a new social order where all men and women can be assured of the necessities of life and more. In most of the jobs which are now available or will be opening up, we will attempt to pay the worker a subsistence salary or offer room and board. In some areas of the country this will more difficult than others. For more information CONTACT Education Relief and Welfare Section, Ananda Marga Yoga Society, 3453 E. 12th St., Wichita, Ks 67208."

CENTER FOR DRAFT COUNSELING
(SAN FRANCISCO)

"The Center for Draft Counseling in Santa Rosa is a local draft counseling office. We have been serving Sonoma, Napa, Lake, and Mendocino counties for more than two years. We are looking for a dedicated and resourceful counselor (draft)"
"to help run the place. We can offer a place to live but no salary as of now. Write if interested. CONTACT Center for Draft Counseling, 608 College Ave, Santa Rosa, CA 95404, att: Jeff Woodruff.

CENTER FOR ITHACA ALTERNATIVES (ALBANY, NY)

"The Center is a new group formed from the staff of a crisis/growth center. We do a publication, Guava Jelly which is a source of information about alternatives in Ithaca, of peoples' skills and needs, etc. We are interested in doing more counseling around alternatives; helping people find their own solutions. We need more staff, and can help raise subsistence. For more information CONTACT David Chidakel, 412 Linn St., Ithaca, N.Y. 14850."

COMMITTEE ON NEW ALTERNATIVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST (NEW YORK)

"The Committee is a cooperative effort of members of the peace community working with the national peace organizations (AFSC, FOR, WRL, WSP, etc.) to explore the possibilities for and methods of achieving a peaceful settlement of the Middle East conflict. The Committee will need one or two staff members (depending on talents) around May. They must be able to to all sorts of administrative work, research, and set up speaking schedules. Some sort of experience is essential. For this impossible job they will pay the going subsistence rates that tend to plague the many peace groups under this roof. For more information—CONTACT Committee on New Alternatives in the Middle East, 339 Lafayette St., NY, NY 10012-212-475-4380."

COMMUNITY OF COMMUNES (ALBANY, NY)

"This is not a sketch of anything real yet, but we have 220 acres of land, and a fantasy to set up a place where several communes can live in peace. We want to be involved in making of products and food, books and schools, and other things for alternative purposes. We will flow the things we can make to the small but growing number of groups of people working to build alternatives; we will not be geared “to profit-making. We will be working in connection with the Center for Ithaca Alternatives (see above listing). We would like people to join us; we can't afford to pay, but hope to see this community develop enough to support people. For more information CONTACT David Chidakel, 412 Linn St., Ithaca, N.Y. 14850.”

COSTA MESA FREE SCHOOL
(LOS ANGELES)

“We're working hard to get a tuition-free school started in Costa Mesa by February 1972. The school will be from kindergarten to eighth grade. We won't have formal grades—the kids will work and play at their own pace. Most of the students will be Mexican-Americans and low income and welfare kids. The emphasis will be on fitting education to the student, and mostly letting them do that, and making learning meaningful and fun. We need at least one certified teacher, we can't offer much money. We also need more ideas of ways to raise money for our school. For more information CONTACT Barb Bennett, 115 East Balboa Blvd., Newport Beach, Calif. Ca 92661.”

CREATIVITY
(MEMPHIS)

“We feel that people should learn by living. The key to this is their living/learning environment. We are creating our environment for learning about 30 miles outside of Nashville, Tenn., where we hope to build 10-20 domes to serve as centers. We are looking for other learners who want to actively create/their selves: bothersome sharers and learners, people in all spheres of learning. We plan to utilize the resources of the Nashville community, as well as those of our own environment; we also would like to set up a communications network among alternative schools and learning centers in the South. —CONTACT Creativity, 2508 Blair, Nashville, TN 37212.”

DENVER LEARNING COMMUNITY
(DENVER)

“The Denver Learning Community is a private, non-graded ‘free high school’. We've been going since September...
"1971, have about 40 members, and have the workings of a real community. We recently got approval from the local draft board to hire CO's to fulfill their alternative service and we're really open to helping our brothers in this way. So, anyone interested in working with an experimental learning community as a CO, and willing to work out subsistence -- CONTACT Denver Learning Community, 1170 Josephine St., Denver, CO 80206; (303) 322-5564."

(PORTLAND)

"People are needed for the EdCentric Magazine editorial collective. EdCentric is a radical magazine dedicated to change in education. Members of the collective live and work together and share what food and housing space is available. We are seeking people who are experienced in some form of campus based organizing and who view educational reform as one part of a serious revolutionary struggle in this country. Women are especially needed to help balance the overly male dominated tendencies of the movement. People with layout skills, graphic abilities, editing skills or a desire to work hard should CONTACT EdCentric, PO Box 1802, Eugene, ORE. Or 97401 or call (503) 343-0610."

THE FAMILY TREE COMMUNITY LIVING PROJECT
(DALLAS) TEXAS

"The family tree community living project is a halfway house on a 200 acre farm in Tennessee. This project will be a vocational school and, as a separate, but on-site facility, will be a therapeutic community for drug addicts. The staff of all facilities will also live in a communal effort.

"The land has already been obtained, but more people and resources are needed. They are looking for people who are interested and able enough to work with approximately 100 male juvenile delinquents, runaways or orphans or with hard core drug addicts. Requirements are for creative, hard working people who are more into each other than they are defiance, dope, or destruction. Education qualifications depend on positions, especially in the school, but they need not necessarily be a hangup."
"Details for obtaining money and materials to build from scratch, one school, living facilities and recreational areas are presently being worked out. Potential population is 200.

"People who are interested, in any way, in this project are invited to write telling what you want to do in life and what you expect in return as well as what practical experience you've had and what you feel you can offer. CONTACT John R. Drummer, The Family Tree, P.O. Box 10235, Fort Worth, Texas, 76114."

FORT JACKSON PROJECT-COLUMBIA MILITARY/DRAFT INFORMATION SERVICE (COLUMBIA)

"We started doing draft and discharge counseling and now are into starting G.I. projects in the south. We emphasize legal action against the brass as a practical and perhaps long term solution to many army actions. We could use staff members but the only thing we can offer is food and a place to stay until the person can become self-supporting. At the present we are all white, heterosexual males who have spent lots of time in universities. INDEPENDENT LEARNING CENTER
(MILWAUKEE)

"The Independent Learning Center, an alternative high school in Milwaukee, is looking for someone to run an auto mechanics co-operative. Duties are twofold: to teach all phases of car repair and also to instigate and develop a co-operative pro-community anti-capitalistic vision to the students working in the program. As the school is founded on the ideas of social change and practice, the latter emphasis is as important as the vocational training itself. Funds are available for the person and program. CONTACT Don Cotton, 938 N. 14th St., Milwaukee, WI 53233."

INDEPENDENT LEARNING CENTER
(MILWAUKEE)

"The Independent Learning Center is a free high school located on the south side of Milwaukee in a white working class neighborhood. They are looking for 2 high-energy people who want to work in radical, community-oriented education.

"One of their needs is for a part-time or full-time arts-crafts resource person who is interested in exploring artistic expression with students in a political context. They also need someone with special skills to raise funds, coordinate business, and develop city wide contacts to insure I.L.C.'s survival.

"Survival salary available. If interested, CONTACT Independent Learning Center, 1437 W. Lincoln, Milwaukee, WI 53205; 414-384-4760."

"Peace, Bread and Land is a group of two musicians who are attempting as a movement band to write and play music that reflects revolutionary thought to get the songs to people interested in hearing them in as simple and direct manner as possible and to keep as much money as possible coming from their efforts in the hands of the people. The band will play benefits, rallies, concerts, etc. if transportation is supplied."
"We have produced a record using three side musicians - the profits being equally divided between the Angela Davis Defense Committee, the Black Panther Party survival programs, and two Seattle free women's clinics, the Open Door and Fremont. The songs on the 10" album are: 'The Wheel of the Law' (a poem of Ho Chi Minh's), 'Take it Away' and 'The End of Silence' and 'Women's Song', 'Angela', and 'Playing in the Water' by us. A complete financial report is printed on the jacket.

"We would like to have other musicians join us to make our sound as good as possible. Specifically, we need an electric bassist, a trap drummer-percussionist, and a keyboard person. We are a singer (woman) and guitarist (man). Women and Third World musicians preferred. Unfortunately the movement cannot support movement musicians, so we have to do non-movement hustling. Prospective new members should send lengthy and detailed correspondence and a tape to let us know how they play. We would provide a place to stay for the right people.

"The album 'Liberation Music' can be ordered by mail by sending $2.00 to Peace, Bread & Land, Box 12664, Seattle, WA 98111, (206) ME 3-2233."

"A proposed outreach library program needs a director to serve the disadvantaged, homebound, handicapped, intercultural outreach and senior citizens in social change activities. Special needs of those who cannot get to the library require an innovative service system. Some experience in working for social change is desirable. CONTACT Mr. D. Wolcott, Stark County District Library, 236 Third Street, E. W. Canton, OH 44702."

"United Peoples Services is a fund raising organization in Milwaukee that serves social change organizations. The concept is to solicit one donation
"from a person that will be divided among the affiliates. The organization is already set up but needs a full time fund raiser. Person must be able to relate to the politics of the affiliates (Welfare Rights, Brown Berets, Food Co-ops, etc.) and to raise funds from groups and individuals as well as plan fund raising events that would educate as well as raise money. Some experience in 'cause' fund raising is probably desirable as support funds would not last long enough for someone to learn this sort of thing from scratch. Survival wage can be paid and some kind of percentage from raised funds can eventually be worked out. For more information, CONTACT Larry Robbins, 938 N. 14th St., Milwaukee, Wisc. WI 53233."

UNITED WORLD PRESS COOPERATIVE
(SACRAMENTO) CALIF

"UWPC is a counter-media press service and publishing collective. They are interested in having new people join them. Experience in media work preferred, (but anyone can learn). Preparing the magazine, Rama Pipien, the Interim Press Release, and a new weekly radio program, Ramaradio, entails long hours of editing, correspondence, indexing, taping, as well as general living/work at the ranch. Room and board and independence are all we currently offer, plus the chance to do some meaningful, creative work in an excellent craft: people's media. Write to UWPC about yourself to set up a visit. Articles, cartoons, essays, poetry, and artwork are also needed. Material received with a self-addressed envelope (stamped) will be returned. If interested CONTACT UWPC, Rama Pipien Collective, Box 641, New Castle, Calif. 95658."

VOYAGE HOUSE
(PHILADELPHIA)

"Voyage House is a cooperative organization working with people under eighteen who need help. Most of them are runaways or throwaways, for whom Voyage is a place and people to support self-determined decision making. We need staff to work in our halfway house and in our center as educational, vocational, and personal 'guides'. We pay $200/month. Staff must be over 21, have some experience at surviving out of school/college, free of mental health
"stereotype behavior. We like to laugh alot at Voyage, too. If you're interested, write about yourself to Jim Littrell, Voyage House, 2041 Walnut Street, Philadelphia Pa 19103."

WALTHAM GROUP

The Group is a left-liberal organization, but is becoming more willing to align themselves with the People against the established bureaucracy. The Group needs a full-time coordinator with high creative abilities, administrative skills, and experience to work with University students and community residents in running such programs as: tutoring and recreation; community nursery school; teenage drop-in centers; and other social action programs. The coordinator should have at least a B.A., but creativity and experience in community action programs is more important than an academic background. Salary is about $7,000 a year. The job begins on or before July 1, 1972. For more information---CONTACT Donald Abel, Waltham Group, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA 02154."

ANAND MARG,
ALSO KNOWN AS
ANANDA MARGA,
ANANDA MARGA YOGA SOCIETY,
UNIVERSAL PROUTIST REVOLUTIONARY FEDERATION

The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anadamurti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from Anand Marg. The Anand Marg and its splinter groups, i.e., Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation, etc., have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader Sarkar, and social revolution in India.

The Anand Marg was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba" or Ananda Murthiji, and advocates the overthrow of the Indian government and a takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of Anand Marg. The group reportedly had indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution. Sarkar has been imprisoned since 1971 on charges he ordered the murder of several defectors from the Anand Marg. He has since been released in 1978 on bond pending an appeal before the Indian Court.

Sarkar claims to be the incarnation of God and his purpose is to establish a government of moralists. He has succeeded in persuading his followers that he has supernatural powers and can liberate their souls. Once the organization gained some popularity it became involved in politics.

Since 1968, Anand Marg started opening branches in different countries under the guise of yoga societies, pre-school programs, and relief centers. Some of the foreign disciples have traveled to India for instruction.

Ananda Marg established itself in the United States in 1971 when Acharya Yatishwarananda Avadhoot, alias R. Venkatanarayan, was sent to propagate the group's philosophy. The headquarters were established in Wichita, Kansas, under the name of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society of USA. In 1973 the Society bought its own three-story building at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and moved its headquarters there.

The Ananda Marga Yoga Society is self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline, and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. In 1975 the Society claimed to have 80 branches in the U.S. In 1972 and 1973, it engaged in demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, protesting the jailings of its spiritual leader, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti (Sarkar). These demonstrations were peaceful; however, a demonstration at the Indian Embassy on April 23, 1973, resulted in the arrest of two Society members. They were charged with "Depositing of Trash in a Public Place" after they attempted to deliver to the Indian Ambassador the ashes of a monk who had immolated himself. In the process, the container of ashes was dropped and broke on the Embassy steps.

In late 1976, Sarkar claimed to have eight million followers in India, Great Britain, the United States, Canada, The Philippines, and Australia.

Activity in the United States

The Ananda Marg (AM) Sanskrit for Path of Bliss, is a self-described religious-political organization based on the Progressive Utilization theory (PROUT), which calls for the maximum utilization and rational distribution of all physical and spiritual resources of the "individual, collective body, and universe." While PROUT professes to be neither capitalist nor communist, its primary tenet is that no individual should be allowed to accumulate any wealth without the "approval of the collective body." According to PROUT, only the elite who possess "education, morality, and socioeconomic-politico consciousness" should be invested with political power.

Enclosed herewith are the original and one copy of a memorandum pursuant to a request in your memorandum dated January 30, 1978.

Enclosures (2)
On November 28, 1977, Silla Kotewar, Assistant Director for Supply, Indian Embassy, 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., was stabbed by an unknown assailant outside the Embassy Annex. On December 1, 1977, the Indian Embassy, Washington, D.C., received a letter from a group identifying itself as the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF) claiming credit for this attack and demanding the immediate and unconditional release of political prisoner P. R. Sarkar. P. R. Sarkar is the founder of Anand Marg (AM) and is currently incarcerated in India for conspiring in the murders of several former followers, who defected from AM.

AM is headquartered in the United States, in Denver, Colorado. Following the stabbing of Mr. Kotewar, AM leaders in Denver, Colorado; Washington, D.C.; and elsewhere in the United States initiated contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, disclaiming any connection with the UPRF or any knowledge or responsibility regarding the stabbing of Mr. Kotewar or any other acts of terrorism directed at Indian establishments and personnel within the United States or elsewhere. Additionally, AM leaders in Denver and other United States cities offered to be of assistance to this Bureau in developing information regarding the UPRF attacks.
Therefore, it would appear that the AHI proposes to tackle the challenge to its credibility on the part of the UPRF by cooperating with this Bureau and other law enforcement agencies in solving these UPRF-claimed attacks. It would appear that by continually denying any association with the UPRF and by publicly condemning the UPRF, the AHI hopes to maintain its credibility.

This Bureau is investigating incidents, which the UPRF may or may not be responsible for, but for which letters or telephone calls were received alleging UPRF responsibility, under the Act for the Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the United States. A separate domestic security or foreign counterintelligence investigation has not been instituted regarding AHI or the UPRF. Therefore, this Bureau is not in a position or in possession of information to respond to Paragraphs 2, 3, and 4.

"Mr. Sarkar was charged with murder and kidnapping in seven cases, in two of which he was acquitted last month by the Patna High Court. Today, another court granted him bail pending judgment in the remaining cases."

"The secretary of the sect, A.S. Awadhoot, who is also involved in the charges, was released today with Mr. Sarkar. Four other members who were charged have been acquitted."

"Mr. Sarkar, who is called "Baba", or father, was arrested on 12/29/71, by the Government of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, which viewed his sect as subversive. In addition to being charged with killing six former disciples, Mr. Sarkar and his society were accused of espionage and insurgency, and were linked by the Gandhi Government to the United States Central Intelligence Agency. The Government subsequently banned the group."

"Mr. Sarkar, the focus of numerous protests in several cities, including Washington, has contended that his society is non-violent, and is devoted to philosophy, yoga, social and spiritual reform. Former members have charged, however, that the group is involved with sadism and homosexuality. (U)"

Indices of the NYO reflect no references on anyone. (S)
Indices of the NYO reflect a closed NY file 185-689, entitled, UNIVERSAL PROUTIST REVOLUTIONARY FEDERATION; ATTEMPTED FIREBOMBING OF AIR INDIA OFFICE, 400 PARK AVENUE, NY, NY, 10/20/77", with character, "PFO-SUBVERSIVE, EID-EXTORTION". It is the subject of Bureau file 185-930 and Denver file 100-11898.

Under the same NY file number (185-689), an investigation was conducted under the title, "UNSUB; Stabbing of SILLA KOTESWOR, Attache, Embassy of India, At Embassy Annex, Located at 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C., November 28, 1977" with character, "PFO-ASSAULT-CRIMINAL". It is the subject of Bureau file 185-942, Denver file 185-12 and WFO file 185-538.

Investigation in both these matters involves the activities of members of Anand Marg (AM) and Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF) in the US.
A review of these files reflects that an AM chapter exists at Ithaca, NY, with its membership estimated at between 15 and 20 people, most of whom have some connection with Cornell University. Among names of persons involved with this chapter are

The NYO notes the possibility

It is left to the discretion of the Denver Office as to whether this lead should be pursued under a preliminary inquiry.

The preliminary investigation conducted by the NYO does not seem to indicate that the AM is either a terrorist organization or under the direction of a foreign power as defined in the Attorney General Guidelines. There appears to be no AM chapter in the greater NY area and only one individual who may be suspected as violence prone, namely

The AM was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba", and advocates the overthrow of the Government of Indian and takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of AM. The group reportedly has indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution.

In the past, the primary objective of the terrorist activity conducted by members of AM was to gain the release of their leader who was imprisoned on charges that he ordered the murders of several "defectors" from AM. However, prior to and after the release of the leader in 1978, AM has committed several acts of violence which appear to be concerned with Indian domestic issues.
